Dear Carolyn

By now you are wondering what has happened to me. I will start this long-long letter today & finish it later. I still go to Seymour and stay part of the time with my mother. I have started at least 4 letters to you since Feburary only to find some new data requiring me to change my letters as I found that some of my theorys were wrong or possibly wrong. I used the ten dollars that you returned & made you some copys of data or letters in my files. I plan to use the balance in mailing this to you. There is nothing outstanding in this but I think you may be interested in reading some of it. But I failed to copy everything & I need to do this before sending any of it, otherwise I will be mixed up and fail to mail you everything. I am sorry for the delay in writing. The next time you write I will try to answer sooner. I have written some letters recently but I wanted to hold off in writing this long letter until I could see through the puzzles that bother me. I appreciate the fact that you are interested in other Pettypool familys than your own. We are probably among only a few that are. It is nice to have others to work with on this old family and to share data with. I have not written to Clayton Willis for months. I need to do this soon. He has been good to share data with me.

In February I had the flu for a month and the only thing I did genealogically or otherwise was to copy some Virginia data from film at the Springfield library that I had earlier ordered. After your letter arrived I found one or two things in books under lock at the library requiring a signature that was in your letter and I had also seen one or two things previously but failed to write the data down & had forgot where I had read it. But mostly your letter had new data for me, which I really appreciated receiving. Your letter turned on my genealogy interst & enoouraged me too as I now hope we can find enough data to know more about these old Pettypool familys or to identify some that I find in records or at least to better speculate about them. I sometimes get a little discouraged because I find so little useful data or because I cannot identify some of these familys. Between your letter & new data at the library and the LDS branch church, I think I can better write about the Pettypools. But I am still puzzled by several things and about so many William Pettypools (P.Pools) that I cannot identify. I really need to do more research before writing this letter, but I have already waited too long. This may be as long as a book & you may need to read a little at a time or you will be confused & worn out & bored by it. This letter won't have much continuity & I will be jumping from one thing to another. I am sure that some of your ideas will be some different to some of mine. I hope the data & theorys in this letter does not confuse you. I may be wrong on several things in my guesses. I want to refer to some of your references or questions ih your letter but will try to refer to some by just showing data & theorys. I may also repeat things already shown in my earlier letters.

I found new data at LDS Church. They have some mortality schedules for several states & early census records, with other records mixed in such as state census & state tax lists etc. The early census records & misc records start with Search #1 for a period before 1790 & from 1790 to 1810 then Search #2 for 1820 etc. Some of the early census records show the familys by age groups. LDS also have soldier information on the Rev & Civil wars but the records I ordered of the Civil war did not show one of my ancestor's who was a confederate. I may order RevWar data on soldiers later. I have ordered film of county records of Hall Co, Ga & Sumter Co, SC at LDS also.

I wrote to you about my Henry P. Pool ba 1760-62 in Virginia & his brother Isham P.Poo b 1770 in Virginia who for years lived in Montgomery Co NC & shown in Census as Pool. Henry moved to Hall Co, Ga about 1819-20 & after 1830 Isham moved to the joining county of Richmond, NC. Henry married Jenny Green in Lunenburg Co, Va on 10/11 1788 & there were 2 sons born 1789 & 1790 & a daughter about 1793-98 & Henry's wife soon died. Family records show that Henry & 1st wife had two sons without nameing them. The 1800 NC census shows them as 10 & upward. by 1810 they were 20 & 21 but not shown in the census as living in Henry's house. Possibly they were in a friend or a neighbor's house when the census taker came by or possibly in another county or state with or near relatives. And as I wrote to you a Colwell Poole (nicknamed Collin Poole) was on the same census page of the 1810 Montgomery Co NC census as Henry P.Pool. Colwell's descendants say that he was born 1789-90, the same time that Henry had 2 sons born. But I do not think the he was Henry's son though he evidently was a Pettypool. As I believe that the family tradition of Mrs Seth Gayle at Richmond, Va and Eric Bruton at High Point, NC is accurate, which says that Colwell was the son of Colwell P.Pool, the Rev War soldier of Virginia b 1746. Mr Bruton & Mrs Gayle descend from the son Colwell Poole & his father in law, Thomas Blake.

Write to Russell about this

One of their distant relatives wrote an article in the Montgomery Co, NC heritage book indicateing that Thomas Blake made a trip to Virginia in 1805-06 to visit his old Rev War friend Colwell P.Pool. And that when Thomas returned to NC he brought back the son Colwell Poole, the youngest child of 8 or 9 children of Colwell P.Pool. Another ~~sayss~~ says that Colwell came to NC at an earlier age, so possibly Thomas Blake went to Virginia in the 1790's. In 1809 Colwell married Charlotte Blake d-o Thomas Blake. In a book listing living Rev War soldiers in 1840 Thomas Blake was living in Montgomery Co NC with his son in law Colwell Poole....I wonder if Thomas Blake found his friend Colwell P.Pool sickly & about to die or already dead & may be the reason the son came to NC with Thomas.

Dar records show that Colwell P.Pool, the Rev War soldier died in Lunenburg Co after 1800-20 which could mean after 1800 or after 1820 or could mean after 1800 & before 1820. Colwell is also shown in Virginia records as ~~Colwell~~ Coldwell & Caldwell. I doubt there was more than one Colwell P.Pool in Lunenburg Co, Va area up to the Rev War but I think there was more than one soon after the War and I want to soon mention them. Dar records does make some mention of Colwell in the Rev War in May 1777 but does not show that he died on May 31, 1777 as the Dr P.Pool book shows. Dar shows that he was discharged in 1778. I am told there was fighting after 1778. If so I wonder if he received an early dischage as a result of being wounded. In 1780 he made a deed of gift to 6 of his children which seems odd because all were young & Colwell was not exactly old. Maybe he thought he might die anytime from a War wound.

I am glad that you wrote about Colwell's son in law Edmund Bacon appointed guardian over Colwell's orphans (younger children) in 1795. It would appear that Colwell died in 1794-95. I wonder if the word orphan means that Colwell & wife were both dead or just one of them were. If his wife had died then I suppose that Colwell might have not been able to look after the children and he might have later remarried. But I doubt that this happened as I have seen nothing indicating it. And probably the article that you found means that Colwell died about 1794-95. I am trying to come up with a reason for Colwell being later shown in deed records. He's listed in Lunenburg deed records of 1778, 1779, 1780 & 1783. And in Lunenburg Co Colwell & son Wiltshire & Wiltshire's wife Martha signed an indenture in 1793 with a man named Herring. A date of 1799 is shown at the bottom of this paper but I suppose that this could be the date that the court took into account. I feel this proves that Colwell was living in 1793 but I do not know about 1799. Colwell was listed in the estate settlement of his father William Pettypool (P.Pool) III in 1813 in Halifax Co. I doubt that this means that Colwell was living then as his children could have benefited from his name in the settlement. The sons Colwell, William Jr, John E., Seth, Stehen & Allen E. were in this settlement & Stephen was the Administrator. This means that all the children of William III who were born from 1746 to 1786 are his children by two wives and the last wife was younger. My Henry P.Pool had children born over a 40 year span by two wives & the 2nd was younger.

Another Caldwell Pettypool

Halifax Co, Va index of deeds in 1815 shows that Caldwell P.Pool deeded land to his half brother Allen T. P.Pool in 1815 and also to his brother in law William Overby & in 1817 deeded land to Abel Gregory. But at this time of 1815 most or all of Caldwell' brothers were shown in the index of deeds and deeding land to some of their brothers and I cannot figure what was going on. In the 3 above deeds the grantor is shown as Caldwell P'Pool & c or Caldwell P'Pool & wife & c. I do not know what "& c" means unless it means "and children". I would need to look at the actual above deeds to tell much. I do not know how Colwell could be shown in these and to have died in 1794-95. Possibly the actual deeds may show "the children of Caldwell" instead of "Caldwell & children." Anyway I am beginning to see cases of people mentioned at that general time in Virginia in index of deed records & yet these people seem to be already deceased. This would not seem to be lawful now or possibly then either but yet it seems to somehow been done. At least it appears to have been done by what is shown in the index of deeds. Possibly if children or heirs of a deceased person were involved, then maybe it would have been legal to list the deceased man's name. In fact in 1828 in Halifax Co, Va on a certain day Caldwell P.Pool & all of his brothers deeded a certain 200 acres on West Aarons Creek to Thomas Howerton Sr. By this time I feel that Caldwell or Colwell was dead, but yet his name is listed in the index of deeds.

The Dr P'Pool book looks accurate in nameing the children of Colwell P.Pool & wife Mary (Marin) Gromarrin. It shows: 1. Martha P.Pool ba 1768 m. Edmund Parkes Bacon. 2. Wiltshire Gromarrin P.Pool b 1770 m. Martha Ingram. 3.Ursula P.Pool ba 1772 m. Lewellen Tucker. 4.Susanna Reaves P.Pool ba 1773 m. Henry Stokes. 5.Sarah P.Pool ba 1775 m. Mr Prescott (it was John W. Prescott). The first 4 children seem to agree with Dar records, tho may not be in exact same order of birth. But Dar names more children & shows the 5th child was Frances P.Pool who married Thomas Ingram & the 6th child was Elizabeth P.Pool who married Robert Ship.....(Lunenburg Co marriage records do show that Elizabeth Pettypool married Robert Ship in 1794 & Fannie Pettypool married Thomas Ingram in 1797).....But I wonder if this Elizabeth in the marriage record is Colwell's daughter, as the Christian & Trigg Co, Ky book shows that Elizabeth Pettypool d-o Colwell married Ephraim Faulkner. Something may be wrong or else Elizabeth was married twice. Dar shows the 7th child was Mary P.Pool who married Horattio Winn. Yet Lunenburg Co marriage records show that Horattio Winn in 1800 married Pattey Pettypool the d-o William Pettypool who in 1787 moved from Lunenburg Co, Va to Newberry Co, SC. And Pattie moved back to Lunenburg Co and married Horattio. Dar records may be wrong or else Horattio was married twice, both times to Pettypools. Since Dar does not name Sarah. P.Pool who married John W. Prescott, she would make the 8th child and the son Colwell who moved to NC & married Charlotte Blake would make the 9th child, but I am sure that I do not have them in the right order of birth.

DAR records wrong

The Dr P'Pool books shows that Buckner P'Pool (s-o Seth P'Pool & 1st wife Miss Overby) in Kentucky married Matilda Faulkner & that their 10th child William Benjamin P'Pool b 1842 in Trigg Co, Ky was married twice. His 2hd wife was Martha Ann Prescott. And that Martha Ann's mother was Sarah Pettypool who married John W. Prescott & that Sarah was d-o Colwell P.Pool. Buckner may have named this son for the earlier Benjamin P.Pool who died about 1801 in Mecklenburg Co, Va. Tho Buckner would not be a direct descendant of him, they would be related. And since it seems that Benjamin P.Pool married Rodah Overby, Buckner would be a nephew to Rodah. As Buckners mother Miss Overby was a sister to Rodah.......The Christian & Trigg Co book shows that E. J. Faulkner was b 1834 & that his father Ephraim Faulkner married Elizabeth P.Pool d-o Colwell P.Pool, the Rev War soldier & his wife Mattie. Notice it shows her name as Mattie & yet Colwell married Mary (Marin) Gromarrin, who may have been nicknamed Marin. A book showing names lists Mary, Marin & Mariah as the same name. I wonder if Mattie is also a nickname for Mary. If not, this might be an indication that Colwell was possibly married twice. But yet I have seen no indication that he did. There are several Faulkner poeple shown in the Dr P'Pool book and the Christian & Trigg Co book. I do not know how Matilda Faulkner is related to the others, but possibly you know.

Good to find marriage bond for Caldwell Pool husband of Mattie

In 1780 in Lunenburg Co, Colwell P.Pool deeded a gift to 6 children: Frances, Martha, Wiltshire, Ursula, Mary & Susannah. Sarah & Elizabeth may have not been born yet & Colwell was b-a 1789-90. If Dar is right & if Elizabeth married in 1794 to Robert Ship, she must have been born about the time the deed was made or just after and married in 1794, about 14 yrs old. If Colwell was sickly or dead in 1794 this might prompt her to marry early. Several old time women married at age 14 including my grandmother Odom.

Colwell had the son Wiltshire b 1770 who named a son Colwell b 1804. So Colwell had a son & g-son named Colwell. But there was a 4th one that I want to soon mention. In 1812-18 Wiltshire was in records of Madison Co, Ala & in the 1830 Madison Co Census. His sons John Pines P'Pool, Samuel P'Pool & Caldwell P'Pool were in the 1840 Madison Co Ala census shown as Pool. I think some of Colwell's sons or daughters later lived in Benton Co, MS. The Dr P'Pool book shows that Wiltshire died in 1852 in Virginia but in the 1850 Census he was living in Davidson Co, Tenn with his son In law John Webster, so possibly he died in Tenn.

I copied Peter Overby Sr's long will of 1812 in Mecklenburg Co, Va on Film. He evidently had 2 daughters to marry Pettypools. Miss Overby (her 1st name not known) married your Seth P.Pool and Rodah Overby evidently married Benjamin P.Pool. Peter names his sons & daughters in his will including a daughter Sylvania Puryear. He does not name Miss Overby (P.Pool) in 1812 as she evidently died after having the son Buckner P.Pool who was born either in 1800 or 1804. Peter names his daugher Rodah P.Pool and her children Peter P.Pool who was b 1786 d 1868, Patsey P.Pool who was probably ba 1787-88, Jechonias P.Pool & Sarah P.Pool. (I want to get back to these children later). Peter Overby probably named these g-children in their order of birth as some wills did this. Since Jecohias Overby a brother to Rodah & a son to Peter Sr was the administrator of the estate of Benjamin P.Pool ih 1801 in Mecklenburg Co I think Benjamin was the husband of Rodah. I also saw the Will of Drury Overby made in 1799 in Mecklenburg Co, Va. He may be a brother to Peter Sr. He names administrators as Peter Overby, Benjamin Pettypool & John Jones. Both Drury Overby & Benjamin P.Pool evidently died in 1801. I think Benjamin was probably about 15 yrs older than Rodah.

I also looked at the Will & invoice of William Poole Sr of 1816 in Mecklenburg Co which was on film. I wrote to you that I was puzzled that the index of Wills shows that among his heirs were Rodah P.Pool & some or all of her children. But evidently the index was in error. I had the librarian view the Will & invoice with me and we could not find Rodah or any other P.Pool. This is actually the Will of William Poole Jr (not a P.Pool). William Jr, Adam, Robert & Walter were sons of William Poole Sr (will of 1777 Mecklenburg Co). William Sr & his 4 sons were mentioned in earlier Lunenburg tithes & deeds. Then later in records of Mecklenburg & Brunswick Co. I am familiar with names (allied names) that married into this family and some of these were listed as witnesses. The Will shows him as William Poole Sr as his father William Sr is now dead and possibly another William Pool, a younger one, belongs to this family in 1816.

Now back to the 4th Caldwell or Colwell P.Pool. On 1/21 1808 in Granville Co, NC which borders Mecklenburg Co, Va & is near to Halifax Co, Va a Caldwell Pettypool married a Patsey Pettypool. They were Cousins but I am not sure yet just how close. Neither are descendants to the John Pettypool b 1725 & his brother Seth Pettypool Jr b 1730 who settled in Granville Co, NC. I am sure that Patsey is the d-o Benjamin & Rodah P.Pool. She was probably ba 1787-88 and marrys in 1808 which jibes. This Caldwell is probably a son to William Pettypool Jr b 1748 or to John E. Pettypool (his brother) b 1750. As you would expect that either would name a son for their brother Colwell Pettypool b 1746. But if he is a son of William Jr then he is by a 1st wife, as the Dr P'Pool book shows that William Jr married Katherine Moore in 1795 in Lunenburg Co. There was such a marriage but I have wondered which William it was. I thought that since William Jr was 47 at that time that this marriage might be a later William or that this was a 2nd wife for William Jr. However it could be an only wife to William Jr. Right now I am inclined to think that Katherine Moore was a 2nd wife.

More along this line, and I hope I can make sense. I do not always trust Dar records as they sometimes seem to have mistakes. Someone sent me a Dar records of your William Pettypool III (or Sr) and shows that his son Seth married Elizabeth Ladd. That is incorrect as this Seth was ba 1770 and was son of Seth Pettypool Jr b 1730 who settled in Granville Co NC. But anyway the Dar records show that William III's Tally son William Jr married Jane Tally----. So I do not know if this is correct, but if so she may have been a 1st wife. It is strictly a guess but I think William Jr may have 1st married a lady named Parham. I will soon show a reason for this guess which may not be correct. There were earlier Parham ties. In fact it is thought that William Pettypool SR of Prince Geo Co, Va wife's name was Elizabeth Parham.

More along this line & I just want to barely touch on this. Anyway evidently Colwell lived & died in Lunenburg Co, But evidently his father William III is listed in records of 1780's in Halifax Co, Va. But I think William III moved to Halifax Co about 1774 as he and Colwell and William Jr are in the May 1774 Lunenburg tithes. But in June 1774 A William Pettypool and a Seth Pettypool both had large tracts of land surveyed in Halifax Co, Va. This is evidently William III & his father Seth who deeded to William III (by Indenture) 588 acres of land in 1768, plus personal effects. But Evidently William III did not move to Halifax Co from Lunenburg Co until about June 1774 or just shortly after. There was a William Pettypool in Lunenburg Co tithes of 1775 but I am guessing that he was William III's son William Jr, or I think that possibly William III's brother Peter Pettypool of Lunenburg Co may have had a son by that name also. Seth Pettypool was still living in 1773 in Halifax Co but I am guessing that by 1773 or 1774 he was older & maybe a little sickly and that his Son William III moved to Halifax Co about 1774 or just after and I am guessing that Seth did not live a long time after that. But as to William III's sons William Jr & John E. and where they lived at all times I cannot say. I think that William Jr b 1748 probably sometime after 1774 also moved to Halifax Co to live near his father William III. But I am not sure about this. From looking at Halifax Co deeds it would appear that John E. moved to Halifax Co about 1815 to 1820 as he is shown in deeds then. But yet he is not shown in Halifax Co Census of 1820. I do not know if he was overlooked in the census. He was in the 1830 Halifax Co census. But I wonder where he lived say previous to the 1820's.

In the 1810 Tax Census of Halifax Co there were two William P.Pools and one Seth P.Pool. I think one is William III and his son Seth P.Pool. And I am inclined the other William is his son William Jr. But yet this could be a son of Peter Pettypool as I am guessing that Peter had a son by this name. I cannot come up with another William unless I say that Peter had a son by that same name. Of these three men, the 1820 Halifax Co Census only shows one man named William P.Pool and I suppose it is William Jr b 1748 as by 1813 William III was dead in Halifax Co and Seth P.Pool in 1818 had moved to Kentucky.

But then we are faced with another William Pettypool marrying on 2/15 1775 in Lunenburg Co, Va to Frances Brooks (evidently a 2nd wife). They moved to Newberry Co SC about 1787 and he died there in 1796-97. I am guessing that he was born approx 1747-48 about the same time that William Jr (son of William III or Sr) was born. I am guessing that he married a 1st wife about 1768 & had the three children Edward P.Pool & Pattie P.Pool who both returned to Lunenburg Co & married in 1800 and Mary P.Pool who married a Mr. Ragsdale. And William & Frances had other children, also named in his Will. This William moving to SC has to belong to someone. But I have changed my mind about him & I think He may be a son to Peter Pettypool instead of his (Peter's) brother William III. That is the only way I can come up with another William.

I am also guessing that William Pettypool Jr b 1748 (s-o William III or Sr) was actually living in Halifax Co when he possibly married Katherine Moore in 1795 in Lunenburg Co. Possibly he married there as Katherine may have lived in Lunenburg Co and I think it was the custom to marry in the Bride's home or near to it.

So you can see there are two William P.Pools that are in question, and what makes it further confusing is that the Dr P'Pool book shows that William Pettypool Jr married in 1795 to Katherine Moore and the Virginia records of British Mercantile claims shows that a William Pettipool Jr moved from Lunenburg Co to ~~Newberry Co~~ SC about 1787. Both are shown as Jr. William III's son was William Jr but I suppose if Peter also had a son named William he also might have used Jr also because William III was his uncle. One evidently moved to Halifax Co and the other to Newberry Co SC and my reasoning above & here may not make much sense but If I vice versa these men and say that Peter's son went to Halifax Co, Va that does not exactly make good sense either. I have about wore myself out looking at Lunenburg tithes from 1748 to 1783 trying to identify different Pettypool men, especially the ones by the name William and trying to figure where each man lived at and who their neighbors were. And some of the tithes records for certain years do not seem to be complete and evidently some records were lost.

I think the William Pettipool who moved to Newberry Co SC may have 1st married a lady by the name of Ragsdale despite the fact that he had a daughter to marry a Ragsdale. But this is guessing and I want to get back to some of this later in my letter.

In the index of deeds of Lunenburg Co in 1757 Katherine Gwin deeded something to Peter Pettypool. Then in 1763 Peter & Elizabeth Pettypool in Lunenburg Co deeded something to Anthony Fullilove. I would like to soon order these two deeds and see if they will tell me something. The 1763 record is the last I see of Peter. I think he was dead by 1773 or before. Or Possibly he moved from Lunenburg to another county or state.

In 1773 in Halifax Co Seth Pettypool b 1702 deeded a gift of land on Hyco Creek to Benjamin Pettypool, so they were related and I think Benjamin was another son to Peter Pettypool and hence a grandson to Seth. I think that Seth may have done this for 2 reasons. I think by 1773 that Peter was probably dead. And I think by this time that Seth was getting older and possibly a little sickly and he (Seth) possibly wanted to do something for a grandson who might have been in need, before he (Seth) died. In 1776 Benjamin deeded this tract of land away. So he was grown by 1773 & 1776 so I am guessing that he was born about 1753-56 sometime after Peter probably had a son William born about 1747-48. A lot of guesswork here. In 1789 Benjamin deeded more land to another man. And in 1791 he deeded 146 acres to a William Pettypool in Halifax Co. I had wondered which William Pettypool this was but I know now that it was to William III and this 146 acres was in on the total settlement of the estate of William III in 1813 in Halifax Co as I have a way of telling. Will spare you the details.

I have been hindered in the Lunenburg Co tithes & comparing the tithes for different years as some of them show people in Alphabetical order. The one in 1774 is in Alphabetical order but on p 341 it shows William P.Pool Jr and Frederick Pettypool then it shows other people with names starting with the letter "P" then on page 342 it shows your William III or Sr and sons Colwell & William Jr. I think this William on p 341 is my ancestor William Pettypool Jr b 1700 and his son Frederick and they would be father & g-father to my Henry Pettypool ba 1760-62 in Virginia. This must be the William Pettypool that Mrs Frances Curry says started the Pettypools into the habit of using the name P.Pool or P'Pool. She says he is buried in Virginia. I think this is the 1st instance I have seen of the name P.Pool. It is hard to tell how far my ancestor William Pettypool Jr b 1700 & son Frederick were living from your William Pettypool III or Sr and his sons Colwell & William Jr at that time of 1774. This was evidently a complete tithes record in 1774 tho in alphabetical order. From 1748 to 1774 I find William Pettypools also shown as P.Pool and Pool but can only identify them as the three men that I have shown above......But it is hard to tell as for some of these tithes before and after 1774, one of them could be a son to Peter Pettypool. And after 1774 I found a William Pool or P.Pool that I think could be a son to either my William Pettypool Jr b 1700 or to Frederick Pettypool. I think this is the William Pettypool who moved to Georgia about 1786 from Virginia as shown in British Mercantile Claims. I want to show more about this man later.

Well by now your head may be spinning. On Page 4 I said I would just touch on certain things but I got carried away. Now I want to get back to the Caldwell Pettypool who in 1808 in Granville Co NC married a cousin Patsey Pettypool d-o Benjamin & Rodah (Overby) P.Pool. As I mentioned this Caldwell is probably a son to either William Pettypool Jr b 1748 and a 1st wife or a son to John E. Pettypool b 1750 and I think both of these brothers finally settled in Halifax Co, Va. I think since this son is named Caldwell or Colwell that he would not be another ~~son~~ descendant to Peter Pettypool. At this marriag in 1808 a bondsman was Seth Pettypool. This is your Seth Pettypool who lived in Halifax Co until 1818 when he moved to Kentucky. Since Seth was a half brother to Colwell B 174 & William Jr b 1748 and John E. B 1750 hence I think Seth was a half uncle to this Caldwell or Colwell Pettypool who married in 1808. I am inclined to think this younger Caldwell belongs to William Jr & a 1st wife. At this marriage a Thomas Falconer was a witness.

The 1810 Granville Co, NC census in book form, on p 860 lists a Collin Pettyfoot. I would like to see the actual census on film, but regardless I think this is the Colwell Pettypool that married two years before this in 1808. Especially since the Rev War soldier had a son Colwell that went to NC and he too had a nickname of Collin. So Collin seems to sometimes be a nickname for Colwell. I think I have also seen other Pettypool people in census shown as Pettyfoot & even Pettyfool. Then on p 859 of this 1810 Census (one page over from page 860) was a Thomas Falconer & other Falconer People. He is evidently the Witness at the 1808 marriage, almost proving to me that this man in the 1810 census is the one that married in 1808. Then in 1820 Mecklenburg Co Census of Virginia (which borders Granville Co, NC) I found a Caldwell P.Pool and Allen T. P.Pool & Stephen P.Pool. So my first thought was that this was the Rev War Soldier born 1746 and his half brothers Stephen & Allen especially since Dar records show that Caldwell Pettypool died after 1800 & since he is named in deeds after 1800.

But when I looked at this 1820 Mecklenburg Co, Va census on Film I saw that it was a younger Caldwell P.Pool and was not the Rev War soldier Caldwell P.Pool or his son or grandson either. This Caldwell P.Pool & wife were both 26-44 years old so they were born anytime between 1776 and 1794. They have a daughter 10-16 and two sons under 10 & 2 daughters under 10. This would jibe with the marriage of 1808. The oldest daughte was probably born about 1808-09 (right after the marriage). And would be about 11 or 12 years old. When I first saw this census before I found the marriage record I estimated the mother was probably born about 1785 and that the father was b-a 1783. But the father could have been born before this time. But I think this is Patsey Pettypool ba 1787-88 d-o Benjamin & Rodah P.Pool of Mecklenburg Co, Va.

Allen married Sarah

Caldwell m Martha

"Patsy" "Mattie"

As I wrote to you Mr. L. C. Miller of Murray, Ky sent me family charts of his great g-father Benjamin P'Pool b 1810 in Mecklenburg Co, Va who settled in Trigg Co, Ky & married & had children & died in 1881 & is buried near Cadiz, Ky in Trigg Co. Mr Miller thinks that a Joseph P'Pool b 1817 in Virginia & who came to Kentucky & married & had children & who died in 1873 at Paducah, Ky (McCracken Co) was a brother to his Benjamin P'Pool. I think he is right and I think these two sons are the sons of the Caldwell Pettypool who married Patsey Pettypool in 1808 and are the two sons under 10 years old in the 1820 Mecklenburg Co, Va census. Mr Miller sent me family charts of both Benjamin & Joseph. Benjamin named a son Stephen Forrest P.Pool and Joseph named a son Parham Caldwell P'Pool. Also in the 1830 & 1850 Trigg Co Census there was a Caldwell P.Pool. I found this in an index and not the actual census. I hope to sometime see the actual census but I think it is the same Caldwell that Married in 1808 & was in the 1810 Granville Co NC Census shown as Collin Pettyfoot and also in the 1820 Mecklenburg Co, Va census shown as Daldwell P.Pool. Notice one son above of Joseph P'Pool was named Parham Caldwell P'Pool which would be for his g-father Caldwell and I am guessing the name Parham is for a Parham tie to a Pettypool family and I am guessing that this might be for William Pettypool Jr's (b 1748) wife and maybe his 1st wife was named Jane Parham and they had the son Caldwell Pettypool who married Patsey Pettypool. Also Notice Benjamin above in Ky named a son Stephen Forrest P.Pool. This son could have been named for the Stephen Pettypool who also lived in Mecklenburg Co, Va ba 1773 s-o William III. As this family would be of some relation to Stephen. Mr Miller's chart shows that he thinks that the father of his Benjamin P'Pool of Ky was a Caldwell P.Pool & his wife Sailey Pettipool. I suppose he means that her maiden name was Pettipool. But I have never seen the name of Sailey. I would think that her name was Patsey Pettipool. Maybe Sailey was a nickname.

Now the Dr P'Pool book and other research shows that William III's son Allen T. Pettypool b 1786 married a Sarah Pettypool (a Cousin). I think this is the Sarah Pettypool d-o Benjamin & Rodah P.Pool. Allen was in the 1820 Mecklenburg Co, Va census as shown above but he & Sarah & family evidently finally settled in the Christian & Trigg Co Ky area. In 1808 Seth P.Pool in Halifax Co, Va deeded land to Peter P.Pool, evidently the son of Rodah & Benjamin P.Pool. Peter is also shown in other deed records of Halifax Co, Va. In 1818 Seth P'Pool moved to Christian Co, Ky & is shown in Christian Co Tax recrods there of 1819 as Seth Pool. Jackanas or Jackanus P.Pool is shown in the Christian Co Tax records of 1817 & 1819 and he seems to have come to Kentucky before all the others. And Buckner P.Pool shown in these tax records in 1822. Before long Seth, Buckner & Jachanas are all in Trigg Co,Ky. In 1860 a Jackemus P.Pool is shown in a Christian Co marriage license with D. Jane Henshaw who was probably a 2nd wife. I had for sometime thought that this Jackanas, or Jackanus, or Jackemus was actually Jechonias P.Pool son of Benjamin & Rodah P.Pool. He is shown as Jackanas in the 1830 Trigg Co Ky Census. But recently at LDS I found him shown as Jechonias D. Pool in the 1820 Trigg Co Ky Census and he was on the same page as Seth P.Pool, your ancestor. I think your letter shows that he is shown with others in the Trigg-Christian Co,Ky book and I did not notice his name and I need to look at this book again as the last time I went to the library I failed to do this.

As I wrote to you your Seth P.Pool had a daughter to marry Henry Childress in Christian Co and they moved to Lawrence Co, Mo not far from where I live. Frances Curry at Springfield, Mo descends from this couple. She went to Ky & Virginia doing research & in Ky found the name of Jackanus or Jechonias. And when she returned to Missouri she later found the same name or similar to this in Lawrence Co, Mo where her Pettypool ancestors settled. She has been unable to find this record again as she failed to write the title of the book down. She wonders if it is the same man of Kentucky. Rodah & Benjamin's other son Peter P.Pool evidently lived in Halifax Co, Va for years & was in the 1830 census there. He married Elizabeth Shotwell & they finally moved to NC & about 1845 moved to Christian Co Ky & later taken into Trigg Co. Their son George P' Pool is featured in the Christian & Trigg Co, Ky book & Peter is mentioned in this & some of his other children mentioned by name too. Peter died in 1868 & is buried in the P'Pool cemetery at Bainbridge Ky, in Christian Co. He was born in 1786.

So altogether we have your Seth P.Pool & wife & family coming to Ky, also his son Buckner by Seth's 1st wife. Also Jechonias & Peter P.Pool sons of Benjamin & Rodah P.Pool came to this Ky area. Also the daughter Patsey P.Pool & her husband (a cousin) Caldwell. P.Pool Also the daughter Sarah P.Pool & her husband (a cousin) Allen T. P' Pool. Also the Rev War soldier Colwell P'Pool had a daughter Elizabeth who married Ephraim Faulkner that came there & Buckner P'Pool in Ky had the son William Benjamin P'Pool whose 2nd wife Martha Ann Presscott was d-o Sarah (P'Pool) Prescott who was also a d-o the Rev War soldier Caldwell P'Pool.

Perhaps this daughter is daughter Caldwell brother of Seth

In Lunenburg Va tithes from 1748 to 1774 I Find William Pettypools or P.Pool or Pool & in almost every case I think they were my Ancestore William Pettypool Jr b 1700 or your ancestor William Pettypool Sr or III or his son William Pettypool Jr b 1748. I feel that there was another at some time in this area and that he belonged to Peter Pettypoo b 1727 but I am not sure if he was in tithes records, but he could have been either before or after 1774. For years William Pettypool Jr b 1700 is shown as William or William Jr. The Dr P'Pool book shows his Will of Sep 1774 (parts of it) and refers to him as William II (which seems to jibe) but I think the author may have done this to distinguish him from their & your William III. The author also shows his will showing "my 3 younger sons". However a book of Virginia Wills refers to this Lunenburg Co Will as William SR. And Clayton Willis sent me an anctual copy of this Will which he received from Lunenburg Co showing him as William Pettypool Sr. This is puzzling as up to the May tithes of May 1774 he is shown as William Jr. This Will also refers to his wife and his 3 youngest sons instead of his 3 younger sons.

I have seen nothing to indicate that William Jr had a son by the name of William up to the time that the Will was made. But I think when he died in Sep 1774 that he either had a son named William still in his home or that he had a grandson by that named living in the home of Frederick Pettypool. This Will was made on William's death bed, made orally & one or two witnesses swore that this is what they heard William Pettypool Sr say on his bed. I think his wife was the mother of the 3 youngest sons in William's Will & naturally he would show them in his Will. I think they were much younger than the other sons & of course William Jr's 2nd wife would have had to be much younger.

Suddenly Mary P.Pool is shown in 1776 Lunenburg tithes (not shown before) & is evidently a Widow & 2nd wife to William Jr. David Burton (or Halliburton) was mentioned as a witness in the will & I wonder if William's 2nd wife was a Burton or Halliburton. This name of Halliburton in some cases was shortened to Burton. But I would rather think tha Mary maybe had been a Davis or a Dixon Possibly. It's hard to say what her name had been. Mary is shown in Lunenburg tax records of 1782 as P.Pool and in 1783 Lunenburg tithes as Pool. I think that William Jr porbably had 6 children or rather sons by a 1st wife Frances and porbably 3 more sons by a 2nd wife Mary. So you can see that I have changed my mind a bit.

I wrote to you about Baxter P.Pool suddenly shown in 1775 Lunenburg tithes & in 1782 tax records of Lunenburg & shown as Capt Baxter Pool in a book about Lunenburg Co. He was a Rev War soldier & was probably born in the 1750's. I was glad to get the obituar of Capt Baxter Pool in the Augusta, Ga Chronicle that you sent. After Baxter had the land grants of 1788 & 1793 in Franklin Co I think he moved in the 1790's to Richmond Co and a residents list shows him there between 1799 & 1805. He probably lived near Augusta. I wonder if ~~he~~ his wife Ann was a Beall because the man named Beall includes Baxter' sons McCarton & Laban in his Will. I want to watch for these two sons. I do have a little date on some Laban Pools & Laban P.Pools that I want to show later. I think there were several by the name Laban Pool or P. Pool. I don't think that I hav seen the name McCarton P.Pool though. I wrote to you that I thought that Baxter was a son to Frederick Pettypool & I still think that he may be but now I think that he may be one of the 3 youngest sons named in the Will of William Pettypool Jr in Sep 1774.

The Dr P'Pool book lists the children of William Jr & Frances as taken from Parish records which are 3 sons & 2 daughters. The sons Stephen b 1721, Phillip b 1730 & Henry b 1740 which leaves plenty of room for more sons. I think that the Ephraim Pettypool in the 1759 Brunswick Co, Va land grant would be born about the right time to be the child named in Parish records of 2/14 1724 baptized & which is not named or shown as a son or daughter. And I think Frederick Pettypool of Lunenburg Co and Seth Pettypool of Dinwiddie Co were sons. And I have some new speculation about the son Henry born 1740 and about Ephraim too but I do not know if accurate.

In the 1783 Lunenburg tithes under Charles Hamlin page 401 is Frederick Pettypool. He is charged with 2 tithes (probably husband & wife) but has 6 white tithes of age 21 or over plus 1 white soul and 1 black soul. I think the one white soul is a minor, hence not of tithable age of 21 and I think this is Isham Pettypool b 1770 and my Henry was probably near to being the youngest grownup in this family. This family had 7 whites & deduct Frederick & wife that leaves 5 children and deduct Henry & Isham that leaves 3 children to account for that could be male or female & I do not know who they were. If Baxter was a son to Frederick he was on his own at this time & in the 1775 tithes.

In the 1783 Lunenburg Co tithes under overseer John Glenn P 396 is Mary Pool & William Pool & Jno Pool all listed in one group. So I think that they probably all lived on the same farm or land. I think this is Mary P.Pool shown in 1776 tithes and 1782 tax. As you know there was a Poole family earlier in Lunenburg Co but I think by 1783 they are in Mecklenburg & possibly Brunswick Co. And they did not have a John Poole so I think Mary, William & Oohn are Pettypools. At first I thought this might be William P.Pool Jr b 1748 & John E. P.Pool b 1750. But John E. was usually particular to be shown as John E. & besides this these three people seem to be on the same land so I think were probably Mary P.Pool and two sons, tho I suppose they could be grandsons & hence sons to Frederick Pettypool (above). Since this tithes of 1783 was in alphabetical order or at least by different overseers It is hard to tell how close that Mary lived to Frederick. And this John in this tithes seems younger than John E. P.Pool. Mary is charged with no tithes possibly because her husband William Jr is dead. William is charge with one tithes over 21 & yet has 7 white tithes. I wonder if this means that he & wife had 5 children. John is charged with no tithes 21 or over & I wonder if this means he & wife were young and had a small child. I wonder if William & John are brothers to Baxter P.Pool and they would be the 3 youngest sons named in the will of William Pettypool Jr b 1700 mentioned in his Will of 1774.

It is odd that the first record I find of Frederick Pettypool is in the Lunenburg Co tithes of 1769. He had 400 acres of land & 2 tithes & I am sure that he had children that were in their teens. So I wonder if he lived a few years in some other County or state & returned to Lunenburg Co.

In the 1769 Lunenburg tithes Colwell Pettypool & William Pettypool are living on 200 acres each, so I suppos this is the land that the two brothers received (400 acres) in 1748 that they inherited as babies from their g-father Edward Colwell. They seem to be living near each other until the 1776 tithes but in tithes of 1783 Colwell is on p 392 but I could not find William Pettypool Jr or at least not close to Colwell anyway & yet at this time I only find one William Pettypool in Halifax Co which I think was his father William III.

There was a John Pettypool in the Lunenburg Co, Va marriage records in 1790 who married Lucy Clarke. I am guessing that this is the John Pool in the 1783 Lunenburg tithes that I have just mentioned & who I think was a P.Pool. But in 1783 he seems to be less than 21 but seems to probably have a wife and a young child. So I am guessing that he lost his 1st wife, and that Lucy Clarke was a 2nd wife as in a booklet at the library "Traces of South Central Ky" Vol 11 page 69 in 1983 there is much data shown from a Clark-Garnett Family bible on file at the Western University in Bowling Green Kentucky which is in Warren Co and next to Barren Co Ky where this John (shown as Pool in Census records)lived. Anyway this data shows that John Pool was born 2/25 1763 in Lunenburg Co Va & that he married Lucy Clark (Pool) who was b 9/12 1769. This long article did not give any descendants up to the present time & mentions that someone must have kept records on their family. A John Garnett made a will in 1828 and I think this was in Barren Co & John Pool made a Will in Barren Co in 1827. As as I mentioned he was in BarrenCo census. Also in this long article it shows that a Mary Lee Pool was born 7/21 1804. Also in this article in another place it shows that John Pool was born 2/25 1768 insted of 1763 & both dates shown In Lunenburg Co. But I think that 1763 is probably right. I found a John Pool in a 1830 Census of Barren Co Ky. So I dont know if John made his will in 1827 & died after 1830 or if this is his son. Anyway as you can see John Pettypool of Lunenburg Co, Va went to Barren Co, Ky. And I think he is probably the John Pool in the 1783 tithes of Lunenburg Co, Va.

The Virginia records of "British Mercantile Claims" from late 1700's to about 1803 show that a William Pettipool moved from Virginia (no county shown) in 1786 & settled in Georgia. The same records show that a William Pettipool Jr left Lunenburg Co, Va about 1787 & moved to SC & shows that later (probably 1803 when the article seems to end) that some children of this William Pettipool had moved back to Lunenburg Co & had brought some of the property of their father back to Lunenburg Co and that the father William was deceased. I am sure this was William Pettipool who made the will in Newberry Co SC in 1796 proved 1797. And his two children Edward & Pattey married in 1800 in Lunenburg Co. I think the William that moved to Ga was probably also of Lunenburg C as he was in the same records where evidently Merchants were keeping records of people that owed them money and I think these records showed an amount in pounds after each man's name so from this I am guessing that it was of people in the Lunenburg Co area.

As I have mentioned I think that William Pettypool Jr b 1748 probably followed his father at some time to Halifax Co, probably in the 1780's. As I have shown I have almost changed my mind and now think that the one that went to Newberry Co SC was a son to Peter Pettypool b 1727 who was probably dead between 1763 and 1773. And Can find no records of Peter after 1763. Despite the fact that William & Frances gave power of Atty in 1793 to sell 230 acres on Couches creek in Lunenburg Co, which might indicate that he was William Pettypool Jr b 1748. Actually I may have these two William Pettypools turned around. But yet there is the one William P.Pool that moves t Georgia and I think it is the one that is shown as William Pool in the 1783 Lunenburg tithes and probably a young son of William Pettypool Jr who died in 1774.(theory). Of course he could be a son of Frederick Pettypool,too.

I am guessing that he is the William P.Pool who had a land grant in Burke Co, Ga in 1787 and possibly the William Pool who had a land grant 3 years later in 1790 in Richmond, Co, Ga. In 1788 and 1793 Baxter P.Pool had land grants in Franklin Co Ga before settling in Richmond Co. Notice that William & Baxter seem to get land grants about the same time of 1787 & 1788 in Ga so I think they went to Ga about the same time. Both probably lived in Richmond Co about the same time. I think the rules were to get a grant that it was necessary to live on the land for a year and at the end of the year maybe pay some amount, tho I am not sure that they had to pay an amount as I cannot remember. But at the end of the year possibly they paid an amount and then it was their land to keep. I am guessing that William & Baxter were brothers. Baxter was in 1782 lunenburg ~~tithes~~ tax and William in 1783 tithes. Burke & Richmond Co, Ga join.

Also a Phillip Pool had a land grant in 1788 in Burke Co, Ga. This is one year after William P.Pool had a land grant, also in Burke Co, Ga. Also Phillip Pool had a land grant the same year of 1788 in Wilkes Co, Ga, which is close to Burke,Richomd & Warren Co, Ga. I wonder if this is the Phillip Pool who you wrote about who made the Will in Warren Co, Ga in 1801 who seems to be the Phillip Pettypool b 1730 s-o William Pettypoo Jr b 1700 of Lunenburg Co, Va. This Phillip Pettypool evidently left Virginia in 1753 & then settled in Edgecombe Co, NC & as you mentioned he was in Camden Dist SC in 1770 & then probably went to Ga and had the land grants & finally ends up in Warren Co Ga as it was formed in 1793 from Columbia, Wilkes & Richmond Countys. Note this Phillip Pool who had land grants had one in 1788 in Wilkes Co, Ga. I bet this Phillip Pool in Burke & Wilkes & Warren Co Ga is Phillip Pettypool.

In 1785 an Ephrin Pettipool had a land grant in Wilkes Co, Ga. I am sure that his name was Ephraim Pettipool. I wonder if he is the Ephraim Pettypool Jr of Faiffield County SC who made a will there about 8 or 9 years later in 1793-94. I have seen nothing that indicated that he might have gone to Georgia for a year or two in order to qualify for the grant. But I suppose he could have got the grant & lived on it a short time and sold it & moved back to SC. As a ex soldier this might have helped him get the Ga land grant tho I don't think it was necessary to be a soldier. But I also wonder if the Ephraim with the land grant is the earlier Ephraim Pettypool who had the land patent in 1759 in Brunswick Co, Va. He would be an uncle to Ephraim Jr. I want to soon metnion something that I found that might indicate that this earlier Ephraim might have settled in Pitt Co NC right after 1759.

Notice how all these countys in Ga that had land grants about the same time are in the same general area of Ga (in one group) and tho some are shown as Pettipool & P.Pool & Pool I think most are Pettypools & are probably sons or g-sons of William Pettypool Jr b 1700 of Lunenburg Co, Va. I wonder if LDS or County seats of Ga or a Georgia Hist Soc or Archives of Ga would show where people lived at before they got the land grants. In 1835 a Phillip Pool had a land grant in Warren Co, Ga. I wonder who he is.

You mentioned that Ephraim Pettypool Jr,the soldier of Camden Dist SC who lived in Fairfield Co SC married Ursula Avent in 1768 in Dobbs Co, NC. I was glad to this this data, so thanks for sending it. In a Greensville Co Vir book of Marriages I found people marrying by the name of Pettypool. Then I also found some people marrying by the name of Avent. Greensville Co is near to Mecklenburg & Brunswick Co. So Maybe Greensville Co is where the Avent people originated at. Dobbs Co NC was formed in 1758 from Johnston Co, NC & discontinued in 1791. Johnston Co is where Mrs Nell Carter's Pool family lived. Also where Stephen Pettypool lived in 1759. About the same time of 1760 when Phillip Pettypool was living in Edgecombe Co and was deeding back land in Edgecombe Co NC that he received in 1753 from a Jacob Jones. In 1760 he was deeding this land back to a William Jones of Lunenburg, Va. Phillip had received the land as a gift. This might indicate that Phillip had married a lady named Jones and by 1760 that she was dead and Phillip may have remarried and wanted to return the land to the Jones family. I do not know where Phillip lived before settling in Edgecombe Co but Stephen Pettypool lived near his father in Lunenburg Co until 1752 when he was in the tithes. I think both settled in Edgecombe Co NC about 1753 and both were shown in 1755 as colonial Soldiers in the Edgecombe Co NC muster of the military.

You wrote that in 1770 both Stephen & Phillip Pettypool were in Camden Dist SC. I am not surprised but I did not find this & I wondered where you found this record. I had earlier thought that Epharim Pettypool Jr of Fairfield Co SC & Camden dist (the soldier) was the earlier Ephrraim Pettypool of the 1759 land patent of Brunswick Co, Vir but thanks to you & the data that you sent to me I can see that they are not the same. All the time I had trouble with the idea as I thought that they seemed to be of different ages. I feel pretty sure that Ephraim Jr is a son of Stephen and that Stephen named him for his brother Ephraim, but I want to get back to this later. So far I have not found Stephen in a 1790 census so he may have been overlooked in the census or possibly he was dead by then. I think Phillip was married twice and possibly the 1st time to a Jones. But I doubt that he & 1st wife were married long enough to have had more than two or three children. In the 1790 census of Edgecombe Co NC there was a Robert Poole and has several children & I estimated that he was born in the 1750's and this could be a Pettypool and a son of Phillip. He would not be the Robert Poole of Virginia who I think died before this who was not a Pettypool.

I was glad to get the data you sent of the Will of Phillip Pool in 1801 in Warren Co, Ga Warren Co was formed in 1793 from Columbia, Wilkes & Richmond Countys. and these county plus Burke Co is where Pettypools had land grants. Including a Phillip Pool who had land grants in 1788 in both Wilkes & Burke Co, Ga. I think this Phillip Pool in the land grants and the 1801 Will is Phillip Pettypool both because of the area he settled at in Ga and because of what you wrote. Telling me that this Phillip Pool married a Tapley who was d-o Joel Tapley & wife Mary Avent who was a sister to Ursula Avent to married Ephraim Pettypool Jr. His Will calls his children "his young children" and they do not appear to be young and at least two are married. I think this means that he had children by a 1st wife, so he refers to them as his young children. I saw this Will some time ago. I remember debating whether one daugher was named Graybill or Grayhill. When I saw that one daughter was Susannah Capps I quit writing this Will as I thought this was probably the Pool & Capps family of Velma P. Capps a researcher now deceased who lived at Austin & Canyon Tex. I have been told that she was a leading researcher of the name Pool/e and that she was a descendant to the William Poole Sr (Will of 1777 Mecklenburg Co, Va). However I saw where she once copied the Will of William Pettypool of 1796-97 of Newberry Co SC and sent it to a researcher that was a descendant of this William. But I suppose this may have been coincidental & that she knew that the descendant-researcher might need it.

This William Poole Sr (Will of 1777) had 4 sons & 2 of them were in the Fairfield Co SC census of 1790 & afterwards, the same time that Pettypools lived in that county, but they evidently were not related. Guy Cloud at Austin Tex, Helen Womack at Dallas & Nada Poole at Hyattsville, Md are descendant-researchers of this family & I will be ~~send~~ sending you copys of letters I received from them. Helen Womack shows that Velma P. Capps belonged to this family & a Letter that Guy Cloud to Helen acknowledges that she had mentiond Velma P. Capps ~~named~~ in her letter to Mr Cloud. But oddly Mr Cloud wrote to me and said he had never heard of Mrs Capps or seen her research. Maybe he had forgot about Helen Womack writing about her. I sent all three of them some data on their Poole family from Brunswick Co, Va that someone sent to me. Mr Cloud's family chart shows his family lived in Vir, SC, GA S. E. Missouri, Ark & Texas but about the only thing other than this is just the names of the children raised in Virginia. Mr Cloud shows a family tie as Tapley and Mrs Nada Poole shows them as Tarpley. I called this to the attention of Mr Cloud and he said he still thought they were Tapley. I wonder if any relation to Joel Tapley, who married Mary Avent. Seth & Ann (Tucker) P.Pool of Dinwiddie Co, Va had a daughter Lucretia that married Sterling Tarpley & they settled in Wilson Co, Tenn & had a son Joseph Bell Tarpley a Doctor in Texas & quite a genealogist & in 1875 worte about the Pettypool & Tarpley family.

Write Russell about this

There ~~ae~~ are problems about Phillip Pool (or P.Pool) of Warren Co, Ga & other Pools of that county. Early Census records of 1800's in Warren Co show a Henry Pool Sr & Henry Pool Jr and a later or 3rd Henry Pool, but I did not make copys of this census. The State census shows the same thing & I did write it down. I became interested in these Henry Pools at least 3 yrs ago as at that time I thought one of these Henrys might be a missing son of my Henry P.Pool of Hall Co, Ga. But I think not now. I wrote down data on Warren Co, Ga Pools. I am not sure that all of the Pools in Warren Co Ga are related to Phillip Pool or P.Pool of the 1801 Will, but some are.

I think you have seen the article in the Abridged Genealogy book: "Arden Rucker Mershon 1803-1856 educated at Famous Old Mount Zion Acad near Sparta md 2nd in 1840 Ruth Cason Pool 1817-1910; Henry R. 1795-1852 md 1817 Mary A. Cason 1798=1881 dau William Cason 1749=1847 Pvt Am Rev md 1790 Jeanette Rogers 1792-1848: Henry R. 1759-1852 from England settled in Ga, Pvt Am Rev md 1st in England Susan Raclett".

I always have trouble with these books but I think I understand this article. As Arden Mershon's 2nd wife was Ruth Cason Pool b 1817 who was d-o Henry R. Pool Jr b 1795 who married Mary A. Cason b 1798. Henry R. Pool Jr was son of Henry R. Pool Sr b 1759 who 1st married in England (& married twice in America). Mary A. Cason was b 1798 daughter of William Cason b 1749 who married 1790 to Jeanette Rogers 1792-1848. But I may have copied this wrong or the article is wrong Or I am interpreting it wrong as I show that William Cason married in 1790 & yet his wife was b 1792. I think this birth is wrong. I also notice that Henry Sr & Jr died in 1852, but that may be right. Georgia marriages do show that Arden Mershon married Ruth Pool. I am sending you Pool marriages later of NC & Ga that someone sent to me. Anyway Henry R. Pool Sr seems to be an Immigrant. Phillip Pettypool of Vir, NC, SC & possibly of Warren Co Ga was b 1730 probably married a 1st wife about 1750 and here ~~wer=have~~ Henry R. Pool SR was ba 1759. So if Henry Sr was not a immigrant it might be a possibility of father & son.

LDS records show that Henry Pool m. Dicey Cason 5/28 1840 & Henry Pool m. Elizabeth Hutchinson 12/13 1844 (which were 2nd & 3rd wives of Henry Sr and that Henry Pool (shoul be Henry Pool Jr) m. Polly Wilson 5/10 1832 (she would be his 2nd wife). All these marriages in Warren Co Ga & also shows that a Henry Pool was 16 in the 1850 Warren Co Ga, Census. Since I did not write this census down I am just guessing that the Henry Pool 16 yrs old in 1850 may be the son of the 3rd Henry Pool that I found in the Warren Co Census's. But I am not sure of this. Dar records show that Henry Pool Sr 1st married a Susan Ratcliff instead of Susan Raclett & that he 2nd married to Dicey Cason in 1840 & thirdly to Elizabeth Hutchinson in 1844 which seems to agree with other data. I suppose Dicey Cason was somehow related to Mary A. Cason 1st w of Henry Pool Jr.

A couple of years ago at the library I copied data from a Georgia Dar book, but now I wish I had copied all of the article. Some date I think was from a Pool bible of Mrs Sara May Yarbrough, Milledgeville, Ga (probably years ago) & I think some data from a Pool bible of a James M. Sledge. The article showed that Henry Pool Jr md Mary Ann --- (of course her name was Cason) on 1/26 1817 & showed births of children: Ruth 11/27 181 William 4/2 1819, Tillman N. 2/18 1821, Eliza 10/21 1823, Martha Ann 2/18 1826, Susan b 6/4 1828-d 7/15 1834. Evidently his wife Mary Ann died sometime after the daughter was b in 1828 & in 1832 Henry R. Pool Jr married Polly Wilson a 2nd wife. This article showed that Henry Pool died 6/25 1852. I think this was Henry Pool Sr, though.

Not long ago I copied from a book or whatever, some Warren Co, Ga marriages: Ephraim Pool-Jane Lovett 9/4 1843. (I am guessing this is Phillip's son Ephraim as shown in the Will of 1801 & by nameing a son Ephraim makes me think this Phillip Pool of Will of 1801 is actually Phillip Pettypool). (this probably would be a 2nd wife for Ephraim, tho I suppose it could be a later Ephraim Pool marrying). Henry Pool Jr-Polly Wilson 5/10 1832, Henry Pool Sr-Elizabeth Hutchinson 12/13 1844. James Pool*Milley Hancock 9/24 1801 (I do not know who this man is). Tillman Pool-Mary Johnson 10/2 1841 (this is a son of Henry Pool Jr) and notice Phillip Pool's Will names sons as Henry, James & Ephraim. And here we have marriage records of James & Ephraim but not Henry. Yet probably the son Henry may have lived in that area as he may be the 3rd Henry Pool in the census records of Warren Co, Ga.

Write to Russell about this

The 1845 State Census of Warren Co, Ga shows: P 22 Henry Poll. P 18 Henry R. Poll. (evidently one is Henry R. Pool Sr & the other Henry R. Pool Jr. Also on p 18 another Henry Pool (shown as Pool & is the 3rd Henry that I have mentioned). Also p 18 Ephraim & Tillman Pool. P 16 James Pool. As I have mentioned I think this is thee 3rd Henry Pool & probably son of Phillip Pool named in the Will of 1801. Also Ephraim & James ~~ares~~ are sons of Phillip. And Tillman Pool is son of Henry Pool Jr. I wonder why Henry Pool Sr & Jr would be living so close to the children of Phillip unless related.

Check this out

It crossed my mind that Phillip Pettypool b 1730 might have had a son Henry P.Pool born 1759 and that Phillip remarried about 1760 a year later as possibly Phillip's 1st wife died in 1759. After a child born. And years later that Henry might have gone to England somehow and married a lady & returned to America & in the Rev War and was actually an american by birth. Then I thought maybe Henry R. Pool Sr met a lady in America and married her and she was from England & years later descendant-researchers wrote it up on books such as the Abridged Genealogy book, etc, showing that both were from England. But I doubt that either case is right. It looks like Henry Sr married a 2nd & 3rd time at ages 81 & 85 & died in 1852 at the age of 93. Maybe a 1850 census of Warren Co might reveal where he was born & maybe his War records might reveal something. But How could Phillip Pool or P.Pool of Warren Co, Ga be his father when Philli made a will in 1801 & seems to name a son by a 2nd wife Henry also. I doubt that he would name two sons Henry. Yet why is ~~he~~ Henry Sr. living close to Phillip's children. The SC Roster book shows a Henry Pool died 25 Jun 1852 (same death date) and married an Elinder or Eleanor Hutcherson in 1784. The name is close to other data but not the dat so this is puzzling. It shows he moved to Ga.

As I mentioned Stephen & Phillip Pettypool were Colonial Soldiers in a Roster of the Edgecombe Militia in 1755 years before they settled in Camden Dist SC. In Capt Aquela Suggs Co was Cpl John Davis as #8. #9 was Cpl Stephen Pettefole(evidently Pettepole as Pool sometimes in England shown as Pole). #10 was Cpl Phillip Pettypool. #11 was a clerk Thomas Dixon. #12 was Soldier John Davis (2) which may mean the 2nd John Davis as one was #8 soldier. #87 was soldier Phillip Pettypool. (makes two by that name). Notice two soldiers near Pettypools by name of Dixon & Pool. Dixon name in the Rev War later on was shown as Dixon & Dickson, interchangeable. I think that my Pettypools in Vir had a Dixon or Davis Tie or maybe both. In tithes of Lunenburg an Abraham & Baxter Davis lived near the P.Pools and in some states I found that Davis people used the named Isham Davis and it seems that my lineages used these first names. And possibly Baxger P.Pool was named for Baxter Davis. I wonder if William Pettypool Jr b 1700 of Lunenburg Co had a 2nd wife named Davis or Dixon. Or if Frederick Pettypool had a wife by that name. Isham P.Pool b 1802 son of my Henry P.Pool had a son evidently born 1830 in Tennessee who he named Isham Dixon Pool. I noticed also the name of Dixon show in Pool or P.Pool records or Wills in Granville, Co, NC.

My Henry P.Pool left Hall Co, Ga in ~~1813~~ 1831--32 & came thru Tenn, Ky, Ills before settling in Mo about the fall of 1833. I think he joined up with his Son Isham P.Pool b 1802 who I think left Ga in 1830 & missed the census altogether. He evidently lived in Tenn from 1830 to 1832 where two children were born, and more born in Mo. He was a justice of Peace in Ga & Mo. He was still living in Ga in part of 1829 at least as he married a couple in Hall Co Then. I am guessing that from 1830 to 1832 he lived in Henderson, or Madison, or Carroll, or Chester Co Tenn where Tarbutton people lived in the 1830's & Isham's mother was a Tarbutton. There was an Isham Dixon Pool b 1830 Tenn & a Belinda Pool b 1832 Tenn who I think were his children. In 1830 in Henderson Co Tenn a Christopher Davis lived next door to an Elijah Pool born just after 1800. This Elijah could be a missing son of Henry P.Pool which was born between 1800 & 1810. In 1850 & 1860 Christopher Davis seems to be the same man in the Grimes Co Tex census & in 1850 they are both shown born 1793 NC, but in 1860 Frances shown born 1798 NC, which may be more accurate for her. Frances may have been a Tarbutton but I belive she was a daughter of Henry P.Pool & his 1st wife b-a 1798 when Henry seems to have lost his 1st wife.

Further in this regards. Isham P.Pool had been a Justice of the peace and was the 1st Wright Co, Mo clerk in 1841 when it was formed from Pulaski Co and the traveling judge even held court in Isham's house. Never the less he evidently mis-used County funds & in 1848 was charged with forgery & put in Jail but escaped. But I hear that the Pools paid off the money that he was responsible for. He was in the 1850 Wright Co, Mo censu but dead by 1858. The 1850 Wright Co, Mo census indicates that he is probably missing two older daughters and a older son when compared to the 1840 census which only show children in age groups. In the 1850 Grimes Co Tex Census, Belinda Pool is living with Christopher Davis & w Frances and Belinda was b 1832 Tenn. Nearby Isham Dixon Pool b 1830 Tenn was living with J. D. Davis also born NC. So I think Frances Davis was a Tarbutton or P.Pool. I think Christopher Davis was ba 1793 in Anson, Richmond or Montgomery Co NC. An earlier Christopher Davis made a Will in 1786 in Richmond Co NC, tho I have not actually seen it. Isham Dixon Pool married in 1855 to Martha (Mattie) ------. He was a confederate soldier & in 1870 & 1880 lived in Robertson & Leon Co Texas & moved to Travis Co in 1891 & entered the confederate home at Austin, Tex (Travis Co) in 1894 to 1904 when he died. His confederate records show that he entered Texas in 1848, which was the year that Isham Pool was in trouble in Mo. In 1851 in Grimes Co Texas Belinda Pool married Lewis Carrifee & an Elizabeth Pool married a William Heath. I thin all three could be children of Isham Pool in Mo & I am researching for descendants.

After my Henry Pettypool married in 1788 to Jenny Green in Lunenburg Co, Va he lived a short time in Halifax Co, NC which is near to Edgecombe Co NC or maybe joins it. Then soon moved to Fairfield Co SC & lived near Pettypool relatives. Then between 1790 & 1800 moved to Montgomery Co, NC. I found people named Green in all three areas. After he moved to NC he named a son Isham (for Henry's brother in Montgomery Co named Isham) also named sons Seth & Abraham (for Pettypool relatives in Claremont Co SC in Camden dist & near to Fairfield Co).

1790 Camden dist SC census:
p 23 Fairfield Co, Ephraim Pettypool shown as Pittypool.
p 22 Fairfield Co, William Pettypool & Henry Pettypool.
p 17 Claremont Co (nearby), Abraham Pettypool & Seth Pettypool.

Ephraim Pettypool Jr the soldier who made his will in 1793 in Fairfield Co 1793 proved 1794 is this man on page 23. His will names wife Ursula & sons William & Abraham & I am guessing that William is the oldest. Ursula & Abraham seem to be the Executors. Their are younger children in the will evidently still at home and two of these were sons Ephraim & Thomas. In this census his son William is on page 22 and seems to be about 20 yrs old & single & has no dependants. I am guessing that his brother is a little younger and possibly still at home in 1790. I think these two sons William & Abraham were named for two uncles by the same name possibly (theory). The Henry Petty-Pool on page 22 is my Henry, I think and I believe that he is a 1st cousin to Ephraim Pettypool Jr and to the Abraham & Seth Pettypool in Claremont Co SC. As my Henry is evidently a son of Frederick Pettypool & right now I think that Ephraim Jr, Abraham & Seth were sons of Stephen Pettypool b 1721 who seems to be a brother to Frederick. Therefore Seth & Abraham Pettypool on P 17 of Camdend dist are evidently brothers to Ephraim Pettypool Jr of Fairfield Co SC. I had for some time thought that this Abraham of Claremont County was the son that Ephraim Jr named in his Will of 1793-94. But This Abraham of Claremont County SC on P 17 is older, as I can now tell and I think would be a uncle to the Abraham son of Ephraim Jr. This Abraham of Claremont Co seems to be born in the 1750's & in 1790 has 3 sons under 16. His brother Seth also seems to be born in the 1750's & in 1790 has a son over 16 and three undeb 16. And on page 17 of the 1790 Claremont Co census (same page) is a D. Poole and I think that he is probably a Pettypool too. And as I have already mentioned I think by this time of 1790 that Stephen (the father) may be dead and his brother Phillip had the land grants in Burke & Wilkes Countys Ga in 1788 and in 1793 Warren Co was formed from 3 countys including WilkesCounty and then a Phillip Pool makes a Will in Warren Co in 1801 which seems to be Phillip Pettypool.

There is not a Claremont Co SC anymore. I do not know when it was discontinued but in 1798 Sumter Co SC was formed and from old maps that I have of SC it looks like that Sumter Co was formed from at least a part of Claremont Co. In fact Claremont County on today's map looks to be right where 6laremont Co was. Yet in 1800 (two yeass later) there was a Claremont County census.

In 1800 my Henry Pettypool is in NC & Ephraim Pettypool Jr is dead. His son William is still in Fairfield County. And Seth & Abraham Pettypool (brothers) do not appear to be in a 1800 census but in Claremont Co for 1800 there are two David Pools and one seems to be about 45 and the other about 26 so they are probably father & son and I think the older is probably the D. Poole in the 1790 Clarmmont Co SC census. And I think these men are Pettypools too. So you would think since David Poole is in the 1800 Claremont Co census that Seth & Abraham would be too. I can't account for this but I do have some typed sheets that a SC genealogist made up years ago showing that Seth Pettypool died in Sumter Co SC in 1805 and that a Robert Pool (or Pettypool) was the admr of his estate. So I am guessing that possibly the Sumter Co border line was somehow placed between where David lived and where Seth & Abraham lived & somehow these last two brothers ended up in Sumter Co and that possibly since Sumter Co was formed just 2 years before this in 1798 that this may have caused census takers some confusion over their territory in the Sumter & Claremont area and that somehow that Abraham & Seth were overlooked. The reasons I think the David Pools are Pettypools is because in 1790 they live so close to these two brothers Abraham & Seth in Claremont Co plus the fact that there was a David P.Pool that went to the area of Feliciana Parish La and I am beginning to think that he was from Sumter Co.

But that still leaves Ephraim Pettypool's son Abraham shown in the will who should be a grown man & at least 26 years old or older by 1800. The 1800 SC Census has two Abraham Pools. One is Abram Pool Jr in the 1800 Claremont Co census. He could be Ephraim's son as he is 26-45 yrs old and wife under 26 & 2 children under 10. But I did not expect him to be living in Claremont Co but rather in Fairfield Co, so I wonder if this Abram Pool Jr is a son of the older Abraham Pettypool in the 1790 census of Claremont County. Then there was a Abraham Pool in the 1800 Spartanburg Co SC census. He is 26-45 yrs & wife too & has a son in his house over 16 & 4 daughters under 10. So this man is probably close to 45 and yet the Abraham Pettypool of Claremont Co was evidently the soldier Abraham Pool of the Rev War and records of him show that he was born 1752 so in 1800 he would be 48 yrs old. And besides this the Abraham Pettypool in 1790 Claremont Co census has 5 females in his house so 4 must have been daughters. And this Abraham Pool in 1800 in Spartanburg Co has 4 daughters but they are shown under 10. And if the same man the daughters would be over 10. However census records do have mistakes so I want to keep this Abraham Pool of Spartanburg Co SC in mind. In fact the 1790 census of Fairfield Co does not seem to show nearly enough dependants for the Ephraim Pettypool Jr who made his will there in 1793 so I do not think this census records is right,so Census records do have mistakes. There were several Pool people living in Spartanburg Co SC in 1800. I do not know if any were Pettypool but I think possibly some were as later In this letter I will mention a man or two that in a later census who was a P.Pool. I also know of a man in Missouri that I need to write as his ancestors were named Poole and were of Spartanburg Co SC.

Before going further I want to mention again what I have written before about William, Robert, David & Nazra P.Pool who came to the Amite Co, MS and Feliciana Parish,Lauisian area just before or after 1810. I do not know if they all came at the exact same time or not. They are thought to be brothers. And if not they were closely related. Amite Co and Feliciana Parish are just across the state line from each other. William settle in Amite Co and the three others settled in the Feliciana Parish area. In 1810 Willia was in Amite Co MS census. And sometime about 1813-16 I found both William & Robert listed in some Tax or other kind of record in Amite Co. But evidently Robert must have moved to Feliciana Parish La. By looking at this census I estimated that William was born about 1783 so I suppose that the others were born within a few years of this time also. David had a son born as early as 1799. William & Robert married sisters by the name of Tynes. Thomas Poole of Denham Spgs, La and Carolyn Cantrell of Okla City both descend from David and Margaret Brokaw at KC Mo descend from Nazra and all three have done research on their family. A Mrs Inez Hughes at Marshall Texas descends from Robert P.Pool & a Mrs Robinson of Amite Co, MS descends from William P.Pool. I have a family sheet showing Robert's children. David P.Pool had a son Stephen Caldwell P.Pool who was born 1799 in SC. And David also had sons named Burrell, Leonard, Spence ...also sons Timothy, David and Baxter. Notice one named Stephen Caldwell, tho I think he went by the name Caldwell. This makes me think that this family descend from the Stephen Pettypool b 1721 of Lunenburg Co son of William Pettypool Jr b 1700 of the same county. Since Seth Pettypool of Claremont Co SC census had 1 son over 16 and three under 16 I think he would be a candidate to be the father of some of these P.Pool children that moved to Mississippi and to Louisiana but Seth's brother Abraham of Claremont Co also had children (sons) of about the same age so he could be the father o some of them. Then notice that David names a son Baxter which makes me think that David is of some relation to Baxter P.Pool the rev soldier who may have been a half brother to Stephen Petypool.

Anyway I believe that ~~thex=P=Poools~~ the P.Pools that moved to Mississippi and Louisiana from SC probably descend from the Seth Pettypool of Claremont & Sumter Co SC area where also lived a David Pool who may have been a P.Pool. And notice Seth Pettypool is shown as making or having a Will proved in Sumter Co in 1805 and has a Robert as administrato who may have been a brother or son and right now I favor him to be a son and we see that soon after this that a Robert P.Pool comes to the Mississippi & Louisiana area. Tho as I mentioned Seth's brother Abraham could be father of some of them. Carolyn Cantrell says that most of David P.Pool's children were born in SC. Thomas Poole wrot me that Mrs Robinson of Amite Co MS had handwritten papers showing that her William was the son of a Seth Pettypool of SC and his Indian wife. Thomas also writes that when William P.Pool of AmiteCo MS died that he was staying with Nazra P.Pool in Louisiana. Also writes that Robert P.Pool & son handled the estate of Nazra's. Also that when the children of David P.Pool went to Catahoula Parish in the late 1830's that one daughter stayed with a daughter of Robert P.Pool till she married. Thomas also writes that ther is a lot of information at Clinton, Louisiana that he wants to see before long.

Very interesting!

When I mail you the data later it will have the typed sheets that the SC Genealogist made years ago showing Pettypool data & wills in SC. This was dim when sent to me so you may not be able to read all of it. But if you cannot read it all you can let me know what part that you have trouble with and I can type it for you. There are about 5 sheets of this data. It also shows that a John Pettypool made a will in 1813 in Sumter Co SC and names a wife Ann and two sons Stephen & Allen. I wonder who this man is and I am not sure that I have seen his sons in a census previous or after 1813. In 1810 there was a John Pool in Sumter Co who I think was this John Pettypool and in the Sumter Co 1820 census is his widow Ann Pool and she was over 45 years old so therefore born before 1775 so her Husband John Pettypool was probably born before 1775 too. Sinc ~~Xxtxxixk~~ he lived in Sumter Co I think he was either a son to Abraham Or Seth Pettypool of Sumter Co and right now I am guessing that he may be a son to Abraham (theory). In the 1810 Sumter Co Census there was a Sette Pool. This seems to possibly be a nickname for Seth Pool or P.Pool. But he was dead by 1805. So possibly his Indian wife gave the census taker the name or nickname of her deceased husband or possibly they had a son by this name or nickname. I cannot tell much about this Sette Pool and if it is a male or female that is the head of the house or what the ages of people in this household are as I have only seen this family in an index & not in an actual 1810 censu of Sumter Co SC. I want to order this census sometime. John Pettypool is a mystery to me but maybe he is a son to Abrhaham or Seth Pettypool. However he may be older and possibly could be a brother to them. He is not the John Pettypool who along with his brother Jesse lived in Union & Greenville Co SC. Also their brothers Young & William Pettypool settled in Greenville Co and their father was Seth Pettypool of Granville Co, NC.

I want to show here some of the data & wills that the SC genealogist typed up years ago The genealogist shows..."Sumter Will of John Pettypool Sg 14 Jan 1813 Proved 3 Jan 1814 wifewife Ann Pettypool Ex with Spencer Wilder two children Stephen Pettypool & Allen Pettypool Wit: Hezekiah, Harvey & Jesse Nettles Sr".....(I wonder ~~whe~~ if his wife Ann could have been a Nettles. Notice John names a son Stephen so I wonder if John was a g-son to Stephen Pettypool b 1721).

The genealogist adds..."In Sumter (SC) in 1805 the estate of Seth Pettypool was administered by Robert Pool"...the genealogist adds..." I was working in Sumter and noted this, but I did not open the file, but did make a notation of the file being in Sumter" ...the Genealogist adds "In SC Historical Commission is some files on Sumter set of Pettypool"....(I wrote to Thomas Poole, Carolyn Cantrell & Margaret Brokaw about these Pettypool Wills & data of SC particularly these two wills of Sumter Co SC and telling them some of my speculation just recently).

The genealogist adds..."anderson Co SC Will of Robert Pool signed 25 Mar 1836 Pr June 1840 wife Elizabeth Pool Ex with Joseph M. Jolly "I want an equal division among all my children" and no names of children Wit: Edward Burford, Alexandere Moorhead & Robert Alexander"...the genealogist adds "I have some data on a family of Anderson (SC) Reuben Morgan Adams b 1841 was the son of William Adams & his wife Mary P. Pool adams. Mary may be the daughter of this Robert Pool".....(I wonder if Mary P. Pool has a middle initial of "P" or if her last name was P.Pool.....the genealogist adds...."Abbeyville Will of Micajah P.Pool signed Sep 1819 Pr 20 Dec 1819, no wife & evidently dead as Micajah Styles himself as an old man. Two children Robert Pool lands where he now= lives, Nancy wife of Robert Young, Ex son Robert Wit: Joel Lipscombe, W. Wier & Slexander Stuart. This Micajah must be the father of Robert Anderson (SC)"...the genealogist adds..."The Rev Edward Vandiver from Vir to Fairfield & later to Anderson (SC) was early in SC before the Revolution. He had 2 wives & 11 children by each wife, and one of the wives was a Pettypool".

Regarding the above paragraph of Wills. In 1810 ~~ther~~ and 1820 there was a Robert Pool of Pendleton Co SC. In 1820 he had a neighbor Henry Jolly. Notice the Robert Pool Wil of 1836 in Anderson Co has an EX Joseph M. Jolly. Also in 1820 Robert Pool has neighbo that have last names, that were the same last names that were neighbors or friends of the Poole family when they lived in Brunswick Co, Va. What I am trying to say is that the Robert Pool of the Anderson Co 1836 Will may be the Robert Pool of Pendleton Co who I do not think was a Pettypool & possibly not the son of Micajah P.Pool as the genealogist suggests. And besides this in the 1820 census Walter Poole(not a P.Pool) has evidently moved from Fairfield Co SC to Pendleton Co SC. So I think Robert and Walter were father & son or uncle & nephew. And this Robert was probably named for the Robert Poole who is dead by now & was a brother to Walter. In 1820 there was a Robert Pool of Abbeyville who was probably the son of Micajah P.Pool (named in his Will of 1819). But I wonder where Robert lived previously as I don't think I found him in a previous census. at that general time I think Pendleton Co bordered Abbeyville Co on the North side and possibly Anderson was between Pendleton and Abbeyville Co.

The genealogist adds..."Chester Co (SC) in history of William Gill 1750-1797 with wife Susan Young. They had a son William Gill who married Rhoda P.Pool"...(I suppose this is not the Rodah (Overby) P.Pool widow of Benj P.Pool who died about 1801 in Mecklenburg Co, Va. In my research of Lunenburg & Mecklenburg Countys I came across the names of two William Gills that I thought were father & son. But I cannot remember if this was in late 1700's or early 1800's. Anyway I doubt that the younger William Gill of Vir married William Gill and moved to SC.

As you can see I write a little every day or so and I am not making much progress. A few days ago we had relatives visit from L. R. Ark & Thornton, Ark who we had not seen before. They are descendants of Henry P.Pool b 1845 in Mo who settled in the 1860's in ark that I wrote you about. Henry settled near Fordyce, Ark south of L. R. Ark and I finally found Henry & others in a 1900 & 1910 Arkansas census. So we took these relatives to visit our Pools in Springfield & Seymour. We found the same ancestors in old pictures that they brought up from Arkansas that we had here in Mo. We had a good time.

About 3 days ago I got a letter from Thomas Poole of Denham Springs, La & I will refer to it plus data that I found yesterday at the Springfield library. Thomas sent me several sheets of data that a cousin of his sent to him on Claremont & Sumter Co. most notes of data have a file number or a book number etc. I do not know if the cousin got this from a genealogist in SC or if it came from the courthouse. Some of this has abbreviations and small writing which did not copy to me real good but maybe I can do some guessing.

The library book "Some SC County Records Vol 1" Fairfield Co pg 40-41 "Will of Ephraim Pettypool, being weak in body, to wife Ursula, all estate real & person. All my lands whereon I now live to my two youngest sons Ephraim & Thomas Pettipool, after wifes decease or widowhood...Ephraim not to have control until Thomas is 21, to son William, negro George...to have possession as soon as I recover from James Hart...to son Abraham 2 negroes (named)....My four youngest daughters Tabitha, Frances, Nancy, Ursilla (actually there was not a comma between Nancy & Ursilla)...wife & son Abraham Exrs... 2 Feb 1793 Ephraim Pettipool (LS) Wit:John Yarbrough, William Graham, Charles Graham X. (I think he means son William is to get the slave George as sonn as he is recovered from James Hart).

Fairfield Co p 40, 15 Jan 1794 Last Will & Testament of Ephraim Pettipool was proved. Granted to Ursula & Abraham Pettypool Exr named in the Will...Inv(evidently means Inventory) to be returned by 2nd Monday in April. 16 Jan 1794.

Notice this...Fairfield Co p 65. Abraham Pettipool planter died interstate. Admn granted to William Pettipool inventory Ret by 16 Oct next...17 July 1794...(So by 17 July 1794 Abraham Pettipool was dead. I think this is the son of Ephraim Pettypool Jr who had just died a few months before this and Abraham's brother William was to furnish the court an inventory of his property. In 1790 this brother William in census of Fairfield co appears less than 21 yrs old so probably about 20 yrs old and seemed to be living alone without dependants or a wife. I think Abraham was just a little younger than William. I also think this means that the Abraham Or Abram Pool Jr who was in the 1800 Claremont Co census is a son to the older Abraham Pettypool ba 1752 the soldier who was in the 1790 Claremont Co Census. I have been wrong so much about this younger Abram Pool Jr but this is the way it now looks. In 1800 I think this older Abraham & brother Seth Pettypool were in either Claremont or Sumter Co SC and possibly a census taker overlooked them as both were living in 1800 & after.

Fairfield Co SC-Oct 1794 appraisement of Abraham Pettypool's estate £ 31.14 James Hunt, Robert Winfield Eckles, Abner Smith Appraiser Rec 5 Nov 1794.

Fairfield Co SC-Acct of Sale of Estate of Abraham Pettipool sold Aug 1794 Buyers William Pettipool, Thomas Stark 10 Apr 1795.

Sale of Public Auction 20 & 21 May 1795 estate of Thomas Mickle deceased in Fairfield Co SC records show the 50 names of buyers and among them was a Henry Pettipool (which is my old ancestor). So he was still living in Fairfield Co up to 1795 after being in the 1790 census. He moved to Montgomery Co NC by or before 1800.

on Dec 8 1789 XS-7001 CC 152-153 Abraham Pettipool to grandson Nazarah Pettypool, deed of gift Slave Prince?? age 10 or 11 yrs. Withess ~~Odie~~ Thomas Odie Jr & before John Horan J. J.?....Abraham Pettipool his mark + also under this statement it shows "3 Oct 1805 XS 7003 B-424/425/426 Abraham Pettypool to Nephew Nazara Pettypool deed of gift 2 negroes"when he comes of age" witness John Greening Joseph Holladay and then refers to p 425 2 negroes on same date to Nephew Robert Pettypool and then refers to p 426 on same date 2 negroes to Nephew William Pettypool "when of age".

Evidently Abraham made these deeds of gift when his grandson Nazara was young and when his Nephew Nazara, Robert & William were young. I have only seen records or census records on one Nazara P.Pool, the one that went to Louisiana. It would appear that the three nephews may be the three of four men that went to Mississippi & Louisiana. and this would have been just before or just after 1810 and not long after Abe made a deed of gift in 1805 to the three nephews. I think these 3 nephews have to be the sons of Seth Pettypool a brother to Abraham.

on 10 Oct 1805 XBB-47 S 6997 Abraham Pettypool made a deed of gift to son Benjamin Odle Pettypool Slave Lucy about 40 yrs old & son May about a Yr old (I think the 47 figure above means page 47). on P 48 to son William Pettypool Slave Girl Tenah. P 48/9 to Son Thomas Pettypool. P 49 to Son Abraham Pettypool P 50 to dau Elizabeth Pettypool. Page 50/1 to daughter Mary Pettypool. Page 50 to son Moses Pettypool. By the looks of this Abraham had sons Benjamin Odle, William, Thomas, Abraham & Moses. Notice he has the son William and evidently Seth had a son named William also. But at the same time I will soon be showing some data on a Seth Pool or P.pool who could belong to either Seth or Abraham and right now I think that he was a son to Abraham & for some reason maybe Abraham did not deed a gift to him. I may be wrong about this tho as I am doing some guesswork.

XS-700 A-244 does not exactly show a date. But by deciphering this it seems to say that in 1771 that Abraham Pettypool is an heir of Thomas Odie Sr. So I wonder about this name Odie. Some of this data shows Odie and some as Odle. And SC records show a Thomas Odell coming years earlier to Camden district and there seems to have been a Thomas Sr and a Thomas Jr. So I do not know which is correct. In one case this family shown as Odill. But I wonder if Abraham married a daughter to Thomas Odle-Odell Or Odie. And possibly that is why Abraham is an heir to this man as I have seen other Wills listing a son in Law as an heir.

One file appears to say that Abraham Pettypool deeds a plot of 168 A to Seth Pettipool on 2 Jan 1786 witness Robert Pettipool & Andrew Cr----- and also seems to deed 80 ac to William Bracey. William Bracey is mentioned much in these papers that Thomas sent to me. I wonder if Abraham was deeding this above to his brother Seth or to a son Seth. I doubt that Abraham had any sons born before 1770 at the earliest so maybe this is to his brother.

In 1805 Abraham Pettypool of Claremont Co SC is shown in Sumter deed book AA -127 & deeds 3 negroes to daughter Nancy Pettypool. So maybe Abr'ham & Seth (brothers) still lived in the Claremont part or county in this general area afterall in 1800 and afterwards.

XS 7002 CC 204/5 Seth Pettypool son: Robert Pettypool gave receipt for his share of the estate to Abraham Pettypool receipt dated 3 Oct 1805 Wit Joseph Holladay & John Greening. Other Papers from Sumter Co refer to Robert Pettypool as being the son of Seth Pettypool. Notice that Seth probably died in 1805 as papers show and Robert is probably the Robert P.Pool that goes to Mississippi & Louisiana. Also Bdle 78 Pkg 16 S-6987 Seth Pettypool dec'd Bond July 1805 Adm Robert Pettypool S: Fleming Watkins & Tyre Jennings (a note shows Nothing but Bond in File) So there is not much to be gained by looking at this file.

The SC genealogist had showed Allen so this was evidently wrong.

Now here is an entry that may be important & is interesting. Sumter Deed Bk B 141 to 144 S-6993 Stephen Pettypool dec'd....Widow: ? "now Mrs Parker" Heirs David Pettypool of Claremont Co, Simon Daniels Sr of Salem, William Nichols of Salem, Fanny Alexander of Salem. All sign powers of Atty to Simon Daniels Jr, William Daniels & Tom Daniels to collect From "Mrs Parker" prop in NC.....(I am trying to determine if this is the RevWr sol earlier Stephen Pettypool b 1721 who I have found was still living in Camden dist until at least 1786. This paper was not dated. However I beleive this refers to this Stephen and so was probably made soon after 1786 and his widow probably married a Parker. And notice she evidently owned property in NC. There was a younger Stephen Pettypool evidently a son to John Pettypool (will of 1813) in Sumter Co SC but I doubt it was about him, tho I may be wrong. This paper mentions Heirs and yet was in a Deed book. So I do not think it was a Will. In fact I wonder if Seth's widow is the main participant in this transaction rather than Stephen Pettypool who was then deceased. Notice a David Pettypool is an heir in this paper. It is my idea that the D. Poole on p 17 of 1790 Claremont Co census is older David Pool in 1800 Claremont Co Census about 45 yrs old and the younger David Pool is probably his son. In 1790 D. Pool was on the same page as Abraham & Seth Pettypool. So I am guessing that all three Abraham, Seth & David are sons of Stephen Pettypool. And since this does not constitute a Will I think Stephen also had sons named Ephraim Pettypool Jr & a William Pettypool who was also a Rev War soldier, but I do not know what happened to him & if he survived the war and I am not able to tie him down postively to a SC census Then too we have a John Pettypool of Sumter Co will of ~~177~~ 1813 and he seems to probabl been born before 1775 and could be a son to either Seth or Abraham Pettypool.Well I see I am getting off the subject. Anyway I think the younger David Pettypool is the one tha went to Louisiana and is probably a son to the older David and hence probably would be also a grandson to Stephen Pettypool. By now your head is swimming.

Here is an entry and the copy turned out dark on one edge and I am not sure I can read it all with accuracy..... S-6991 in 1821 or probably 1827 looks more accurate. Sumter Roll 371?...Moses Pool interstate....(I cannot make out the name underneath Moses but it shows that someone els is also deceased and it looks a little like WIDOW also Dec'd) Then underneath this it shows Edwin Pool, Mary Ann Pool, Draughn Pool, Martha Pool, Epsey Pool, Emily Pool, Sarah Pool....(in front of the name Edwin Pool It seems to have a 1st name but its too dark for me to read. It looks like Jich-Edwin Pool or Yich-Edwin Pool. I wonder if his name was Micajah Edwin Pool. (this evidently has to do with Moses P.Pool & wife who is also a dceased widow and their children. Notice the also had a daughter named Mary Ann.

Here is an entry a little dark & hard to read. Bdl 77 Pkg 6 S-.... Pool is. I wonder if it was the Edwin Pool above. Years later an A. E. Pool is shown coming to Camden Dist SC from New York. But evidently he must have returned to SC after living awhile in NY. in 1850 A. E. Pool was in Sumter Co SC census. I think the article showed him marrying in SC and I want to go back to the library and make a copy of this article. Well I just now noticed underneath this data that it reads "File shows A. E. Pool- w= Mary and indicates that Mary died 1859 and gives name of children but it is a little hard to read all of it.

S-6999 A-255/6 Abraham Pettipool of Claremont w-Sarah-dower to William Bracey 277 acres & I cannot read the rest of this but it looks like Abraham 4000 ac to Matthew Singleton in 1784. Matthew Singleton served in the war with Ephraim Pettypool Jr s-o Abraham.

I am not sure about this last entry and about 4000 acres and I wonder what it is saying but it does show Matthew Singleton. I think I have about shown most of these articles but there are a couple more that do not seem to be importand. Thomas Pool wrote that evidnently William, Robert & Nazra coming to Mississippi & Louisiana were brothers and that his David P.Pool was related to them. I suppose you remember me writing earlier about Thomas & Carolyn Cantrell telling about a William Pool had a passport to leave Bullock Co, Ga in 1807 bound for Washington Parish La and he was in Wash Parish in the 1820 census. They thought he was possibly a nephew to the other 4 men but they showed that this William had his 1st child born in 1798 so he seems to be as old as the others so maybe he sould be a cousin if related. They have not postively told me that this man was a Pettypool. In 1820 census he is shown as William Pool Jr & when he left Bullock Co Ga he showed that he was a son to a William Pool of SC. I notice a William Pool had a land grant of 200 acres in Bullock Co Ga in 1799. Somewhere I rememberi~~ng~~ reading about a William Abraham Pool of SC. I thought I had the article but evidently not.

Since Abraham Pettypool was making deeds of gift in 1805 and evidently not in the 1810 census he may have died about this time, not long before or after Seth his brother died. At the library in the magazine of SC ancestoral research there were tax returns shown in SC for 1783 and the district of Camden was one of them. William Murrell had a return in the district Eastward of the Wateree. Though it was a return for collection in 1783 the return was compiled in 1785. Abraham Petipool had 450 acres. Four houses away was Thomas Odill. Seven houses away from Abraham was a Samuel Tynes with 100 Ac. Remember in Mississippi William & Robert P.Pool married Tynes sisters. About 36 houses from Abraham was a Lev na Tynes with 100 acres married to a Ambrose Gayle. About 54 houses away from Abraham was William Bracey with 558 Acres and next to Mr Bracey Was Phillip Petipool with no land listed so probably was renting a farm. And next to Phillip was Ann Singleton with 150 Acres. Soon after this in 1788 is when a Phillip Pool had land grants in 1788 in Burke & Wilkes Co Ga and Wilkes co or part of it rather became Warren Co in 1793 & Warren Co is where a Phillip Pool made a Will in 1801 and could be Phillip Pettypool. Also living next to Phillip Petipool was Jesse Nettles with 200 acres.

Seth Pettypool served with Richard Singleton in the Rev War & in an Index of deeds of SC Seth Pettypool made a bill of Sale to Richard Singleton in Book N-5 P 403 in 1784-85. Stephen Pettypool made a deed to John Alexanders in 1786. Seth Pettipool made a deed of gift to Sarah Singleton in 1784-85 so probably related. Stephen Pettypool made a deed to Charles Evans in 1775-1778. Phillip Pettipool made a deed to John G Guignard in 1775-78 (possibly why he had no taxable land in 1783.

Now about the SC roster book. As I have mentioned Henry Pool that moved to Warren Co Ga was a SC soldier in the Rev War. And the Ephraim Pool that married Lucretia & moved to Ga & Montgomery Co, Tenn. Ephraim Pettypool Jr enlisted at St Marks Parish in 1775. And Seth, Abraham & William Pool were SC soldiers and surely of Camden Co. I am sure they were all Pettypools and I think Ephraim Jr, Seth, Abraham & William were brothers. Tho I have not found for sure William in a SC census. Though this Roster book shows thes three other brothers a returned signed by Capt E. Richardson 8/7 1775 shows that Zeth (Seth) Poole enlisted 25 June 1775 & was 20 yrs old and ba 1775 NC and 5x9 Tall. And that William Poole enlisted 1 Jul 1775 & was 17 bn 1758 NC and 5x8 tall. And that Abraham Poole enlisted 1 Jul 1775 also & was 23 born 1752 Vir & 5x9 tall. All about the same height and entered the service almost the exact same time and about the same time as Ephraim Jr. In the outfit Seth was private #7 & William Private #10 & Abraham rivate #27. Notice Abraham was ba 1752 Vir, Seth BA 1755 NC & William Ba 1758 NC. And I think their father left Vir in 1753 & was in the Edgecombe NC Roster of the Military in 1755. This seems to Jibe.

In 1810 there was an Abraham P.Pooll in Abbeyville Co SC census but not shown in the 1820 census but again was in the 1830 & 1850 Abbeyville Co census. This must be the Abram Pool Jr in the 1800 Claremont Co census, who surely is the son of the soldier Abraham Pettypool who was in the 1790 Claremont Co census. In 1800 he is 26-45 yrs old and his wife less than 26 & they have two young children. He was probably barely 26 yrs old, so probably ba 1774. Abraham in Abbeyville 1810 census was on p 059.

also on p 059 of this census was Leak Pool, but I do not know his age. on p 027 of this census was Micagah Pool who was shown in 1800 as Micajah Pool and was over 45 so born before 1755 but probably just before then. And the SC Genealogist shows him making a will in 1819 under name of Micajah P.Pool. If this is correct then I think he is probably a brother to Abraham, Seth, Ephraim Jr & William Pettypool. and all probably are sons of Stephen Pettypool. Unless Micajah should belong to Phillip Pettypool and a 1st wife. Phillip was born 1730 & possibly married about 1752-53 & then moved to Edgecombe Co NC and later to SC.

In 1820 there was a Mary Pool of Abbeyville Co census on p 027 and she is not old and so would not be a widow of Micajah P.Pool who was pretty old and seems his wife was already dead so I think Mary could be the widow of Leak Pool who is not listed in this 1820 census. Robert Pool was on p 031 of Abbeyville 1820 Census & is probably the son that Micajah names in his will. Sith P.Pool is on p 017 of Abbeyville Census & he & wife are 26-45 yrs old & have 3 children under 10 & 3 ~~over~~ under 16 so I am guessing that he was 35 more or less. He could be the Sette Pool in the 1810 Sumter Co Census and I think its possible that this man is a son to Abraham Pettypool the soldier. I do not know if Seth P.Pool was again in Abbeyville Co census of 1830 as the library does not seem to have a 1830 Census. But at LDS I picked up data showing that in 1830 there was a Seth Pool living in Anderson Co SC which was next to Abbeyville Co. A Thomas Pool was in the 1820 Abbeyville Census on P 017 also and he was son of Abraham, as shown in the deed of gift. And in 1820 Moses Pool was in Sumter Co Census and about the same age as Seth & Thomas & he is a son of Abraham. I suppose John Pettypool who made his will in Sumter Co in 1813 was probably born 1775 or soon before and I think he is probably a son of Abraham or Seth Pettypool.

In 1800 there was a Benjamin Pool & a Jesse P.Pool both on p 241 of Union Co SC. Jesse & his brother John had lived in Union Co for years and they both moved later to Greenville Co SC where two more brothers lived. I could not find John in this 1800 SC census ....It is only know that Jesse had a son Green P.Pool and a daughter and Jesse & wife made them a deed in 1847. But I wonder if Benjamin was also a son & possibly dead by time the deed was made in 1847. This Benjamin seems to be born about 1780 so I do not know if that is too early to be Jesse's son. He appears to be the Benjamin Pool in the 1810 & 1820 Spartanburg Co SC census. I suppose it could be the son Benjamin Odle PPool who abraham P.Pool made a deed of gift in 1805. As so far I have not found any records on this Benjamin. In 1800 there was a Laban Pool in Spartanburg Co census and is shown as Laban P.Pool in the 1810 Spartanburg Co census. I wonder who he is. Remember William Pettypool of Newberry Co SC named a son Laban in his will of 1796-97 and when Frances the mother made her will in Newberry Co in 1811 she did not name him. William had shown in his Will Labnans name and said "if he live". This could mean that the son was sickly and abo t to die but I think it might mean that he had left home young and they did not know if he was living. Since William & Frances married in 1775 I suppose Laban could have been born after then but I think he was named nearly the last child in the Will so maybe he was born about 1784-85. Or even later. But it is hard to look at this 1820 census and tell exactly when this Laban P.Pool was born.

I found Thomas Pool in Census records of Fairfield Co SC. He is the son listed in the Will of Ephraim Pettypool Jr in 1793-94 in Fairfield Co. Some records show him as Pool and some P.Pool. I am not sure that I found his bbother Ephraim in a SC census. But the library at Springfield does not have an 1830 SC census. But Helen Womack sent me a copy of a letter that she got from Guy Cloud in which he shows the following neighbors to his Poole family, in Fairfield Co SC. Nana Pool Ovviously a widow & mabe a grandmother as he shows her. and a Ephraim Pool is next door to her and Mr Cloud show that he was named for his Ephraim Mabry probably. And Thomas P.Pool or a Thomas Pool with a middle initial "P". Then a Tapley Pool named for Adam Tapley. I think I can tell tha by his letter Mr Cloud was not exactly sure about these Pool neighbors. I think he is probably right about the Tapley Pool. It has been my thought that Nana might be a grandmotherly name for Ursula P.Pool widow of Ephraim Pettypool (P.POOl Jr) who she married in 1768 in Dobbs Co NC. Ursula may have been born about 1750 so could be still living in 1830. And I thought that Ephraim next door to Nana could be the son Ephraim as shown in the Will and that Thomas nearby was the other son in the will. but I too am speculating and I may be wrong.

I just now thought to mention about the Leak Pool in the Abbeyville Co Census that I mentioned awhile ago. When I copied this from records at LDS I copied it Leah Pool tho I may have copied it wrong or possibly LDS has it wrong.

Now to some records that I found at LDS & some are early. In 1762 an Abraham Petpool was in some sort of records marked NTL in Pitt Co, NC. It did not explain what NTL means but I suppose it might be NC Tax list. A Cato Petpool is also listed,a Negro, and probably a slave taking Abraham's name. Pitt Co is close to Edgecombe & Johnston Co NC where Stephen & Phillip Pettypool lived for years before moving to SC. In 1764 there was some kind of record of Pitt Co and not mentioned by LDS but shows that Abraham Pettepool, Ephraim Pettepool & Moses Pettepool are in that county. This would be in a drawer at LDS marked Search #1 in case you have an LDS nearby and you may want to check this record and others as well. This is a real puzzler to me. I first thought that this was Abraham & Ephraim Jr and that Moses was possibly a brother that did not live too long and they were sons of Stephen Pettypool. But then it struck me that Abraham was born 1752 so by 1762 & 1746 would be 10 & 12 yrs old. Of course Ephraim Jr could be a little older. So what would these boys be doing shown in records of Pitt Co when they were that young unless their father had them go tend a farm for someone in Pitt Co and somehow the Son Ephraim Jr who was older gave the officals his name and names of his two brothers. Then I thought that this might be the Ephraim Pettypool who in 1759 had the land patent in Brunswick Co Va and since Pitt Co is almost directly south of there for several miles that possibly Ephraim might have moved from Vir to Pitt Co and maybe he had a couple of sons named Abraham & Ephraim. But yet I am about to give up on that idea. I think LDS have some Pitt Co records that can be ordered on film and I want to do this sometime. I also noticed that Moses Pool was in a record of some kine in 1764 (same year) in Beaufort Co NC which is next to Pitt Co. And a Moses Pool was a witness to a Will in Beaufort Co in 1772-73.

I am glad you sent me pages from James R. Pool's book. This man has to be very old if living. I wrote to him in 1984. He sent me his family chart which did not show his age but did show his father was bn 1861 & a deceased sister was born in 1890. He seemed to be very sharp in his letter as well as his book and I would not have guessed his age. I liked the way he expressed hisself. He wrote that one of his mother's sisters was in the Dr P'Pool book and had married a Wiley P'Pool, but I suppose you know about that. Did you notice that he told in his book about the author of the Dr P'Pool book making a mistake in showng his ancestor Dr Robert Murray Pool of Trigg Co, Ky as a Pettypool (P'Pool). James's family were of German descent and came to ~~Chrisstina~~ Christian Co Ky from Rownan Co NC. This cleared up a lot for me as when I read the Dr P'Pool book I noticed the author showed that probably Dr Robert (Bob) P'Pool of Calloway Co was the same Dr Rober (Bob) P'Pool of Trigg Co, but yet showed They had different wives. So I am glad you sent these few pages from the book. I had suspicinoned that something was wrong.

I have some data on Caldwell, Christina & Trigg Countys,Ky that Clayton Will sent to me which I will send to you later. This also shows early Christian Co Ky tax records and Jechonias (or Jackanus) P.Pool and Seth and Buckner etc and shows James R. Pools ancestor Henry Pool and his wife Margaret & son Timothy Brown Pool. Evidently Margaret had land in her own name too. This data may have been compiled by a genealogist in Ky and shows that perhamps that Henry Pool in Christian Co was a father to a Henry H. P. Pool who married Sarah S. F. Newsom in Caldwell Co, Ky. But this must be wrong as this Henry in Caldwell Co had a son Wayman C. P. Pool bn 3/17 1852 so both must be Pettypools and so the name must be P.Pool instead of a middle initial "P". This data shows that an Ephraim Pool 1799-1800 was the earliestPool in Christian Co.

No!

Same Ephraim as in Montgomery Co. TN

This must be the soldier Ephraim Pool of Camden dist SC who married Lucretia & they lived in Ga and Tenn in Montgomery Co, NC. The Ephraim Pool was not in the 1810 Christian Co but he must have been the ex soldier and moved to Montgomery Tenn which is just across the state line. I have some records that Clayton Willis sent to me & will send to you later. It gives an interesting storey on this man but does not give any information showing who his parents were. He volunterred first and served under Matthew Singleton who was a Colonel. Also under other men named Singleton. This must have been in 1775 in Camden Co when the other Pettypools that I have mentioned were with Singleton and Richardson. This Ephraim Pool later enlisted in 1776 in another regiment. When He 1st volunteered he was living 20 miles Below Camden on the high hills of Santee in Camden District. He and his wife had had children and when he died in 1834 in Tenn his widow showed that they had-had children and that she understood a William Pool resided somewhere in Mississippi and was then in his 57th year and that she had no records on their marriage but that she & Ephraim married in March 1781 or 1782. And that she was born 1763. Ephraim also served under Col Richard Richardson. And this Ephraim is shown as born March 1756. I wonder if he would be a Pettypool. Since he was of Camden district and near Camden I would think so. 20 miles South of Camden is almost in Sumter county today. I wonder if he could be a son to Phillip Pettypool but I guess not as I think Phillip named a son Ephraim evidently by a 2nd wife. In Montgomery Co Tenn in 1839 Ephraim Pool Jr personalley appeared before the Justice of the Peace and makes oath that he is the fourth child of Ephraim & Lucretia Pool and that he is now 52 yrs old. The father Ephraim said that he lived in Georgia for a short while and that some of his records probably were lost when his house burned in Georgia. In 1840 ~~Ephraimxwi~~ Ephraim's widow Lucretia lived with a John Pool.

Jeanne Hand Henry is an author of the book "My Cross & Hand families" and has at least a page or more about her Pettypool connection to her ancestors which happens to be the William & Frances (Brooks) Pettypool who moved from Lunenburg Co, Va to Newberry Co, SC. I had been told that she lived in Raleigh NC, But recently I saw an ad in a genalogy magazined showing that a Genealogy Publishing co at New Market, Ala had the book. So I wrote them askinf or Mrs Henry's addres and I got an answer from this lady saying that she is the owner of the Southern Genealogical Services. She does not seem to know a lot about the Pettypools but said she would like to hear from me soon about them so I intend to write her a limited amount of information. Not what I am doing here. Ha.

A few days ago I referred to the letter that I recieved about 3 yrs ago from my distant cousin (in her eightys) at Amory, MS. She and her deceased sister received a letter in 1958 from Bessie Lamb, the author at Enoree, SC. Her ancestor was Seth Petty Poole who also signed his name Seth P. Poole & Seth Poole. The author refers to Seth Petty Poole and yet when she refers to his brothers William and John she show them as Poole. But in 1958 she wrote to Amory MS and does say that when her family left England they were known as Petty Poole. So I am sure that this is another Pettypoole family coming to America. William settled in Maryland. John & Seth settled in Virginia but soon moved to Laurens Co SC at Enoree. Later John moved to Spartanburg Co SC and later he moved to Mississippi. In 1800 a John Pool was living in Spartanburg Co SC but was ther in 1810 & 1820 too so I do not know if he is the same man or not. Anyway Seth P.Pool is first shown in Laurens Co SC census of 1800. I do not know where they lived in 1790. Seth married Elizabeth Berry. They had a son John P. Poole b 1797, so notice he used a "P" in his name. The data sent to me by a genealogist about 3 yrs ago shows that they had 25 children and that 21 lived to be grown and Married. But this looked wrong to me and I could not make it agree with census records. Evidently someone gave this genealogist some wrong information as a man in SC has Bessie Lamb's book and he writes to me that Seth & Elizabeth had 13 children including twins: Berry & Terry (twins), William, Seth Jr, Caroline, Peter, Martha, Nancy, Anna, Robert, Susan, John 1797-1868 & Martin. Bessie in her letter particularly mentione the twins Berry & Terry.

As I have mentioned Thomas P.Pool (shown as Pool) was in Abbeyville Co SC and ~~Sumter~~ Fairfield Co SC in 1820 and Thomas was even in Abbeyville Co SC in 1850. At LDS if I copied it right it showed a Thomas ~~Rxxx~~ P.Pool in Sumter Co Alabama for 1840. I found a few mistakes I think at LDS on early census records, or I thought they were mistakes so I wonder if this should be Sumter Co, SC instead of Sumter Co Ala. I will try to check this out some time. Thomas was still in Fairfield Co in 1830 SC census as shown by Lds. Possibly this man moved to Sumter County Alabama. LDS showed that Allen P.Pool lived in Halifax Co, Va census in 1830 after living in Mecklenburg Co in 1820. I noticed data showing that he had a liquor license at that early date. I did not know that they had such a thing then.

In 1790 In Caswell Co NC there was a William Pettypool with no information about him as to age etc. This was on a certain page and two pages from him was a Micajah Pool. I am not sure when but later I saw where this Micajah Pool made a Will in Caswell Co. so this man would not be the Micajah P.Pool who made the Will in 1819 in Abbeyville SC

Anyway I had wondered who this William Pettypool was in 1790 in Caswell Co and then decided that it was the son of Seth Pettypool who settled in Granville Co, NC. I also found a William Pettypool in some sort of record at LDS showing that he lived in Person Co in 1793. Caswell Co is just West of Person Co so this was probably the same man and his brother Seth (Ty) later lived in Person Co, NC. And talking about this Seth(Ty) Pettypool. He is the man that in 1792 married Elizabeth Ladd. Diane Clute at Akron Ohio wanted to borrow my copys of the Dr P'Pool book and when she returned it she wrote that she was still trying to prove that her & your Seth Pettypool ba 1774 had married Elizabeth Ladd. I could see where she might think so as this Seth was born about the might time to marry her. A Thomas Ladd was at the marriage in 1792 and was a consenter or witness or bondsman or something. I imagine he was a father or brother to Elizabeth Ladd. And I think several records have shown that your Seth married Elizabeth Ladd and possibly Dar records may have shown this information. But I saw a supplement to DAR and it showed that Seth Pettypool ba 1770 son of Seth Pettypool b 1730 married Elizabeth Ladd and says that Elizabeth was his 1st wife and says that Thomas Pettypool bn 1797 was their son. But Dar records shows that Elizabeth died after 1843 in Person Co, NC. That was when Seth Pettypool died in Person Co, NC in 1843. The Doctor Pettypool book I am sure shows this death data. But how could Elizabeth be the 1st wife of Seth and yet die after Seth did unless they were divorced.

I wonder if Seth married a 2nd time and possibly to a wife named Elizabeth. Of course the Dr P'Pool book has mistakes but it shows that Seth (Ty) married in 1801 and that the 1st child born was Hardy Keeler Pettypool born Oct 25 1802 and altogether that there were 8 children born to 1816 I think including a Thomas Pettypool ba 1814. So there seems to be a mistake somewhere about a son Thomas born in 1797 and in 1814 unless they had two sons by that name. I could see where Seth (ty) & Elizabeth would have named a son Thomas for Thomas Ladd. Anyway I imagine this Hardy Keeler Pettypool may have gone to Georgia for some time because two of his children were Hardy Garrison P.Poo b 1826 and William (Will) Lappley P.Pool b 1828 and both of these brothers settled in Union Co, Ark (next to the Louisiana line). The 1900 Union Co Ark shows William P.Pool and that he was born Sep 1828 in Ga. This birth date agrees with data in the Dr P.Pool book. There were several Pettypool familys that came to Arkansas, including Mastin P.Pool who settled in NW Arkansas and lived in Franklin, Crawford & Washington Co Ark. He and two sons are featured in the Washington Co, Ark goodspeed book. Mastin had been born in NC and his father moved to Greensville Co,SC. Later Mastin moved to Hall Co, Ga where he married in 1826 and later moved to Tenn before finally settling in Arkansas. And my relatives left Mo and lived in Carroll Co, Cleveland Co, Calhoun Co, and Dalls Co Arkansas. And some familys lived in Greene,St Francis & Phillips Co Ark & I think a John P.Pool lived in Sevier Co, Ark.

I have already shown that a LabanPool shown in the 1810 census of Spartanburg Co SC & in 1820 census of Spartanburg Co and that I am not sure who he was. Possibly he could be the missing son of William & Frances Pettypool of Newberry Co SC. There was a Laban C. Pool in the 1830 Talbot Co, Ga Census. Also a Laban P.Pool in the 1830 Clark Co, Alabama Census. Also a Laban C. Pool in Muscogee Co, Ga in 1840. I have not actually checked out any of these census records so do not know the man's age. But I wonder if the one in Ala could be the son of Baxter P.Pool. Also a Laban P.Pool in Neshoba Co Mississippi that might be the same man that in 1830 was in Alabama census. A Laban C. Pool married a Mrs Jane Needham on 12/20 1847 in Muscogee Co, Ga. This was probably a 2nd marriage for both of them and must be the Laban C. Pool who lived in Talbot & Muscogee Co, Ga. There was also a Laban P.Poole who married a Letty S. Earle in Rutherford Co, NC on 7/28 1812. I noticed a Laban C. Pool was in Greene Co, Ark census of 1850. He was not there in 1860. I did not see if he was there in 1840 but I doubt it as I would guess that he is the Laban C. Pool who lived 1830 & 1840 in Ga. I notice that Greene Co, Ark would be close to S. E. Mo where your P.Pool's settled. Recently I went to the Gen & Hist Society building at Springfield to visit them for a feee of $2.00 to see what material they had in order to decide whether to join them. While there I found a small thin booklet of Dunklin, Co Missouri but did not have time to look at it good. A lady that works in a store at Springfield was raised in Dunklin Co, Mo and she said she used to Know Pool familys at Dunklin, County.

I finally found a 1830 Kentucky census on film with Trigg Co in it and found Caldwell P.Pool. He was 40-50 yrs old and so born between 1780 & 1790. So this seem to jibe as he is evidently the Caldwell P.Pool probably born 1783 more or less who married in 1808 in Granville Co, NC to Patsey P.Pool & they were in the 1810 Granville Co, NC census & then in the 1820 Mecklenburg Co, Va census & in the 1830 & 1850 Trigg Co Census of Ky. In this 1830 Trigg Co census I found they had more sons & daughters than I had expected. And from the census it appears that his wife Patsey was deceased.

I mentioned that at LDS I found records showing JechoniasD. Pool in Trigg 6o, Ky census of 1820. I finally found this census in book form and it more or less has his name spelled this way but has a question mark after his name. In the 1830 Trigg Co census I found the name Jackanas P.Pool so I decided it was the same man as in the 1817 & 1819 Tax records of Christian Co he was shown as Jackanas or Jackanas P.Pool and living nearby was Seth Pool (should be P.Pool). But when I began to write this 1830 census down on paper I found that he was 20-30 yrs old and his wife too and they had two small children under 5 so this man was too young. But nearby was a J. P.Pool 30-40 yrs old so I think he is the JechoniasP.Pool that was in the 1820 census. I had figured that this older Jechonia P.Pool was probably born in the early 1790's but it looks to me that he would have had to been born in the year 1790 and in turn had a son Jechonias or Jackanas born in 1810 in order to be 20-30 yrs old. This seems to be crowding things a little but I suppose that they were father & son. As I know of no other explanation for these two men. A Jackemus P.Pool had a marriage license in Christian Co to marry a D. Jane Henshaw. I suppose this could be either man marrying a 2nd time.

You mentioned about Thomas Pool who made a Will in 1799 in Granville Co, NC in 1799 & the will showed 5 children: Sarah, Elizabeth, William, Burgess & Thomas. I had forgot about William being in this Will. I have not seen him for sure in records and census records but I have Thomas & Burgess. I think I have seen everything that you mentioned in your letter that you found in the book of Granville, Co, NC. And I copied most of the entrys about Pettypool, P.Pool or Pool. I can tell by your letter that we have been down the same road genealogically speaking and have had the same questions in mind. I still don't know what to think about this family & to be honest I have not had too much extra time to work on them but I have had them in mind and have done some work on them. At times I think they were Pettypool and other times I do not think so. This is quite a puzzle to me as to who this Thomas Pool was and his children. I have tried to do a little work on this family including Burgess & Thomas without success.

In the 1784-87 NC State Census of Goshen Dist in Granville Co NC in the year of 1786 on page 1 was Seth Pettypool (b 1730 who married Mary Wood) and next to him was his son I suppose, shown as John Pettypool Jun. About 15 houses away was Thomas Pool. On page 2 was John Pettypool Sen who was born 1725 and a brother to Seth and living next to him was his son Stephen Pettypool.

in 1810 Census of Granville Co on p 884 was Logustin (P.Pool) with family & he was 26-45 years old, also Burgess Pool 26-45 yrs old. Burgess has a male in his house 16-26 which could be his brother Thomas. Also a female under 16 that could be a sister and a female 45 upwards that could be a mother. On p 885 Was Seth P.Pool and Phillip P.Poo brothers & sons of Seth & Mary (Wood) P.Pool.

In 1820 Granville Co NC census Seth & Phillip P.Pool are on p 33 and so are Burgess & Thomas Pool. So earlier Thomas Pool (the father) lived close to the P.Pools and later his sons Burgess & Thomas lived close to them. On 11/20 1811 or maybe it could have been in 1816 (I cannot make out my writing) in Granville Co,NC Burgess Pool married Sarah Clardy & thomas Murrey was bondsman & Step Sneed was witness. on 1/6 1815 in Granville Co Thomas Pool married Nancy Duncan & John Ricks was bondsman & Step Sneed was witness. And in Granville Co on 10/18 1845 a Thomas W. Pool married Sarah D. Hicks and John F. Sanford was bondsman & James M. Wiggins was witness.

In the 1830 Breckenridge Co Ky Census on p 047 was Buckner P.Pool who I think was the son of Logustin P.Pool Sr. On P 054 is Robert P.Pool a brother to Logustin P.Pool Sr, also a Logustin P.Pool Jr who is 20-30 yrs old but seems to be about 20 yrs old. On P 067 is another Logustin Pool 20-30 yrs old but seems to be about 30 yrs old. On P 068 is Logustin P.Pool Sr and 6 houses away from him is Burgess P.Pool and he is 30-40 yrs old but probably more like 30 yrs old. His wife is 20-30 yrs old and they have a child under 5 & two over 5. On P 071 is Sanford P.Pool 30-40 yrs old & one house away is William P.Pool 20-30. Comments: I failed to get a record of Stephen P.Pool who was on P 071 of this census. Stephen had a son Sanford who is shown above. Sanford had a brother William so maybe this is him also on P p71...In this census were brothers Stephen Robert & Logustin P.Pool but where was the brother William P.Pool. Clayton Willis's chart shows that William P.Pool was born previously to 1765. William Pettypool of Breckenridge Co, Ky on 11 Dec 1804 appointed his brother Robert Pettypool of Granville Co, NC his atty to sell lands for him. LDS shows that in 1810 William Pool of Breckinridge Co was 45 upwards. So possibly he was born 1755 or just before. His father was born 1725 & his mother about 1730, so William must have been one of the first children born. William was not in the 1820 or 1830 Breckinridge Co census so I wonder what happened to him. Notice there were two younger Logustin P.Pool in this census, both 20-30 yrs old. One is the son born to Logustin Sr in 1806 & possibly the other is son of Robert. Buckner in this census is a son to Logustin Sr. In a later Breckinridge census I noticed there was a Washington P.Pool in that county. Notice in this census Burgess P.Pool is 6 houses from Logustin P.Pool Sr.

From the data that Clayton Willis sent to me. I did not find that his P.Pool family had a Burgess P.Pool. Logustin P.Pool was married 3 times. The first two marriages were 1794 & 1805. Between 1795 & 1800 two sons were born, Micajah & Buckner. I wonder if Burgess could be the same man as Micajah. As in 1830 Burgess P.Pool was 30-40 yrs old. He is a puzzle to me. He was born in the 1790's so I am sure that he is not the Burgess Pool of Granville Co, NC who was probably born about 1784 or just before. I forgot to mention that it looks like WilliamPPool bn about 1755 or just before was married twice. He married Frances Owens in 1797 in Granville Co, NC.

In the 1830 Christian Co Ky census Burgess Pool is 40-50 yrs old & has a quite a few females in his house. I believe this is Burgess Pool previously of Granville Co, NC. He would not be living far from P.Pool in Trigg Co, Ky most of whom had lived in Christian Co just a few years before this. This Burgess Pool is a mystery & why did he move to Christian Co. Evidently he is not an anextor to James R. Pool, the author whose ancestors lived in Christian Co.

I found a couple of notes from Granville Co, NC which will not mean much: David Williams of Columbia Co, Ga 14 Jul 1818 appoints Thomas Pool of Granville Co, NC his Atty in right of his wife Ann to recover all sums of money etc from William N. Sneed director of the estate of her father Wm Gill deceased Wit: Thomas Gill William Gill... this is evidently Thomas Pool, brother to Burgess Pool...201 Feb CT 1819 Elizabeth & John Hood in Account with William Collins, guardian, charges Clerk's fees, clothing, paid clerk of Mecklenburg Co, Va 7 credits with cash balance due them from 1818 with interest, cash received from Burgess Pool & James Clardy, executors of John Clardy, deceased, being part devised to James Hood by his grandfather, rent from land & hire of negroes, John Hood, another orphan in account with William Collins is aame as above.

Further in regards to Thomas Pool (Will of 1799 Granville Co, NC) & his sons Burgess, Thomas & William. This may mean nothing, but recently I copied some data at the Hist Soc of earlier records of Caswell Co, NC which is 2 countys west of Granville Co, NC. These are earlier people but seem to be related possibly to Thomas Pool & his sons as the names are similar. These records from a booklet marked guardian accounts 1848-68.

Book Q 1848. 91 Thomas Pool Will. W. 19 Mar 1848. daughter Annis to have a negro man Green, son Thomas ½ of land son Burgess ½ of land. daughters Asanath & Matilda More (name may be Moore) daughter Caroline Nolly? (can't read my writing) to have one bed as her husband Mr Durham has already been given property. My Six Children. Exec son John Thomas, daughter Annis & 2 friends Francis Day & Williamson Davidson Wit: David Richmond, James Malont (or Malone?) J. C. Love.

After this for several years these children are mentioned as orphans in several transactions and Burgess & John T. Pool (brothers) are mentioned with data about rent that came from the plantation. In 1863 John T. Pool made a Will & names a wife Lucy A. Pool & her heirs. Also a William Pool of Orange Co bought a tract in Caswell Co in 1854.

I forgot to mention one or two things. I mentioned about a Henry H. P.Pool of Caldwell Co Ky who had a son born there. This Henry was the son of Allen T. P.Pool who moved from Virginia to Trigg Co, Ky. Also I wrote about finding a William Pettypoo in Caswell Co 1790 census and in 1793 in Person Co NC and that this was evidently the son of Seth Pettypool of Granville Co NC. But John Pettypool of Granville Co had the son William Pettypool who moved to Breckenridge Co, Ky about this time and possibly it could be him that I have shown here. Also I have shown that Abraham Pettypool was making deed of gifts in Claremont & Sumter Co SC (the Rev Soldier evidently) up to about 1805. I showed one entry showing Abraham Pettypool & w Sarah dower acreages to William Bracey. Evidently it was for 277 acres and was part of a grant of 4000 acres made to Matthew Singleton on 16 Jul 1784. This paper was not dated and I presume that it was made by Abraham's widow sometime after 1805. I just looked up the word dower in the dictionary and it says "A Widows share for life of her dead husband's property". So Abraham must have had a wife named Sarah. And I notice in the library Book "7500 marriages from 96 & Abbeyville SC 1774-1890" and says "Watson, 1830 Abraham P.Pool-Sarah (Coleman)." When I looked up what Watson means, it seems that he is an author of several family connections. Anyway I wonder if this means that the earlier Abraham P.Pool the soldier married a Sarah Coleman or if it was his son. As he had a son Abraham P.Pool that seemed to settle in Abbeyville Co SC. Maybe the date of 1830 is a marriage date of this younger Abraham P.Pool.

You wrote about finding in Surry Co, Va records of 1662-1684 where P 243 shows on 7/5 1664 that Wm Pettypoole was one of the jurors when a corpse was found at the landin of Benjamin Harrison. I remember seeing this about 3 yrs ago & did not write it down as things were pretty confusing for me to start researching the P.Pool name then. I think this is the Emigrant William Pettipool. I think he probably returned to England shortly after this then returned to Maryland in Nov 1665 & immediately went back to York Co Vir as records can be found of them in York Co in Nov 1665. And earlier records were in York Co in 1660 & 1661. This seems like a long trip & the hard way to settle things but I believe this is what happened. Clayton Willis wrote that William & Ann Pettipool were faced with a years imprisonment but somehow avoided it & went back to England & then returned to America. He did not say where he found the record about Capt Gibsons ship the "Hopewell" or at least I don't think that he did but I think once that I saw this record.

The Reels of Virginia that I viewed at the library contained the auction of Benjamin P.Pool of Oct 15-16, 1801 in Mecklenburg Co, Va on P 347 to 350 & the appraisement & inventory of his property Jul 25, 1801 on P 345 & 346. I made you negatives which are never real plain but maybe you can read them. I did not make any more copys as I just was not interested in having a copy. I think you can read them okay. They are yours to keep. I have numbered each negative, such as "345 top & 345 bottom" etc. You will need to piece them together or overlap them & pin or tape together. I had to make two negative of each page in order to get all of the data. Stephen Pool (should be P.Pool) was a witness of the appraisement. However you will porbably want to write to Howard Lock & wife to get all the wills that I wrote you about. They were large papers so a little heavy and I am sure it will cost your two or three dollars each way on the postage. Their address in Howard Lock, 7117 Serrano, Ft Worth, Tex 76126. They are interested in their Pettypool family & probably others too. Did I mention that I wrote to Edwin C. P'Pool at Nashville who is a nephew to Edward Herman P'Pool who did most of the research on the Dr P'Pool book & after he died Dr David Bruce P'Pool added data & letters to it and published it. The book shows that Dr James Emmett P'Pool practiced at Forrest City, Ark but I found data showing him at one time at Newport, Ark.

I am glad that you wrote to me about John Pettypool who in 1785 married Rebecca Wilkins on & lived evidently in Dinwiddie Co. When John was Christened on 2/14 1762 his parent were shown at the Christening as John & Anne Pettypool. I think you may have something in thinking that the father & mother of this John should be Seth & Anne Pettypool and that possibly the clerk may have made a mistake, in recording this Christening. I am not observing enough to have caught this in any way. Right now I think you may be right about this so I tend to agree. However I wonder why Dr Joseph Bell Tarpley at Plano Texas did not write about this son John when he wrote the data about the children of Seth and Ann (Tucker) Pettypool of Dinwiddie Co, Va. He even mentioned the names of who these children married. So He seemed to know a lot about this family. And he had records of each childs date of birth. If this John is a son to Seth & Ann then he was their first child probably. However just recently I found Pettypools in Virginia of 1789 to 1790 who I cannot identify and I wonder about them & who their parent were, so I wanted to write to you about this and I think it is possible that some of these were by another set of parents of the Dinwiddie Co area. However I do not know if my theory will make sense or not.

This John P.Pool born 1762 evidently stayed in Dinwiddie Co. I think he probably had a son John W. P.Pool or John P.Pool Jr that is also shown in Dinwiddie Co Census's. Seth P.Pool (the son) moved to Wilson Co, Tenn & later to Calloway Co, Ky. I think the son William P.Pool continued on living in Dinwiddie Co. I am not sure what happened to the son Joseph but in 1810 there was a Joseph Pool in the census of Prince Geo Co, Va which could be this son. Records of the library book "Dinwiddie Co Va Will records Abstracts of 1789-90" show that most of the records of Dinwiddie Co were destroyed and this book just shows a few early entrys: Edward Pegram Jr Assignee of Vines Collier Plaintiff Against Stephen Pettypool & Anderson Pettypool Defendants, in debt 1789....also another entry...Seth Pettypool Jr appointed Surveyor of the roads. ...also another entry...John Daingerfield & Elizabeth his wife VS Thomas Pettypool... another entry...John Pettypool exempted from Payments of notes.

This evidently was a few records saved from destruction & were made in 1789-90. I wonder if this is the Thomas Pettypool who married Parent McGhee who is shown in the 1820 White Co Illinois census who you sent me the article on. Thomas evidently moved t Tennessee at an early date as shown & I wonder if he married Parent McGhee in Vir or Tenn. I am interested in this family. Personally I do not think this Thomas Pettypool is related to the Pettypools in Breckinridge Co, but I ~~max~~ may be wrong as I am wrong enough of the time. So far I think this Thomas Pettypool of Dinwiddie Co is the best candidate to be the Thomas Pettypool of White Co Illinois after living awhile in Tenn. I wonder if anyone knows when Thomas Pettypool came to Illinois. I think maybe the first records I saw on him was in 1820 in Illinois. Actually I found Thomas in some Illinois record of 1818 and then 1820 Census and I do not think either told me much. So I need to see him in an 1830 or 1840 census. I am not sure if he was in the 1850 census or not. in the 1789-90 records of Dinwiddie Co (above) he was probably grown and probably born in the 1760's.

In the 1810 census of Dinwiddie Co, Va census there was John, Robert Stephen & William Pettypool. We already know about John & William. Robert & wife are 26-45 and have a daughter under 16 and one under 10 so I am guessing that Robert was b-a 1775-77 as was probably 33-35 yrs old more or less. Stephen Pettypool & wife were over 45 so both born before 1765.

The 1800 Northampton Co, NC census has Anderson Pettepool in it. He & wife are 26-45 and have one child 10-16 & 4 children under 10. In 1810 Greensville Co Va Census Anderson and by this time he has a 2nd wife Polly Mitchell who he married in 1809. They have a dughter 10-15 & 2 daughters under 10. And In this 1810 Greensville Co Censu is Henry Pettypool & wife and both are 26-45 yrs old he has a couple of children who seem to be just over 16 and under 16. So I am guessing that Anderson & Henry are brothers and probably b-a 1765.

We have already mentioned that John Pettypool the son bn 1762 may be the son of Seth and Ann or possibly to someone else. But then we have Stephen, Thomas, Anderson & Henry who belong to someone and I do not know who. None of these are ~~children~~ descendants of Seth Pettypool I believe. I think they are descendants of William Pettypool Jr b 1700 of Lunenburg Co, a brother of Seth. So if they were born approximately in the 1760's I can think of only one man that they might belong to. in the Parish records William Pettypool Jr had a son Henry who was born 1740. I have seen no records of him and not much way to check the early Dinwiddie Co records of any kind. I do not know if he could have lived in Dinwiddie Co early or not. Then too I wondered if possibly his name could have been John Henry Pettypool and married a wife Ann and he could also be the father of the John Pettypool born 1762. But actually you can see I am really grasping at straws. If he was the father of Stephen, Thomas, Anderson & Henry all born in the 1760's they would probably been born almost one after the other and then also names a son Henry. But these sons belong to someone.

In the 1820 Census of Dinwiddie Co the following P.Pools were listed: Stephen Sr, Stephen Jr, David, John Sr & Ann P.Pool. I wonder if Ann is the Ann Tucker & widow of Seth Pettypool the father who was probably born in the 1730's and Ann probably ba 1740 and if living would be about 80 yrs old. And In Sussex Co was Cadrick P.Pool. I am not postive but I think LDS has a Will record index on this man as I think Cadrick was listed as an heir or son to John P.Pool Sr when he died. I may be wrong tho. The 1830 Census of Dinwiddie Co lists Stephen Sr, Stephen Jr, John Sr, John W. (or Jr), Peterson, Ann, David and Irvin. And Cadrick P.Pool was now in Surry Co, Va.

Marriage records of Greensville Co, Va shows: Oct 26 1822 David H. Pettipool & Lucy Massey, consent of Pettipool Massey for Lucy. Jul 27 1899 Anderson P.Pool & Polly Mitchell, a widow. May 31 1849 John W. Pool (should be P.Pool) & Susanna Mosly. 15 Sep 183_ (no exact year shown, but in the 1830's) Henry S. Pool & Elizabeth Winfield (I feel sure this man is a P.Pool). I think one or two of these marriages were maybe in Dinwiddie Co.

William Pettypool Sr of Prince Geo Co, Va who made a will in 1721 had a couple of daughters named Ann & Mary ba 1703 & 1705. Mary married a Broadaway and recently I saw a genealogy magazine several years old where a party had put an inquiry on this Broadaway family showing that they had moved to South Carolina. Then later I saw the name of Broadaway in SC records. And the daughter Ann married a man named Massey tho the Dr P'Pool book shows him as Mercy. Mrs Stephenson at Springfield, Mo is a descendant of the Massey family and I was telling her about seeing the Pettipool Massey above who was a consentor for Lucy Massey to marry David H. Pettipool. I asked Mrs Stephenson where her Massey family came from. She has worked for years on different familys of hers & is very knowledgeable and is a good friend of Mrs Frances Curry. I have forgotten where she said they originally were from but I think possibly in Fairax Co Va in the north part of Virginia. Anyway the Massey family came & settled at Greensville Co, Va for years and later moved to Johnston Co, NC and finally settled in Wake Co, NC.

The 1820 White Co Illinois census had a Thomas Pool, William Pool and Arthur (Arter) (or Atrie) Pool. They were evidently all Pettypools and probably related. A Stephen Pool was in some Illinois record of 1818 also and then in the 1820 census. I think Madison Co is the county that Marlene Shobe lives in at Alton Illinois and I wonder if this Stephen was related to her old family. And if he is a P.Pool. in the 1830 census of White Co Illinois there was a Bedy Pool. My Bedy Pool in Georgia left there supposedly in 1830 and I think they came very close to White Co Illinois when coming to Missouri. They were in Crittenden Co where a daughter married & lived and Crittenden Co, Ky is not far from White Co Illinois. I wonder if Marlene knows who this Bedy Pool was and if related to her family. My Bedy P.Pool was married by this time to a Seneca Dedmon. But I am interested in the William & Arthur Pettypool that lived in White Co. When you write her could you ask about Bedy & William & Arthur particularly and see if they are relatives to her old family and if she knows anything about them. You might want to tell her that a Mary P.Pool is shown in the 1850 mortality schedule of White Co Illinois and was 19 yrs old and must have died in Dec 1849 if I copied it right.

When I first saw the name Marlene Shobe that you wrote about I thought I had hit upon something but I was wrong. Isham P.Pool was in the 1850 Richmond Co, NC census and I think the Seth Pool in This census was his son. Both shown as Pool but Isham was a P.Pool. In Seth's house were names I could not decipher on Film. The name looked like Slorbes but It could have been anything. the 13 yr old boy may have been named Stephen Slorbes but it actually looked like Slepter Slorbes. I will show these two households in 1850 Richmond Co NC: #626-627 Rebecca Pool 66 b NC (she seems to be the head of the house) (she is probably a 2nd & younger wife) (maybe Isham was sickly) Isham Pool 80 born Vir, Lucinda Pool 40 B NC & Louise 22 born NC. #621-622 Seth Pool 26 Blacksmith bn NC, Judith Pool 20 bn NC, Slepter Slorbes?? 13 b NC, Harriet Slorbes?? 8 b NC. I wonder if Marlene Shobe knows all the children of Thomas Pettypool of White Co Illinois as that might reveal something. Braxton was a son.

Check This out

Did I mention that John Pettypool b 1725 in 1768 sold 400 acres to John Shotwell. This was in Mecklenburg Co, Va.

At LDS I found that Phillip Pettypool wain a resident 1775 list of S Car SC 002 and also shown as an a NTL (Possibly NC Tax list) of Colonial County SC 002. Whatever all that means. Also a Richard P.Pool in Newberry Co SC for 1810. He would be the son of William P.Pool of Newberry Co SC will of 1796-97. Also a Mary P.Pool (actually shown as Pool) in the 1810 Newberry Co SC census. William P.Pool named a Mary in his Will but she was shown as Mary Ragsdale. A William Pettypool shown in Halifax Co, Va 24 07 07 S 1782. Evidently a state tax maybe used as a census. I think this is your William Pettypool III but he probably moved from Lunenburg Co to Halifax Co about 1774 or soon after. LDS shows a John D. P.Pool in Clarke Co MS in 1840 and a John S. P.Pool in Walton Co, Ga in 1840. Thomas Pettypool in 1830 & 1840 White Co Ills census. Also a Peterson Pettypool in Chesterfield Co, Va census of 1840 (he was in Dinwiddie Co, Va in 1830). LDS shows a Joseph Pool in Dobbs Co NC in 1780 & 1790 and a Josiah Pool in Dobbs Co NC in 1790. Also Robert Poole in Edgecombe Co NC 1790 census who may be a P.Pool and a son to Phillip Pettypool. Also a Phillip Pool in Warren Co Ga ~~Bakers~~ Lawson dist Tx in 1794 (must be a tax record). A John Pool in Phillip Co Ark in 1835-6-7 & I think he was a P.Pool. Edward P.Pool in Prince Edward, Va 1810-20-30 census is a son of William Pettypool of Newberry Co SC. A David Pool in Dobbs Co NC in 1780 & I wonder if he is the David Pool (actually P.Pool) who later lived in Claremont Co SC & who I think was another son to Seth Pettypool, the soldier. A William P.Pool was shown in some record in 1800 in Mercer Co, Ky. A James P.Pool in Person Co NC in 1820. I saw something to make me think that he might be a son to John E. Pettypool who finally settled in Halifax Co, Va. In 1830 a Thomas Pool in Person Co NC who may be the son of Seth (Ty) P.Pool & a 1st wife Elizabeth Ladd. An Arvin P.Pool & Green P.Pool in Greensville Co SC in 1820. a William Pool in Franklin Co Ga Tax from 1803 to 1819. Also a Wilkins P.Pool in Wyeth Co Va in 1820 and in 1840 he is shown as Wilkins Pettypool in Johnson Co Indidana census. Also a Frederick Pool or P.Pool in the 1850 Johnson Co Indiana census. Anderson Pool in Johnston Co NC in 1840 & I think he is Anderson P.Pool probably. And a Henry Pool was also on the same page of the Johnston Co NC census who I think is his brother and a P.Pool. They earlier lived in Greensville Co, Fa. A Seth Pool in Monroe Co Ga in 1830. Washington P.Pool Breckinridge Co Ky in 1840. There was a Bird P.Pool and a Buener (or Bucmi) P.Pool in the 1820 Census of Breckenridge Co, Ky. I have seen the one man shown both ways at LDS and the Census.

There are also some puzzlers in census records. In 1830 an Elizabeth P.Pool is living in Halifax Co, Va and on the same page as John E. PoPool. I wonder who she is. As far John or his brother William had no wife named Elizabeth. Seth(Ty) P.Pool of Granville Co NC later lived in Person Co NC had a 1st wife Elizabeth Ladd (DAR says) but Seth(Ty) was living until 1843 the Dr P'Pool book claims. I wonder if they could have separated or divorced and he married again and she returned to Virginia, But really I doubt that this happened. Also I think there was a William P.Pool in the 1830 census of Mecklenburg Co. I wonder if this is William Pettypool Jr b 1748. I figured it was him that was in the 1820 Census of Halifax Co but I need to look at the actual census instead of just the index. Then too there was an Aaron Pool in Dobbs Co NC for 1769 and 1780 and in 1790 in Dobbs Co he seemed to have 3 sons under 16. I also found Pools (early) in Dobbs & Johnston Co that I thought were ancestors of Mrs Nell Carter who you wrote about

I am interested in this Aaron Pool in Dobbs Co above. Lynne Schiebel at StLouis had ancestors in Hardin Co Tenn named Archibald P.Pool but shown in census as Pool but Civil War claims show them as P.Pool also. One Archibald ba 1825-27 and the other about 1795 who was born NC and evidently had brothers born NC including a Aaron Pool. I have wondered if they could descend from the Aaron Pool in Dobbs Co which county was discontinued in 1791.

Did I mention that I saw Frances Curry at the Springfield library recently. I told her that Diane Clute would like to prove that Elizabeth Ladd married your and her Seth P.Pool bn 1774. Frances said the Seth (Ty) in Person Co NC signed his name with a X but her Seth in Ky signed his name in full and also she had found that Seth (TY) P.Pool in Person Co, NC had deeded land to the Ladd people. When you look at page 13 of the Dr P'Pool book at the Family of your William Pettypool III it appears that he married Sarah Tynes on 4/9 1772 from the way it is typed up. But I have found that was the birth date of his son Stephen P.Pool who I have been showing b-a 1773. I notice Frances Curry has marked her book that William III married Sarah Tynes ca 1770.

In the 1820 census of Tennessee there was a Thomas Pettypool in Rutherford County. A Thomas Pettypool married Mary Nixon on 4/29 1817 in this county, also a Manuel Tooms (or possibly Toombs) married a Sarah Pettypool on 4/30 1816. I wonder who this Thomas P.Pool was and what happened to him. I am not sure I looked to see if he was in the 1840 or 1850 census of this county, or the 1830 either. Also in the 1820 Maury Co Tennessee census there was a William P.Pool also a John Pettypool (name shown in full). I can tell that William P.Pool was born about 1770 to 1775 & John Pettypool was probably b-a 1800 but he could have been born as early as 1794 according to census records. I would like to know who these two men were. I am not sure that I found eithe man in the 1830 census. But I found William P.Pool in the 1840 Maury Co Tenn Census & was 70 to 80 yrs old. But I don't think he was in the 1850 census and I wish he was. I think possibly that I may know where the John Pettypool went to and will soon show this but I may be wrong. I think these two men were probably father & son. I think William P.Pool was in Maury Co Tenn as shown in a 1818 Tax record.

I have a family sheet on a Perkins P.Pool (P'Pool) showing him as Perkins P'Pool Sr & that he was born 1788 in Ireland or England & a list of his wife & children. I want to sometime write to the lady at Ft Worth Tex whose name is on this sheet to see if she will tell me anything more about her family. Perkins Will was made at Florence, Ala in Lauderdale Co Between 1835 & 1858 in Will Book A p 22. But he was dead before 1850, as I viewed the 1850 Lauderdale Co census on film & found his widow & some children that agreed with the family sheet. This sheet shows that Perkins P'Pool married Nancy Sullivan (b 1793 SC) in Caldwell Co, Ky on 3/1 1817. The 1850 census agrees that Nancy was bn 1793 in SC. They had 13 children. The oldest child was shown born in Tenn and the rest in Alabama. The oldest child was born 1818 and a later son was named John but I did not find him in this census, but I may have overlooked him as I had to view this in a hurry. But I did find a John Pool in this census but he was 54 years old & born Tenn & had a wife Margaret 56 born SC, so I do not know if he could be a brother to Perkins or not. In this same census I did find a John Pettypool (name shown in full). I could not make out his age for sure but it was either 30 or 50, and was born in Virginia. Since his wife Susan was 46 years old & born Tenn and since they have children from 4 yrs old to 21 yrs old I am sure that he was 50 yrs old. I wonder who this man is and if related to Perkins but since he was born in Virginia I am not sure he would be related to Perkins P'Pool. In fact I wonder if he is the John Pettypool that I found in the 1820 Census of Maury Co Tenn. Lauderdale is a narrow county in one direction but wide in another direction. And only Lawrence Co, Tenn separates it from Maury Co, Tenn.

Between Lauderdale Co & Madison Co is Limestone Co, Ala. All three countys border from one to the other. In 1840 Wiltshire P.Pools 3 sons lived in Madison Co which included a son John Pines Pettypool but he was born 1808 & married Sarah Melene. So not the same man. Limestone Co is where Armstead P.Pool lived for several years. In fact most of his children were born there. as you know he was bn 1794 in Virginia & s-o Seth & Lucretia P.Pool. Lauderdale Co also borders Hardin, Wayne & Lawrence Co, Tenn and Hardin County is where P.Pools lived. A John Pettipool is shown in Civil war claims and living in Lauderdale Co so I presume the same person. To add to the confusion I found either a John P. Pool or P.Pool in the Fayette Co Tenn 1840 Census. I do not know how we are going to identify all these Pettypool people .

"War of 1812 Pension Application Abstracts"...John Porter BLW & Pension Cert No 262 U S Inv issued 4 Nov 1817 Treasury Dept 34d Auditors office Aug 27 1817. I certify it appears from Rolls of Capt Du Vall's Co 20th regt Inf to 15 Mar 1815 on file in the accts of Joseph Pettipool Lt & Paymaster of Said Regiment that John Porter Pvt enlisted 7 Jun 1814 for the War & D in Service of the US 19 Feb 1815 signed Peter Haynes Auditor....I wonder who this Joseph P.Pool was and where from and if he survived the War.

Regarding Ambrose Pettypool of Rockingham Co Va who had 7 children and Ambrose is said by the Dr P'Pool book to be a brother of William Pettypool Sr of Prince Geo Co, Va. I think you mentioned about finding a vague record on one of Ambrose sons and that it seemed that they were of a later generation. I think I found the same article and I think the sons name was Isaac. Maybe it was in the Abridged Genealogy books. Anyway I had the same idea about them. Its odd what happened to these 7 children as they seemed to have vanished.

I was glad to get the article about Nell Carter's Pool family of Johnston Co, NC. I had seen the names William, John, Hardy, Harry & Theophillis Pool & wondered who they were & if Pettypools. It helps to know a little about them. She has a Jones, Roper & Pool lineage & I Have a Pool (P.Pool), Jones lineage with data on the Roper family that tied to my P.Pool family. Recently I found Mrs Carter's address in a Genealogy magazine and wrote to her & gave her Pool & Jones names (early ones) that I found at LDS of Johnston, Dobbs & Granville Co NC and some of Virginia. Some Jones people had Pool & P.Pool ties. I wrote her about 4 pages and received a nice letter but she said she was unable to help me but I was hoping she would comment on Pool names & marriages, particularly of Johnston Co. She said she had seen nothing to indicate her family had been P.Pool. I found some of her Pool people in Johnston & Dobbs Co but found several like Aaron & Joseph Pool who I suspicion to be P.Pool.

In Granville Co, NC I found several Pettypool marriages mostly descendants of John Pettypool. Also Peter Overby Jr married Susanna Stovall there in 7/1 1799. Also in Johnston Co, Anderson Pool married Betsy Dedinfield 11/24 1829. Anderson Pool married Louisa Jones 3/16 1839 (I think it was 1839) & Anderson Pool married Polly Ann Penny 2/25 1867. I wonder if it is the same Anderson Pool that married three times. I believe he is a Pettypool but I wonder if it is the Anderson Pettypool that in 1800 lived in Northampton Co NC and in 1810 lived in Greensville Co Va or is his son. Also in Granville Co, NC on 6/22 1809 a Henry Pool married Rebecca Wellons. Also a Henry Pool married Nancy E-----(can't read my own writing) on 1/12 1842 in Johnston Co. The main reason for writing Mrs Carter was about these two last marriages of a Anderson & Henry Pool, also to mention that I had found a Frederick & Henry Pool in NC census's especially in Johnston Co and wondered if she had ever seen any notes on them as I told her I thought my Henry P.Pool (shown as Pool) in Montgomery Co NC had two missing sons ba 1789 & 1790 that by 1810 might be living in another county or state.

Regarding the fact that so many Pettypool made deeds in Lunenburg Co, Va on 7/8 1773. I redntly saw this index again & found that I had overlooked some Pettypool transactions including one of My Henry Pettypool & Jane Pettypool in connection with some other party ...Henry actually is shown marrying Jenny Green, so possibly the marriage or this deed is wrong. I find other transactions on 7/8 1773 for many different people and then I found other particular days for other years and it seems that this is the date that court was held or that they accepted the deeds & other papers and not the days that the papers were signed. I have ordered about 5 reels of Lunenburg co containing deeds of this time and may order more later. In time I want to order more records of different kinds of several Virginia countys. I thought that I had an index of all the Mecklenburg Co Va Wills but now I find that there may be more so I may order this index.

Two deeds of Lunenburg 7/8 1773 bother me as William & Mary Petipool deeded something to Colwell Pettipool Vol 12 P 307 and also to William Pettipool Jr Vol 12 p 306. Of course I think My ancestor William Pettipool Jr could have made this deed as he was living in that area and had a 2nd wife name Mary. But my idea on this is like the No! other deeds I have talked about I think this is a deed from your William Pettypool III to his sons William Jr and Colwell & either made before his wife Mary Colwell died & given later to the court or else they use his deceased wife's name in the transaction as somehow I think that they did this. William III & Mary had the 3 sons Colwell b 1746 & William Jr b 1748 & John E. b 1750. I wonder if she continued on living up to about a time of 1780 and died and William III remarried. Possibly after John E was born Mary could have no more children.

I may be a little mixed up on tithes of Lunenburg Co, but from 1748 to 1750 Seth Petty - Pool the father lived near his sons Seth Jr, Peter & John and at least part of this time they were South of the Meherrin River which in 1764 became Mecklenburg Co. They may have lived North of the Meherrin River part of this time. At this time it seems that my William Pettypool Jr b 1700 lived in the north part of Lunenburg Co. I wondered why William Pettypool III was not living close to his father & brothers. ~~So~~ In tithes of 1748 Stephen Petepool was on page 64 and was living close to a Brooks family. On page 63 was Will Petepool so I thought it was his father William Pettypool Jr b 1700. No but now I am not sure. ~~There were~~ As there was an Edward Colwell living nearby and of course William III's father in Law was Edward Colwell, so I wonder if this was William III on page 63. Also living nearby were 3 Brooks familys & William Snelgrove.

To continue in this mix up of tithes, in 1751 a William Pool and Stephen Pool are both on P 164 and living nearby is William Snelgrove who was living near William Pettepool and Stephen Pettepool in 1748 and by this time I think Edward Colwell was dead as he probably died after he made the deed in 1748 & was never shown in a deed or tithes that I know of after 1748. But my problem is that I do not know for sure whether this was William Pettypool Jr b 1702 (my ancestor) or if it was your William III. In 1752 Stephen Poole was on p 181 and William Pettypool and Peter Pettypoole are on P 182. And again I am not sure which William this is. But anyway this Peter is surely the Peter Pettypool ba 1727 son of Seth Pettypool b 1702. So this is my guess: I think about the time that Seth Pettypool b 1702 moved to the area of Halifax Co that his son Peter moved north and settled nearby to my ancestor William Pettypool Jr b 1702 and near to William Jr's son Stephen Pettypool, or else Peter moved further north into Lunenburg Co and for awhile lived near this brother William Pettypool III.

I am also guessing that Peter died somewhere between 1763 and 1773. 1763 is the last record of him when he was deeding land to another party Anthony Fullilove. I want to look at this deed on film when it comes in if it mentions where the land was such as Couches creek. As possibly Peter did not deed all of his land away. And if he had a No! son William & Benjamin which I think he may have, then possibly the son William may be the one that married a 2nd wife in 1775 named Frances Brooks. Can you follow me in all of this wild speculation. I think Brooks familys lived close to Peter P.Pool.

It is my guess that when Seth Pettypool b 1702 (the father) moved to Halifax Co in 1751-52 that the son Peter moved further north into Lunenburg Co and its even possible that his Brother William III was already living there close to his father in law Edward Colwell, but I am not sure. I suppose that both the sons Seth Pettypool b 1730 and John Pettypool b 1725 stayed South of Meherrin River which in 1764 became Mecklenburg Co and as I mentioned in 1768 John Pettypool sold 400 acres in Mecklenburg Co to John Shotwell. Evidently both John & Seth Jr eventually moved to Granville Co NC. And as I have mentioned I think their brothers Peter & William III moved at sometime to Lunenburg Co into the north part and evidently William III probably moved to Halifax Co. I am not sure ~~wh~~ how right I am about any of this. I do not feel too sure about any of this. Anyway I feel that William III was in the 1774 Lunenburg Co tithes & near to his sons William Jr & Colwell and I think William Jr b 1702 was near his son Frederick.

In 1776 Benjamin Pettypool deeded 64 acres of land at Pinson Br to John Heath in Halifa Co, Va. Probably Pinsons Br means Pinsons Bridge. This is evidently the tract of land that was deeded in 1773 in Halifax Co On Hyco Creek from Seth Pettypool to Benj Pettypool as a gift. In 1789 Benjamin deeded away more land and in 1791 deeded 146 acres of land to a William Pettypool. Not that it means all that much, but I wondered who this William Pettypool was but I think it was to your William III. As Seth deeded by indenture 588 acres in Halifax Co in 1768 but I don't think that William III actuall took it over until a few years later. And William III was deeded 210 acres in Halifax Co by Peter Overby in 1790. So by adding 146 acres (above) to 210 acres to 588 acres gives a total of 944 acres. Then if you deduct the 64 acres that Seth probably deeded to Benjamin P'Pool in 1773 & which Benjamin sold in 1776 this cuts the land down to 880 acres. And it was 880 acres that is mentioned in the Halifax Co, Va index of 1813 to William III's estate where it was being settled among heirs. I do not understand how Seth could have made an indenture to William III in 1668 for the 588 acres and then in 1773 deed out 64 acres of this in 1773 to a grandson Benjamin. But maybe all the stipulation of this indenture of 1768 were not to take effect until Seth died or gave it over to William III or possibly his son William III told Seth that it was ok to deed 64 acres to Benjamin. When Benjamin died about 1801 he had a total of 275 acres in Mecklenburg Co and I think this was quickly sold in 1801.

I also found in Halifax Co, Va a John T. Pool & wife Lucy A. in 1860 deeded 254 ½ acres to Thomas H. Miles. This has to be the John T. Pool who made a will in Caswell Co NC in 1863 that I wrote about & had a wife Lucy A. Pool executor of his estate. And In the Will of Thomas Pool in Caswell Co NC in 1848 Thomas Pool made a will and names daughters and two sons Thomas & Burgess were to received 1/2 of the land. I presume that the son Thomas is this John T. Pool and he is mentioned in other papers, but I may be wrong.

What I have tried to explain or specuaate at, is that Peter P.Pool probably moved further north into Lunenburg Co about 1751-52 when his father Seth moved to Halifax Co. Peter must have bought land either next to his brother William III or next to my Ancestor William Pettypool Jr b 1700. In fact Peter was deeded land in Lunenburg Co in 1757. I suppose all deeds and land transactions were not recorded. Anyway after Peter died a son William could have taken over part of the land and married 2nd a Frances Brooks as several Brooks familys lived in that area. A lot of theory here. In 1793 William & Frances Pettypool of Newberry gave P of Atty to sell 230 acres on Couches creek in lunenburg Co where "They lately lived". The tithes records of Lunenburg Co end in 1783 and I wonder why I cannot specifically find a William Pettypool in tithes up to then. The William Pettypool in 1776 tithes and the 1782 Tax record would seem to possibly be William Pettypool Jr b 1748 son of William III.

No!

Another puzzling this is that in 1773 Edward Ragsdale in Lunenburg Co makes a deed of gift to Edward & Patty R. Pettypool. So you would think that their father William Pettypool and his 1st wife (possibly a ~~Rxxx~~ Ragsdale) would be in the Lunenburg Co tithes by then. So I wonder if the three men in Lunenburg Co tithes William Petty Poole Sr & Colwell Petty Poole & William Petty Poole Jr is your William III and son Colwell and a nephew William possibly a son of Peter. Edward & Patty were just babies in 1773. I thought Edward Ragsdale was the father of Martha Ragsdale that married Seth Pettypool b 1702 as Martha P. Ball at Coker Ala shows that Edward was the father of Martha. And he could have been living at that time though he would have been real old. But lately I found that in Lunenburg Co in 1780 an Edward Ragsdale included in a Will the names of Edward & Martha Pettypool. Patsy or Patsey is a nickname for Martha and Patty might also be. So I figure this is probably the same man that made the deed of gift in 1773 to Edward & Patty. By this time Edward Ragsdale in 1780 (father in law to Seth Pettypool) would be 100 yrs old more or less. It is my idea that the man that made this deed of gift and Will may be a younger Edward ~~Pettypool~~ Ragsdale. or a son to the older one . And maybe this younger Edward could be a father in law or brother in law to William Pettypool father of Edward & Pattey. But why would he have left the other daughter of William Pettypool out of this deed of gift and Will as William showed in his Will of 1796-97 in Newberry Co SC Edward & Pattie and a daughter Mary Ragsdale. By the way I have not seen this Will of 1780 of Edward Ragsdale but just this in the index. I notice in the tithes record of 1772-73 and 1775 of Lunenburg Co there were two Edward Ragsdale shown on each page tithes on the same page so they evidently lived close together. An Edward Ragsdale was shown as a Justice of County Court and member of the General Assembly in the years of 1783-1786- 1791- and 1797.

I also notice that in 1810 an Edward Ragsdale was living close to Seth & Phillip P.Pool (brothers) in Granville Co, NC.

Here are two marriage records I forgot to mention: David P.Pool married Frances Winfield 6/25 1825 in Sussex Co Va. And a David P.Pool married Manerva Moss 12/4 1843 in Halifax Co, Va. I also found a Mortality schdule of SC showing an Edward Pool of Sumter Co SC had died in 1849 and was 14 yrs old. I cannot remember if I mentioned that LDS had a mention of Ephraim Pettypool & Abraham Pettypool in some record of Camden Dist SC in 1778 and Abraham Pettypool again there in 1780.

From What I have seen the "Audited Account Holders Rev War SC" book indicates that the SC Dept of Archives & History, 1430 Senate St,Columbia, SC P O Box 11,669 Capital Station Zip 29211 evidently has "accounts Audited of Claims Growing out of the Rev in SC"and they have an Abraham Pettipool (5898A) 117:406 and I think 117 is the Reel number and 406 is the page number and I do not know what 5898A means. But also an Abraham Pool has the same numbers. Also a John Pool (6011) 119:138 and Phillip Pool (6012) 119:141. The librarian thought that information could be obtained possibly by writing them and that they probably would copy the information off of the pages. But I am not sure what all this would tell a person.

I am guessing that the Pettypools in SC in Sumter County probably did not live too many miles from the town of Statesburg.

There were several Pool's in Virginia that were in the Rev War. Baxter Pettypool shown in the 1st & 10th Regt Continental line. Also there was a Vir Soldier Laban Pettypool of the 14th Regt Continental line that was a Sgt.

(854)

In some sort of Census of 1827 of Taliaferro Co which runs between Warren & Wilkes Countys Dist 602 (Capt Gunn) was a William P. Pool or William P.Pool xxx and he was over 45 so born before 1782 and hiw wife was under 45. Since Abraham Pettypool the soldier of Claremont & Sumter County SC had a son William that I cannot find I wonder if this could be him. Abraham's brother Seth Pettypool also had a son William but I think that he went to Amite Co, MS. This William P.Pool in Ga (above) probably was just barely over 45 as hiw wife was less than 45. living 2 houses away from them was a David Pool and this census shows they were over 18 and less than 45 and have children under 18 so this does not tell a lot. This census lists children under 18. Anyway it might be that William P.Pool of this county would have named a son David for the David P.Pools in Claremont Co SC. living about 15 houses away was an Elijah Pool. I think all three men could be P.Pools. In records of Newton Co Ga in 1838 is shown a Robert P.Poole. in Some record of Forysth Co Ga in 1845 was a Nathan Pool & Young P.Pool. There were several Young P.Pools I think and I am almost wore out trying to separate them & keep them straight. In 1830 there was a Nathan Pool in Hall Co Ga and the best I can figure he was b-a 1795. He was living close to my Henry P.Pool who was also shown Pool in the census. Hall Co and Forysth Co are not far apart.

I forgot to mention that a John Pettipool had some kind of Civil War claim of Lauderdale Co, Ala. This must be the John Pettypool that I found in the 1850 Lauderdale Ala Census. I think he might be the John Pettypool earlier in Maury Co Tenn living close to a William Pettypool who seemed to be b-a 1770 to 1775. This could be father & son and I am guessing this William was from Virginia but he must have been dead by 1850.

"Randolph Co Ga. Lot 395-15-1 Cherokee pers app'd William P.Pool orphan of William Pool deceased to claim lot 395-15-1. Signed William P. Pool (or P.Pool?) before Zackariah Dardin JP 15 June 1843"

In a Virginia book at the library it shows certain names that authors have written about and under the name Pettypool I found "Tucker-Pettipool Family. 9 Negative Phostastic prints & Xeros Prints 1765-1980 (29398)"...This sound like data that would probably have been about Seth Pettypool & wife Ann Tucker of Dinwiddie Co and it is probably information of Henrilee Eastham McCutcheon of Long Beach Calif who furhished me information which I will soon send to you including Dr Joseph Bell Tarpley's letter of 1875. Seth & Anns 1st child was born 1765 as shown in this data. Then I saw that Ena MacQueen has a book "Some leaves, Twigs & Brances of our Family" Sweetwater Tex 1964 showing Virginia families: MacQueen, Penick & Pettypool. (I wrote this lady not long ago) She could not help me much and said she descended from one of the brothers that settled for awhile in Hill Co Texas which would either be Joseph Tucker P'Pool or Robert lafayette P'Pool who were both sons of Armstead P'Pool who was bn 1794 & was son of Seth & Lucretia (Winfield) P.Pool and who moved to Wilson Co Tenn & Calloway Co, Ky.....There was shown thaa there was a book on "The Woltz Family" Flora Lee Woltz. San Francisco 1939 125 (2-1034) (13)P Five or more people of Various familys including P'Pool. Reported in 20 VG 71(this must mean Virginia Genealogist #71), noting this volume traces the descendants of Dr Peter Woltz Jr (1746-1808....Carolyn would your library have anything on this Woltz family xxxxxx book or booklet that has a lot of different names including P'Pools.

sk about this

What really interested me at the library in this Virginia book is that a B. D. Pettypool is evidently a descendant of William Pettypool & wife Frances of Bristol Parish, Richmond Vir and has authored a book or booklet and looks like it might be 58 pages and this Virginea Genealogist Vol 2 book shows that"Photocopy of Typescript 4to" whatever that means...anyway I suppose it means that someone has photo copys of this. The library tried to find who had this and if it coulb be loaned but no luck. They told me I better write to the Virginia Library and gave me their address which I have somewhere. I want to write them in a few days to see if I can pay them to send me copyos of this oo if they will make me copys. The Librrary says this is a rare book. I am really interested in this. The library said that I might have trouble in gettin copys of this. If you would want to write about this too, feel free to do so.

I wrote to at least 20 people by the name of Harrison at Berkeley, Calif some time ago & made about 20 more copys to mail to people at Oakland & San Fran but then I found something that I had copied from a Rolla, Mo paper saying that Carroll Harrison had left Calif in 1913 moving to Balboa, Panana Canal where he had a Govt position I think. From the Missouri census of 1900 I think his mother Jenny Harrison only had the one son Jenny Harrison plus one daughter. I wonder why she lived so long in Oakland & Berkeley unless her daughter also lived there and I have seen nothing saying she did. I am going to order some more Rolla papers when I can but am Not sure I will find something. But I might find something telling me where the people named Long went to that had a tie to Joseph Pool at Rolla. And I want to write the Co Clerk at Rolla about the Long family.

I finally found a man at Tulsa, Ok that descends from ~~Harri~~ Benj Harrison at Rolla who years ago settle at Arlington (near Rolla) and was a brother to Thomas Carroll Harrison. But he could not help on the descendants of Thomas Harrison who I am working on. He was really glad to hear from me and knew quite a bit about his old ancestors that came to Mo from SC named Harrison. His g-mother was raised at Rolla. I would have like to find Harrisoh people at Balboa or a Gen or Hist Soc there but the library could not fine one there. Do you know if there is such a Soc there. I sent for a death Notice on Julia Poole & her son Frank Poole from Sac Calif but they sent me a form to fill out and said I did not send enough money as the charge is $5.00 then extra for anything over 10 yrs. That has been some time ago and I have been so busy that I have not done this but plan to soon. But possibly Frank & his mother Julia both left Calif. I have been so busy lately & I owe a bunch of letters.

I am afraid this long helter-skelter letter may not be of much help to you as the data may not be useful data. But at least some things I am sure will be of interest to you. Some things will just create puzzles & speculation. I sure do know how to speculate & some of it I am sure is wrong and I am sure my letter has mistakes. Anyway you will have something more to work on or some things of mine that you may wish to correct. I have written this a little at a time. I want to make a copy of it before mailing to you so I can refer back to it as my files are a mess. When you get time lete me know what you think about some things I have written about. But there is no hurry. I know that your work & job comes first. Again I am sorry about answering so late. By now you may have found some of the things I mentioned here and possibly something else too, that you can later share with me. It will probably be a month before I can go thru my files to see what I need to copy & mail to you all the same time. By that time or before I will be back home as I have to ~~got~~ go to Seymour in the next 2 days and stay with my mother, and give my sister some relief. I have to make copys when I am at home when I can do this at Springfield. But I think I have already discussed most of what will be in this data and so it will not be anything great or outstanding or not much new to you but the material that Clayton Willis sent is very interesting & informing. ~~I want~~

I want to keep on researching but it may be hard to learn a lot more. I will be looking forward to hearing from you, when you have plenty of time to write so don't crowd yourself. If you & husband ever go to S. E. Mo you would come thru Springfield. We live about 10 miles north of Springfield so if you are this way call us on a Springfield number 833-0991 & we can guide you to our house. Tho I am at Seymour much of the time. You might llet your friend at Durham NC know that a lady named Carol Smith, 6722 Irongate St, Bahama NC 27503 descends from a Geo W. P.Pool who settled in Person Co NC and this man mentioned in the Dr P'Pool book, but they probably know each other. Thanks for shareing so many new things in your last letter and let me know if I can by chance be of help. Sincerely..Russell Pool, R 2 Box 210, Fair Grove, Mo 65648

Russell Pool

PS I can see why you questioned about Edward Ragsdale making the deed of gift in Lunenburg Co in 1773 to Edward & Patty Pettypool being the older Edward Ragsdale (father of Martha Ragsdale who married Seth Pettypool b 1702). I think it was probably a younger Edward Ragsdale, possibly his son.

Margaret Halliburton was named as the daughter of David Halliburton in a letter written by Margaret Winifred Haliburton in which she stated: "My grandmother, Margaret Meroney Haliburton, knew them all."[703] She was writing about the names of David Halliburton, Sr.'s children and the stories her grandmother had told her.

David Halliburton, Sr., wrote his will January 3, 1767 and stated: "I expect my wife is now with child."[704] This child, the last of David Halliburton, Sr., was born in 1767.

Halliburton researchers have written that Margaret Halliburton married Capt. Stephen Pettypool. Charles A. Drinkard, who collected information for a Halliburton genealogy in 1946, outlined the ancestry of John William Halliburton, no. 1990, in which he shows Margaret Halliburton married a Mr. Pool. Another researcher wrote that Margaret, born shortly after David Halliburton's death, married a Capt. Pool.[705] In a letter dated February 21, 1957 Gulnare McGuire wrote that a descendant of Margaret Halliburton, daughter of David Halliburton, had visited her and she stated Margaret Halliburton married Stephen Pettypool.[706]

That Stephen Pettypool's wife was named Margaret is proved by his will dated July 22, 1837 in which he wrote: "I give to my beloved wife Margaret Pool my two black men."[707] The surnames Pettypool, P. Pool, and Pool are used interchangeably within the same document.

Agnes Pettypool married Samuel Jolly and their Family Bible with Family Records is extant. The entries are recorded in four distinct handwritings and the marriage of Agnes Pettypool and Samuel Jolly was recorded as March 12, 1812. Only six dates preceded this 1812 entry timewise. They are as follows:

Jolly Family Bible
Births

Nelson Jolly was born ________ 1741
Mary Jolly was Born ________ 1741
Stephen P. Pool was born May 12th 1763
Margaret Pool was born May 12, 1759
Samuel Jolly was born February 20th 1779
Agness Jolly was born May 13th 1791

It is interesting to note that Stephen and his wife Margaret shared the same birthday, May 12th. Her year of birth was recorded in the Bible as four years older than Stephen. According to her father's will Margaret would have been born in 1767, which would make her four years younger than Stephen.

Shortly after the Revolutionary War, Stephen and Margaret Pettypool settled in Granville County, North Carolina, in or near the Hillsboro District. Census records show some of their children were born in Virginia. Before 1803 they migrated to Breckinridge County, Kentucky.

GIBSON COUNTY

unti[illegible]ather's death in 1843. He was a Whig and farmer, and the father of ten c[illegible] dre[illegible]t of whom lived to be grown. After his death, the mother and children move[illegible] Arkansas, where she died in 1855. John A. Grayson was born in Marion County, Tenn., October 23, 1832. His school days only amounted to about ten months, but he afterward acquired a fair education in the business affairs of life. He hired out by the month at the age of sixteen and gradually rose, until he finally began merchandising, which he carried on three years. He was book-keeper in a large store about three years, and in 1861 joined Company E, First Arkansas Mounted Riflemen (Churchill), and after serving one year in that regiment, was transferred to the Thirteenth Arkansas Infantry, and was elected first lieutenant. After the consolidation of the Thirteenth and Fifteenth Regiments he was made quartermaster and filled the position until the cessation of hostilities. He is the present owner of 100 acres of good land, which he has made by his own exertions. He is a Democrat and held the position of magistrate one year. In 1864 he married Avey R. Altman, born in Madison County December 12, 1844. To them were born nine children, seven of whom are living. Husband and wife and oldest son belong to the Christian Church. The oldest daughter is a Missionary Baptist.

Joseph W. Grier, M. D., a well known and successful physician of Gibson County, Tenn., was born in 1852, and is a son of Jacob and Elizabeth (Wyatt) Grier, who were born in Tennessee. Dr. Joseph Grier spent his early days on a farm and received his education in the common schools. He was an industrious "tiller of the soil" until 1880, when he began the study of medicine with Dr. A. W. Stephenson, of Gibson County, as his preceptor. In 1883 he attended the Memphis Medical College, and since 1884 has been a successful practitioner. At the latter date his marriage with Mattie Oliphant was celebrated. She is a daughter of Jack and Sallie Oliphant, of Gibson County, and she and the Doctor are church members. He is a Democrat in his political views and of English lineage.

Dau. of William^5 Son of William^4 Son of Seth^3

David Griffin, junior member of the firm of Wade & Griffin, manufacturers of staves, is a son of Hampton and Jane (Ezell) Griffin, who were born, reared and married in Virginia. They came to Tennessee in 1860 and located in Gibson County, where the father followed farming for a livelihood. He was a Democrat and was captain of a company of State militia. He died in 1879 and his wife in 1881. Our subject is one of their twelve children. He was born March 25, 1838, in Halifax County, Va. He was reared on a farm and his early education was sadly neglected. He assisted his parents on the farm until he attained his majority. He started in life a farmer, and in connection therewith has worked at the carpenter's and wagon-maker's trade. He managed a cotton-gin for about ten years and for two years has been engaged in the manufacture of staves. In 1859 he was united in marriage to Frances Pool, who bore him eight children, seven of whom are living. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin and three of the children are members of the Methodist Church. He is a Democrat in his political views and is the owner of ninety-six acres of land, and owns a half interest in the stave factory.

William B. Halliburton, farmer and stock raiser, was born in Gibson County, Tenn., January 18, 1837, and was reared on a farm in his native county. He has been an agriculturist from boyhood and settled on his present farm of ninety-five acres in 1872. Part of his land is in a fair state of cultivation and is devoted to the cultivation of corn, wheat, cotton and hay. He is regarded as a prosperous and industrious farmer, and a man of good moral character. During the late war he enlisted in the Forty-seventh Tennessee Regiment, Col. R. M. Hill commanding, and served until the close of the war. He is a Democrat and has held the office of magistrate in his district since 1881. In 1856 he and Mary Allen were married, and to their union nine children were born: David A., Susan E., Ellen R., B. S., Nannie A., Frances L., William S., Henry F. and Lou L. Mr. Halliburton's parents, David and Sarah (Shearl) Halliburton were Tennesseans by birth. Mrs. Halliburton is a daughter of David and Susan Allen, of Gibson County, Tenn. Our subject is a member of the Missionary Baptist Church.

Capt. Stephen H. Hale, postmaster of Milan, Tenn., and native of Gibson County, was born on the 17th of March, 1843, son of Eli W. and Martha (Jordan) Hale, who were born in North Carolina. William W. Hale, grandfather of o[illegible]bject, came to Tenn early in the present century, locating at Clarksville. La[illegible]e removed to Missis where he died. Eli W. Hale took up his abode in Gibson County, in 1840, living farm three miles southwest of Milan, where he followed agricultural pursuits an manufacture of wagons and hand cotton-gins until his death, in 1857. Stephen H.
was reared on a farm, and secured a liberal education, being a student in the Union versity at Murfreesboro, Tenn., when the war broke out. He immediately enliste non-commissioned officer, in Company I, Twelfth Regiment Tennessee Confederat fantry, and after the battle of Shiloh was promoted to lieutenant, and after Chickam to captain, serving thus until the surrender: Since that time he has farmed, and manages and owns his farm near Milan. In 1879 he removed to Milan, and was elected mayor of the city, serving faithfully five years. He has been a magistrate 1876, and May 12, 1885, was appointed postmaster of the town. He is a Democrat, warm advocate for the principles of his party. August 6, 1865, he married Emn Cunningham, of South Carolina, and raised near Milan, Tenn., and six children blessed their union: Leonadais P., Thomas S., Mattie E., Mary B., Ellen and Eli Capt. Hale is a Mason, and a member of the K. of P., K. of H. and K. & L. of H. and wife are members of the Baptist Church.

James K. P. Hale was born in Tennessee in 1837, and is one of nine children bo the marriage of Stephen Hale and Priscilla Goodloe, who were born in Tennesse North Carolina respectively. Mrs. Hale came to Middle Tennessee with her parents quite young. She married Mr. Hale, and they followed farming through life. They members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and he was a Democrat, and liv the farm at the time of his death, which occurred in 1876. His wife died three later. His parents were Bird and Nancy (Smith) Hale, natives of Virginia. They to Tennessee at an early day, locating in Washington County. James K. P. Hal subject, made his home with his parents until his father's death. In 1861 he enlist the Confederate service, Thirteenth Tennessee Regiment, under Col. John V. Wrigh served about twelve months, when he was taken sick and returned home, and di again enlist. In 1867 he married Eugenie E. Crockett, daughter of Archie and (Weathers) Crockett, who were born in North and South Carolina respectively, a d to Tennessee after their marriage. They were members of the Cumberland Presby Church, and were prosperous farmers. Mr. Crockett died in 1865, and his wife in Mrs. Hale was born in Obion County, Tenn., in 1844. Mr. Hale owns 284 acres o proved land, and 120 acres on Mud Creek bottom that is unimproved. He is a mem the Christian Church, a Republican, and belongs to the Agricultural Wheel and Ma fraternity. His wife belongs to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Smith B. Hamilton was born in 1837, and is a son of James and Peggy A. (Lan Hamilton, who were native Tennesseans. The father was a farmer and served as dier under Jackson. He supported a family of eleven children, and accumulated property. He was a Whig in politics, and lived in Dyer County until his death wife died in 1872. Our subject made his parents' house his home until their r deaths. In 1860 he married Adaline Parks, who was born in Gibson County, in 18 is the mother of one child, James G. She is a daughter of Robert and Jemima
Our subject resided on his farm of 97 acres in the Eighth District for some time, bu the land and purchased property in Rutherford, locating here in 1886. He still ov acres of improved land in the Eighth District. He, wife and son are members Cumberland Presbyterian Church. In July, 1886, he was elected mayor of the city is a Democrat, and in 1861 enlisted in the Forty-seventh Tennessee Regiment, Con ate States Army, and served until after the battle of Shiloh, when he returned hom

Milton B. Harris, M. D., was born in Madison County, Tenn., on the 3d of Se ber, 1835, son of Newton and Nancy (Spencer) Harris, and of English lineage. N
Harris was born in Rowan County, N. C. in 1802, and died in Crockett C Tenn., in 1883. His wife was born in the same State and in the same year a Catherine Sightler was born 12 March 1799 n Lexington District, South Carolina. She married Jacob Pool 20 Feb 1820. Their children were as follows.

(1) John William Pool born 23 June 1823, married Joannah Welch 14 Mar 1854, and died 18 Feb 1901. Their children were William Joseph (1855), James Meredith (1856), Christopher Columbus (1858), Aaron Burr (1860), Margiana Elizabeth (1862), and Nancy Catharine (1867). John William and Joannah Welch Pool are buried in Pool Cemetery in Montgomery County, Texas.

(2) Henry Joseph Pool born 30 June 1825 married Cebell Birdsong on 29 Mar 1860 in Walker County, Texas and died about 1897. They had children George Meredith (1861) who married Lutitia A. Myers 7 Feb 1884 Grimes County. George Meredith had children Jessie M. (1885), Elsebelle (1887), Joseph J. (1890), Charley B. (1902). After George Meredith came Viola S. (1864) who married John W. Brown 29 Oct 1884, Grimes County and had children Beulah (1887), Douglas (1890), Nora M. (1891), Bonham L. (1894), Delilah M. (1897), Vioian J. (1898), and Tolbert (1900). Next came Mary Lou (1867) who married Adrian D. Wilson 1 Nov 1883, Grimes County and had children Mentie Lee (1884), Irene (1886), and Floyd (1894). After Mary Lou came Salone C. (1869) who married Samuel Plummer 12 Apr 1895 and had children Joe and Sam, possibly others. Next, Joseph Bonham (1873) married Nettie Martin and had at least three daughters. Henry Joseph's last child was Aaron Americus (1875). Cebell died when he was born.

(3) Mary Ann Pool born 30 Aug 1829, married Joshua A. Hoot 12 Apr 1849. They had children Joseph M. (1850), Aaron B. (1851), Albert Gee (1853), Cleopetra (1855), George W. (1857), Joshua A. (1860), and Ella L.(1869). Many of these are buried in Evergreen Cemetery, San Jacinto County.

(4) George Washington Pool born 14 July 1830, married Lydia Pursley 2 Aug 1866. They had children Mary Catharine (1867), Annie Black Cebelle (1870), Jane Gray (1872), Oliver Cromwell (1872), Cora Bunvista (1876), Lidia Washington (1882), Nancia Lavina (1885), Dorah Hirance (1886), George Robinson (1889), and Rubie Leona (1893). George Washington and Lydia Pursley Pool are buried in Boswell Cemetery.

(5) Marida Anies Pool born 30 Oct 1832 died or left Walker County by 1860.

(6) Martha Elizabeth Pool born 7 Apr 1837, married William F. Ellisor 13 Mar 1856 and had children Harriett Alice (1857), Thomas Carothers (1858), Isaah Hardaway (1860), Louise Clementine (1861), William Macksey (1864), Lucinda Ann (1866), James Franklin (1869), Martha Elizabeth (1871), Albert [illegible]ne (1875), and Susan Delila (1877). Most of this family are buried in Old Pine Valley Cemetery.

Jacob Pool died before 1850 when Catharine Pool and children were listed on the Polk County, Texas census. In 1840 Jacob Pool and family were in Montgomery County, Alabama and in 1830 they were still in Lexington County, South Carolina. Also listed in the same county was William Pool, father of Jacob. He was born about 1760 and died after 25 Feb 1852. He had children Joseph Henry (1791), Jacob (1792-1800), Frederick Abram (1804), Mary L. (?), Catherine (1816), Martha (1820), and Jane S.A. (1829).

Catherine Sightler's father was probably Henry Sightler who was listed on the 1800, 1820, and 1830 census of Lexington County, South Carolina.

Catherine Sightler Pool died after 1880 when she was listed on the census of San Jacinto County in the home of Martha E. Pool and William F. Ellisor. She gave her age as 81 and said she was born in SC. She is buried in Old Pine Valley Cemetery.

PORTER FAMILY HISTORY

Joseph Brock and Sarah Jane (Boren) Porter settled in the city of Danville, Montgomery Co. Texas in 1873. They left Jackson County Mississippi in 1873 with two sons Tiefton Carlton and Isiah Franklin. Tiefton was four years old and Isiah was almost two years of age. During the journey by covered wagon, little Isiah became ill and died while crossing the Mississippi River where he was buried in an unmarked grave. The family traveled with the William Porter family; William was a brother to Joseph. William traveled farther than Joseph and the two never heard of one another after they parted in Montgomery Co. Tiefton often talked about his Uncle William and wondered what had happened to him. They had imagined that he might have been killed by Indians and were concerned about his welfare. Ironically he had settled in Houston County, Texas, but the family of Joseph Brock did not know. In 1975 Elna Porter Dana discovered this information while reading the 1880 Houston Co. census; after hearing stories related by Tiefton (her father) she was filled with shock and an overwhelming desire to turn back the clock so the two families could share a feeling of comfort. This points to the hardships of our forefathers and especially depicts the communication and transportation problems of our ancestors.

Joseph Brock Porter was born in Port Gibson, Claiborne Co. Miss. 16 Feb. 1842. He was the son of John H. and Charlotte A (Clarke) Porter. John H. Porter died when Joseph was six leaving five children and another on the way. Tiefton Porter has recalled stories of his father, and an older brother working to clear land and planting crops when he was six years of age. The boys could recall working all day with a biscuit and a piece of bacon for their lunch. Charlotte A. was a strong woman and raised the boys and one daughter. Charlotte was a great niece of General Elijah Clarke of Georgia.

The family of Joseph Porter lived in Montgomery County until the latter part of the 1880's. The parcel of land that the Porter family settled on was to become entangled with another family and was later taken to court. Tiefton Porter and Willie Clarke attended school in the Danville area. Tiefton completed seven years of schooling offered by the school at Danville.

Joseph Porter was a farmer and a music teacher. He was the music director for t Baptist Church. The family moved to S Jacinto County. Tiefton married #1 Sar Ollie Hues of Shepherd, Texas. They had eig children; Bruce Everett Porter, Beatrice Port Smith, Joseph Wesley Porter, Ernest Ray Pc ter, Murtis Bell Porter, Ellen Porter Smit Archie McQuay Porter and Nathan Ward Pc ter. Tiefton Porter married #2 Verna M Ashworth; they had one daughter Elna Ru (Porter) Dana Ross. Willie Clarke Porter ma ried #1 Walter L. Wakefield and had two ch dren: Bertha Make Wakefield Blair and Jo Brock Wakefield. She married #2 Edwa Alexander Martin and had one daughter Ro bie Dee (Martin) Long.

At this writing fourteen descendants a residents of Montgomery County: Judy Lou (Dana) Kuta, Melinda Marie Kuta, Melissa A Kuta, Verna LaRue (Dana) Thompso Jonathan Stephen Thompson, Jason Robe Thompson, Suzanne Alayne Thompson, Ma Elizabeth Thompson, Seth Russell Thompso Dolph Carlton Dana, Don Carl Dana, Aaron L Dana, Tiefton Carlton Dana, and Amber Alis Dana.

ary Baptist church. Their family comprised nine children, of whom five came to Texas, two of the five now being residents of Oklahoma, namely: John, of Oklahoma; Joel, middle Tennessee; Frederick, deceased; Huida, wife of R. L. Stanly, Tennessee; Mary, wife of Thomas Clippo, is deceased; Lovey J., wife of F. Carvery; Sarah, wife of John Moore, Oklahoma; Kiddie, wife of Mr. Stigler; and James C., Grayson county, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Stigler have had ten children sent to bless their home, eight of whom are yet living, viz.: Molly A., wife of John Haley; James Earl, a school-teacher by profession; and the others, all at home, are John C., Myrtle M., Nora B., Malla Floyd, Lonnie and Harvey.

Both our subject and his wife are stanch members of the Christian church. For years he has figured prominently in local political circles. He was a Democrat until 1882, when he severed his connection with the old party. The third party then received his support and he has been loyal to it ever since, serving as delegate to its conventions, district and state. He had the honor of helping to nominate Mr. Nugent for governor of Texas. Mr. Stigler himself has frequently been solicited to run for office, but thus far has not shown any desire for official preference and has declined all such honors.

THOMAS CRAIK PIERSON.—This prosperous and intelligent farmer, living on the old Pierson homestead in Hamilton county, which is pleasantly situated on the Leon river, was born on the 21st of December, 1854, and is the son of J. H. Pierson, whose sketch appears elsewhere in this work. On attaining man's estate he was married, October 26, 1876, the lady of his choice being Miss Lacy Genevra Smith, who was born in Bell county, Texas, January 29, 1857, of which county her parents, Gabriel and Lucinda (Pool) Smith, were among the early settlers. Six children blessed this union, namely: Johnnie Emma, born April 16, 1878; Stella May, February 24, 1880; Thomas Craik, January 17, 1882; Maggie Bell, November 23, 1884; Lelia Pool, who was born March 6, 1889, and died on the 4th of June following; and Ocran Warren, born February 23, 1893.

Mr. Pierson is one of the most substantial men of the community, having a fine farm, well improved, and supplied with all modern conveniences. He met with a painful accident, which resulted in the loss of part of one foot, but although somewhat handicapped on this account still gives his personal attention to the management of his farm. A stalwart Democrat, he served as clerk of Hamilton county from 1882 until 1886, and was deputy sheriff under G. W. Gentry from 1878 until 1882. He was reared in the Methodist church, and since 1881 has been connected with Rock House Lodge, F. & A. M., in which he has taken three degrees. Mr. Pierson enjoys the confidence and regard of all who know him; and as an enterprising, progressive farmer, with ideas of his own, he has no superior in Hamilton county.

ABNER CARROLL WOMACK, whose pleasant rural residence is adjacent to the town of Morgan, Bosque county, and who has maintained his residence on this farm fine physique, weighing one hundred and ninety pounds, and in his manner is genial and frank, reliable and honorable, so that he has many friends and is a favorite with all.

JOHN HOGUE PIERSON, one of the honored pioneers of Texas, who bore a prominent part in the development of the sections of the state in which he lived, was born April 17, 1817, in Morganfield, Union county, Kentucky, and came from an old southern family of Scotch-English origin. His great-grandfather, Robert Pierson, was born in England, and with his family and brother, John Pierson, Sr., and family, crossed the Atlantic to America in 1774, settling at Fort Cumberland, in Maryland. He and his people were connected with the Presbyterian church, and the family has furnished several preachers to that denomination. The paternal grandfather of our subject, John Pierson, Jr., was born in England, and when the yoke of British oppression became unbearable he joined Captain Richard Dorsey's company of the First Battalion of Artillery, Continental troops, commanded by Colonel Charles Harrison, in the Revolutionary war. This company was assigned to Colonel Harrison's regiment by order of General Washington, May 30, 1778. The regiment was subsequently assigned to the state of Virginia under the act of Congress of October 3, 1780. Soon after the close of the Revolutionary war he settled in Kentucky, where he married Miss Elizabeth Goodloe, whose mother belonged to the Warren family. She was a lady of superior education, and was prominent in social circles. Their children were John Goodloe Warren, father of our subject; Hosea Allmary, James Tilman, Willie and Benjamin Hogue. The maternal grandfather of our subject, Isaac Pennington, was of French descent, and it was his daughter Purity who became the mother of the gentleman whose name introduces this review. John Pierson, Jr., died about 1840.

John Goodloe Warren Pierson at an early day left Kentucky, and with his family, consisting of his wife and three children, and accompanied by his brother, James Tilman, journeyed across the country to the Red river. He then proceeded up that stream for some distance, and from that year — 1824 — was prominently identified with the development of the state, which, however, at that time was under the rule of Mexico. He first joined Austin's colony, and later settled in the Nashville colony, Sterling C. Robertson, empresario, and he surveyor general. He was captain of a company under General Somervell in the campaign of 1842, to the Rio Grande. He was [illegible]ptured at Mier, Mexico, December 26, 1842. Under an order of General Santa Anna that every tenth man be shot, and the victims to be those who drew black beans, he was the third to draw and was the first to get a white. Captains Eastland and Cameron, who drew before him, drew black beans.

By his first wife he had three children, — Emeline, who became the wife of Johnathan C. Pool, now deceased; John Hogue, of this review; and Isaac, who died unmarried at the age of twenty years. After the death of his first wife Mr. Pierson married Elizabeth Montgomery and they had three children: William M., Andrew V. B., and Elizabeth, wife of Etheldred Tarver. The third farming and stock-raising is meeting with that success which his earnest efforts merit.

Mr. Musick was married November 29, 1850, to Miss Jane Merrell, a native of Lincoln county, Tennessee, and a daughter of Benjamin Merrell, who settled in Louisiana when Mrs. Musick was a girl of twelve years. They have had six children, four of whom are still living: Henry, a farmer of Hood county; Malissa, wife of N. C. Addison, of this county; Sarah Ann, wife of Jonathan Brown, of Hill county; and J. A., of this county.

Politically, Mr. Musick affiliates with the People's party. He is a man of broad views and keeps himself well posted on the issues of the day, and especially is he well informed on all matters pertaining to the interest of the farmer. For years he has maintained a membership in the Farmers' Alliance. Mrs. Musick is a member of the Missionary Baptist church.

HENRY MUSICK.—In the subject of this resume is found a self-made man and one of the prominent and enterprising farmers of Hood county, Texas.

Mr. Musick is a native of Louisiana, born October 1, 1853, second son of Austin Musick, honorable mention of whom is made on another page of this work. In his infancy he was brought by his parents to the "Lone Star state," their settlement being in Jasper county. Leaving Jasper county in 1867 they moved to Hill county. He remained at the parental home until he arrived at the age of twenty-six years, after which he came to Hood county, that being in 1878. Here, on the Kickapoo creek, he purchased a small farm. His well-directed and honest toil was attended with success as the years passed by, and in 1883 he made another land purchase, this time two hundred acres of wild land, covered with a heavy growth of timber. To-day he has a fine tract of land, three hundred acres in extent, one hundred and twenty-five acres of which are under cultivation; has good improvements upon his land and is comfortably and pleasantly situated.

Mr. Musick was married July 26, 1877, to Miss Eliza Burkett, a native of Mississippi and a daughter of George Washington Burkett, of Jasper county, Mississippi. Their union has been blessed in the birth of nine children, one dying in infancy and the others being named as follows: John A., James R., Elizabeth J., Mary Eliza, Henry J., Martha I., Sarah L. and Joseph Mc.

Fraternally, Mr. Musick is both a Mason and an Odd Fellow, and maintains a membership in Charity Lodge, No. 565, A. F. & A. M., and Lipan Lodge, No. 298, I. O. O. F. Politically, he does not adhere to any of the numerous parties but is independent in his views and casts his vote for the man and the measure rather than the party. Both he and his wife are members of the Baptist church.

THOMAS M. POOL, one of Bosque county's prominent and extensive stock-raisers and landowners, resides six miles southeast of the city of Clifton. He is the owner of two thousand three hundred and sixty-five acres of valuable farming land, four hundred and fifty of which are under a high state of cultivation. Upon his place is a fine orchard, but he devotes a large portion of his land to grazing, as he handles large numbers of cattle, sheep and hogs.

Mr. Pool is a native of Milam county, Texas, the date of his birth being March 16, 1849, and is a son of John C. and Caroline (Lane) Pool. He is the youngest of three children, and was about seven years of age when brought to Bosque county, where he was reared by his parental uncle, Judge L. H. Stretchfield, who is probably one of the oldest living pioneers in this section of the state.

On reaching his majority, Mr. Pool started out in life for himself, and has been very successful as a farmer and stock dealer. His excellent business tact, coupled with his industry, enterprise and good management, are the only architects of his substantial and handsome fortune. On the 23d of December, 1873, he was united in marriage with Miss Millie Cutbirth, a native of Texas and a daughter of Elijah Cutbirth, one of the old and respected pioneers of the state, who passed away in 1877. Her father was born in Tennessee, but the birth of seven of his ten children occurred in the Lone Star state. Mr. and Mrs. Pool have become the parents of ten children, four now deceased, namely: John C., who died February 10, 1890; Lowry T., who died September 20, 1877; Lillian P., who died December 9, 1879; and a son, who died in infancy. Those living are George R., William C., Herbert M., Tessie, Mary P. and Iva.

Mr. Pool has been prominently identified with political circles, being a stanch and substantial Democrat of the old school. In 1886 and 1887 he served as county commissioner and has also been a member of the school board for many years, being at present a member of the board for district No. 23. He has always taken a very active part in educational matters, and gives his support to every worthy enterprise for the good of the community. Fraternally, he is associated with the Masonic order, holding his membership in Meridian Chapter, R. A. M.

FRITZ BERTRAND, Clifton, Bosque county, Texas, is the name of one of those thrifty, pushing and energetic German-American farmers who have done so much for the improvement of Texas. Mr. Bertrand himself is a native of the Lone Star state, but his parents were born in Germany, and he retains many of the best characteristics of his parental race. Our subject was born at Galveston, January 13, 1849, and is the oldest of a family of two children born to Michael and Helena (Crouse) Bertrand. His father came to America in the early '30s, located in Texas, and served creditably in the Mexican war.

Mr. Bertrand, our subject, was set to learn the carpenter's trade, which he did; but it was in his nature to get near the soil, and for many years he has been identified with farming pursuits. During the war he was located in Colorado county, and for a series of years was engaged in teaming to Mexico. Some eight years ago he came into Bosque county, located three miles north of Clifton, and now resides on a magnificent farm of four hundred and eighty-one acres, which is managed with something like old-world thrift and industry. He keeps eighty acres under active cultivation, and has an acre or more devoted to various kinds of fruit trees,—peach, plum and pear,—making a fine family orchard. He is an enthusiastic stockman, and his farm cattle office of constable in 1890. His political views are Democratic, and he may always be found identified with the progressive element of that party. Socially he affiliates with Meridian Lodge, No. 205, I. O. O. F.

At Brazos Point, on the 17th of September, 1879, Mr. Womack was united in marriage with Mrs. E. J. Walls, nee Howell, who had one daughter by her former union, —Mary T. Walls. The children of the last marriage are six in number, namely: Ida May, Sophronia Anna, Frances Elizabeth, Laura Lucile, Jewel Maude and Ruby Lumpkin.

WALTER COLQUITE WILLIAMS.—The gentleman with whose name we introduce this sketch, and who is familiarly known as "Tobe" Williams, is classed with the retired farmers of Dublin, Texas. Texas has been his home for more than a quarter of a century, and as one of its representative citizens his life history is appropriate in a work of this character.

Mr. Williams is a native of the "Bayou state." He was born in La Fayette county, Mississippi, January 21, 1844, son of Thomas and Mary (Patton) Williams. There his childhood and youth were passed. At the time the great civil war cloud gathered and burst upon the country he had not yet emerged from his 'teens, but young as he was he was among the first to don the gray and go out in the interest of the southern cause. It was at Oxford, Mississippi, in May, 1861, that he enlisted as a member of Company E, Nineteenth Mississippi regiment, commanded by Dr. John Smith. This regiment left Oxford on the twenty-seventh of the same month and went to the front. Young Williams remained in active service throughout the war, on several occasions was slightly wounded by spent balls, escaping, however, all serious injury, and at the time of Lee's surrender was at home on furlough.

At the close of the war Mr. Williams engaged in farming at his old home in Mississippi, was thus occupied there for three years, and then sought a new field of action, coming thence to Texas and landing in Galveston in January, 1870. From there he came to Calvert,—the terminus of the railroad at that time,—crossed the river to Milam county and rented land of William Poole. After two years spent in Milam county he came to the county of Erath and located on the Bosque river, at the mouth of Green's creek, where he bought three hundred and twenty acres of land. Four years later he sold this property to W. C. Bishop, and moved to the farm he has since owned, one hundred and sixty acres on Cottonwood creek, three miles east of Dublin. He maintained a residence on his farm until September, 1891, when he removed to Dublin in order that he might keep his children at home and at the same time afford them educational and business advantages; and while living in town and practically retired, he still has a personal supervision over his farming operations.

Mr. Williams was married May 1, 1866, to Miss Sarah Kathlene Higginbotham, who was born in Mississippi, December 18, 1846, and died April 20, 1895. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of John James and Lucy Ann (Taylor) Higginbotham, and the eldest of their large family of children, the names of her brothers and sisters being as follows: Bolivar Taylor; Martha Virginia, deceased wife of Frank Oldham; John Willis; Mary being confined principally to the States of Kentucky and Tennessee, in both of which he erected many fine bridges. Prior to engaging with the above company he followed merchandising in Bewleyville Village for two years, disposing of his interest there in 1872. He purchased his present beautiful farm, four miles from Bewleyville, in 1878, and by a judicious expenditure of money he made it one of the finest farms in Breckinridge County. The buildings erected under his skillful supervision are models of neatness and comfort in every respect, while the farm, consisting of 450 acres of the finest "barren" land, is furnished with all the modern agricultural appliances. In addition to his farming and stock raising interests, Mr. Bennett is engaged in the tobacco business with his brother, Alonzo Bennett, and they yearly handle from 125,000 to 225,000 pounds of the staple. Mr. Bennett is justly considered one of Breckinridge's leading citizens, and is a true type of the hospitable Kentucky gentleman. He is a Democrat in politics, belongs to the Masonic and Odd Fellow lodges, and since 1882 has been identified with the Methodist Episcopal Church South. He married, March 30, 1871, Miss Kate M. Lewis, daughter of Thomas J. and Eliza (Owen) Lewis, of Breckinridge County. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett are the parents of three children: Guy, born July 11, 1874, died December 8, 1878; Beulah, born February 4, 1877, and Earl L., born October 13, 1880.

JUDGE MILTON BOARD was born in Breckinridge County, November 20, 1829, and is a son of Robert and Lydia (Board) Board, the former a son of Jefferson Board, and the latter a daughter of Nehemiah Board. Nehemiah Board was a son of James Board, who was one of the earliest settlers of Breckinridge County, locating four miles south of Hardinsburg, where he died at an advanced age. Nehemiah Board came to Kentucky with his father when quite young, and passed the remainder of his life in this county, dying about 1835. He was a man of considerable prominence, and represented the county in the Legislature. His wife was Mary Stith, a daughter of Capt. Joseph Stith, a soldier of the Revolutionary war and the war of 1812. Robert Board (father of subject), was a native of Bedford County, Va., and came to Kentucky in 1828. He was a wealthy farmer, and died in 1859, aged fifty-nine years. His wife, Lydia Board, was born in this county, and died about 1848, at the age of forty-five years. They had nine children, viz.: Willison (deceased), Milton (subject), Catherine, Jefferson (deceased) Jesse (deceased), Amelia, Henry C., James W. (deceased) and Charles A. Milton Board, the subject of this sketch, was reared on a farm. His educational facilities were limited to an attendance at the country schools until nearly grown, when he received instructions from a private tutor, John Clark, to whom he feels indebted for most of his success in life. By devoting his leisure hours to reading and study he succeeded in obtaining a large fund of useful knowledge. He commenced life for himself as a farmer, and purchased a farm in what is known as Duncan's Valley, where he lived for eleven years. In 1854 he was elected sheriff of Breckinridge County, and was re-elected in 1856. After his second term expired, Cincinnatus-like he returned to the farm, where he remained until 1866, when he was elected judge of the Breckinridge County Court. He served one term, and in 1870 was elected county school commissioner, holding the office four years, when, in 1874, he was again elected county judge. After serving out his term he was again elected county school commissioner, and held the office until 1882, making an official career of twenty-two years. He began the study of law while serving in his different official capacities, and was admitted to the bar in 1866. He has practiced in the courts of Breckinridge and adjoining counties, and at this time (1886) is the Democratic candidate for county attorney. He is a man of more than ordinary ability, is a forcible and even eloquent speaker, and wields great influence over a jury. He was married, May 6, 1847, to Margaret Pool, daughter of William and Jane (Brown) Pool, of this county. They had six children, as follows: William E., Lydia (wife of Dr. Randolph Frimire), Marcus L., Jefferson, Albert G. and Mary (deceased). His wife died, and some years later he married Susan L., daughter of James V. and Nancy (Berryman) Moorman, of Virginia. Three children have been born to this union: Robert V., Milton, and Catherine J. Judge Board is a Mason, a Methodist, a Democrat, an exemplary citizen and an honest man. No higher eulogium can be passed upon any man.

AHMED BOARD is a native of Meade County, Ky., and is a son of Harrison L. and Matilda Board. His paternal ancestors were of German descent, and among the early comers to Virginia, several members of the family settling there in colonial times. Richard Board, his grandfather, moved from Virginia to Kentucky as early as 1804, and made a settlement near the village of Big the Legislature on the Whig (or as it was sometimes termed the Know-nothing) ticket, but was defeated by twenty votes out of about 3,300. He has, since 1844, been a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church, in which he is now an elder, and in politics is a Democrat.

JONATHAN READ was born January 5, 1826, in Barren (now Metcalfe) County, Ky., where he grew to manhood and has always resided. His father, Joseph Read, a native of Virginia, died in Barren County in the year 1855, at the age of sixty-two years. He married Millie, daughter of Harry and Margaret (Hansberry) McInteer, of Virginia, and from their union sprang Maria (Stark), Margaret (Stark), Anfield (deceased), Louisa (deceased), Joseph, Elizabeth (Barton), Jonathan, Nancy (Stark), James, Smith H. and Robert F. Jonathan has been postmaster for the past fifteen years. He has been called upon frequently to act as administrator of estates and guardian of minors. He was married first, December 31, 1857, to Almeda P., daughter of John B. and Frances (Burkes) Thompson, of Metcalfe County, born September 18, 1837, died in May, 1861, and to them was born Nannie I. (Anderson). His second marriage took place November 28, 1869, with Nancy J., daughter of Anderson and Elizabeth (Polston) Crenshaw, of Barren County, born January 19, 1845, and their offspring are Joseph A., Elizzee (deceased), Minnie and James A. Mr. Read has been compelled to rely upon his own efforts for success in business. In 1849 he commenced merchandising and horse trading, and was successful in his ventures, closing out in 1856. In 1868 he commenced general merchandising in Knob Lick, and has met with encouragement in his business. He also owns forty-four acres of productive land which he is having farmed. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and in politics is a Democrat. He lost five slaves by the late war.

HENRY C. REID, M. D., was born in Edmonton, Metcalfe Co., Ky., August 9, 1840, and is the fifth in a family of six children born to Thomas and Ann F. (Wren) Reid, the former a native of Madison and the latter of Barren County, Ky. They are of Irish and English descent and were born February 22, 1798, and July 4, 1805, respectively. When an infant, some two or three years old, Thomas Reid came with his parents to Barren (now Metcalfe) County, Ky. Soon after attaining his majority he engaged in flat-boating loads of tobacco down the rivers to New Orleans, usually accomplishing the return journey through the wilderness and on foot. Afterward he engaged in the carding-mill business, in connection with farming, continuing the same for some fifty years. For the past twelve or fifteen years he has lived a retired life. He and his wife were life-long and devoted members of the Old School Presbyterian Church, in which church he officiated as ruling elder for many years. He is also an earnest advocate of the temperance cause, having been a member of the old Washingtonian Society, the Sons of Temperance, the I. O. G. T. and others. His father, James Reid, was a native of Ireland, but when only a lad immigrated to the United States, settling in Virginia. Soon after his marriage he came to Barren County, Ky., where he was among the early pioneers. Mrs. Ann F. Reid departed this life in July, 1874. Her father, Isaac Wren, was born in Virginia in 1777, and was among the early pioneers of Barren County, Ky. Dr. Henry C. Reid received a good English and scientific education in youth at the common schools and academies of the country, and has very materially added to his early training by his own exertions since he became a man. He is a man of excellent general information, having been a diligent and careful reader all his life. From the time he was seventeen till he was twenty-five years old he was employed in his father's carding-mill. He was then employed as deputy county clerk of Metcalfe County and served in that capacity for two years, after which he engaged in the drug trade at Edmonton, continuing the same for some seven or eight years. In 1871 he commenced the study of medicine under the preceptorship of Dr. P. E. Sandidge, of Edmonton. He graduated with high honors from the medical department of the University of Louisville in March, 1875, since which time he has practised his profession with most abundant success at Edmonton, having secured a large and lucrative business, and is unquestionably one of the leading physicians and surgeons of the county. He first married, January 15, 1866, Eleanora R. Stockton, also a native of Edmonton, Metcalfe Co., Ky., born June 10, 1845, daughter of Joseph B., Sr., and Elina (Parrish) Stockton. Mrs. Reid's death occurred November 1, 1868. She was a devoted member of the Old School Presbyterian Church. The Doctor next married, April 25, 1883, Eudora M. Keel, a native of Bowling Green, Ky., born November, 1853. She is a daughter of James F. and Mary J. (Pool) Keel. She is a consistent member of the Old School Presbyterian Church. The Doctor belongs to no church, but is a house are first class. Mr. Phillips was married October 15, 1883, to Mrs. Frank Haffley, a native of Moulton, Ala., where she was born March 5, 1848. She was the fourth child of Jacob Odom, and was brought up at Tuscumbia, Ala.

HON. DAVID POOLE, Butler County, was born in Muhlenburgh County, Ky., May 12, 1835. His early life was passed amid the scenes and labors incident to farm life. He received a fair common school education, and at the age of twenty-one years engaged as a clerk in the dry goods house of H. B. Wiggins, of Rochester, Butler County, where he remained for three or four years. His next step was to join the Federal army. On the 12th of October, 1861, he enlisted in the Eleventh Regiment Kentucky Volunteers, and was commissioned second lieutenant of Company F, of that regiment. He was subsequently promoted to first lieutenant, and rose through merit to the rank of captain, in which rank he served until the 14th of December, 1864, when he received an honorable discharge. He then returned to his home in Rochester, where he engaged in the dry goods business, which he continued four years; then entered the drug and grocery trade, which he has followed successfully up to the present time (1885). On the 16th of October, 1866, Mr. Poole married Margaret B. Rhoads, of Muhlenburgh County, Ky. Mrs. Poole died April 14, 1883, leaving six children. In the year 1875 Mr. Poole's friends placed him in nomination for election to a seat in the legislature of Kentucky. With his opponent (Hon. J. Monroe Cook) he made a canvass of the counties of Edmonson and Butler, but in the election was defeated by two votes. He quietly submitted to his defeat, and again turned his attention to merchandising. In 1880 he was nominated for State senator for the Eighth Senatorial District of Kentucky, consisting of the counties of Muhlenburgh, Ohio and Butler. He received a unanimous nomination by the Republican party in his district, was elected by a majority of 480 votes, and has served two sessions in the general assembly of his State. Mr. Poole is a man of liberal views, and bears a good record as a public spirited citizen and as a man of strict business principles. In religious matters he is a liberal thinker, believing in honesty to his neighbors, charity to mankind and the sacred fulfillment of personal obligations. March 4, 1885, Mr. Poole married Miss M. Etna Prather. Her conduct toward the orphaned children of Mr. Poole's family is marked with firm rule and great kindness. She commands the love and esteem of all who know her. Mr. Poole's father, Joseph R. Poole, was of English descent and a native of Maryland, from which State he emigrated to Kentucky in 1825, and settled at Harlan Lake, in Union County, where he followed farming. His death occurred in 1847. He was married to Elizabeth Guiler in 1815. She died in 1855, aged fifty-four years.

PINKNEY POOLE, Butler County, was born at Harlan Lake, Union Co., Ky., March 11, 1824. He is a son of Joseph and Elizabeth (Guiler) Poole, who were married in 1815. Joseph Poole, in early life, manufactured salt, at Harlan Lake, and, in 1830, engaged in farming, which he followed until his death in 1847; his widow, a native of Virginia, died in 1855, aged fifty-four years. Pinkney Poole is the fourth in a family of eight children. He remained with his parents until 1847, and then engaged in flatboating, and trading in timber on Green River, for five years. In 1852, he made an overland trip to California, and there worked in the gold mines until 1856, when he returned to Kentucky, bought a farm of 100 acres in Muhlenburgh County, and farmed until 1865; then leased his farm and removed to Rochester, Butler County, and engaged in the tobacco trade, which he has followed successfully for twenty years. In the years 1865 and 1866 he sold dry goods, and in 1867 and 1868 sold drugs in connection with the tobacco trade; since that time he has given all of his attention to the tobacco business and tending his farm. In 1868, he married Sarah C., daughter of Henry Meyers, of Muhlenburgh County. They are the parents of eight children, five of whom are living: David H., Mary S., Napoleon B., Edward and Nancy. The eldest son has lately graduated from Eastman College, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Mr. Poole is a Republican, and takes an active interest in political questions. He has been very successful in business and is numbered among the "solid men" of Butler County.

CLARK T. PORTER, jailer and proprietor of the Farmers' House, Morgantown, was born on the Big Bend of the Green River, five miles north of Morgantown, May 22, 1822. There he was reared until the age of twelve, when his parents removed to the north bank of the Green River, near Wilson's Ferry, and later to the mouth of Indian Camp Creek. His first wife was Adeline Harrold, to whom he was married in 1844. The fruit of this union was three children: Mary Elizabeth, wife of Jasper C. Berry; Buena Vista, the Brother. Theirs was the first business house in that town. In 1875, he removed to Cromwell and went into the hotel and saloon business; afterward engaged in general merchandising, and was one of the leading dealers in that town. His store comprises general merchandise, furniture, agricultural implements, hardware, etc., etc. He is a young man of energy and ambition, and is doing a fine business in town and county. June 7, 1874, he married Annie Tilford, eldest daughter of W. G. Tilford, a leading citizen of Cromwell, and for many years a hotel keeper in that town. They have one daughter—Tomie, born in November 1876. J. W. Cooper moved from Cromwell, July 4, 1885, back to Beaver Dam, and is now engaged in the hotel business under the firm name of Beaver Dam Hotel Company.

JAMES R. COPPAGE was born March 9, 1833, in Green County, Ky., and is a son of Hardin and Sarah (Robinson) Coppage. The father was born and reared in Marion County, to which county his parents, James and Polly Coppage, had come while yet Kentucky was a part of Virginia. The block-house in which they lived. still stands, James R. Coppage was reared on a farm, and given all the advantages the times in that locality afforded. At twenty years of age he rented a farm for three years in Marion County; after making numerous moves throughout Kentucky, and living awhile in Indiana, he finally settled on his present farm, consisting of 150 acres, nearly all of which is under cultivation, and well improved. June 8, 1852, he was united in marriage with Sarah A. Thornton; they have eight children living. Mr. Coppage is a member of the A. F. & A. M., Hudsonville Lodge No. 262. Politically a Democrat, and with his wife a member of the Christian Church.

SAMUEL K. COX was born June 16, 1838, in Hawesville, Ky a son of Samuel K. and Caroline (Dav[illegible]n) Cox. The father, a steamboat man on the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, was a native of Virginia, and came to Kentucky with his parents. He was born in 1799, in Norfolk, Va., and died at Lewisport, Ky., in 1860. The parents were for many years members of the Methodist church. They had nine children, four now living: Mrs. Margaret A. Jarboe (widow), Mrs. Jennie F. Mosely (widow), Samuel K. and William T., a carpenter in Hartford. Our subject was reared in Hawesville, attended the schools of that place, and at the age of fifteen began supporting himself by clerking in a store at Hawesville, and was thus chiefly engaged until twenty years of age. He then accepted a position as clerk on a steamboat one season, and came to Hartford in 1860. He entered the county clerk's office as deputy, under R. S. Mosely, and after five months went to Morgantown, and was there deputy county clerk one year. In September, 1861, he enlisted in Company A, Seventeenth Kentucky Infantry, as private. In May, 1862, he was promoted by order of Gen. Nelson, to second lieutenant, and transferred to Company F, same regiment. In the spring of 1863 he was made first lieutenant, and assigned to company E. In March, 1864, he was made captain and put in command of the old Company A, and served until January, 1865, in all three years and four months, and never lost a day from his command. He participated in the battles of Ft. Donelson, Shiloh (both days) Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge, and in the Atlanta campaign. It was his regiment that brought on the fight at Franklin. After his return to Hartford he entered the county clerk's office as deputy in 1865, and served five years, when he was elected clerk. He was elected three times consecutively, and from 1870 to 1876 was master commissioner. In 1882, at the time of his expiration of office, he organized the Bank of Hartford, with Mr. McHenry, and took the position of cashier, which he still holds. April 20, 1870, he married Miss Irene Brotherton, of Owensboro, Ky., daughter of John and Rebecca Brotherton. They have four children living: Mary W., Ella W., Corinne and Samuel S. Mr. and Mrs. Cox are Methodists.

DR. LEONARD THOMAS COX was born May 3, 1843, near Cromwell, Ohio Co., Ky., where he was reared to manhood, and in 1870, located at Rosine, becoming the first merchant of the place. In 1861, he enlisted in Company H, Seventeenth Kentucky Infantry, and remained in the service until the regiment was mustered out at the end of three years and four months. His father Thomas J. Cox, was born in Ohio County, February 25, 1811, and is now living. He is the son of James Cox, a native of Maryland, and a Revolutionary soldier, who came to Ohio County in 1801, and died about 1840. Thomas J. married Marinda, daughter of William Leach, of Ohio County, born May 15, 1807, and died June 7, 1859, and their offspring are Mary E. (Pool), James W., Leonard T. and John B. (deceased). Dr. Cox was first married, December 24, 1865, to Emma E., daughter of Henry L. Iler, of Ohio County; she was born February 9, 1847, and died September 21, 1871, and to them consists of a fine tract of land, in a good state of cultivation, well timbered and watered, with a fine large residence, good barns and other buildings. Mr. Williams has met with marked success in all his undertakings, and commands the respect and esteem of the community. In 1881 he was elected to the lower house of the Kentucky legislature and for two years filled that position with honor and distinction, and was elected August 3, 1885, to a second term.

SAMUEL A. WILLIAMS was born April 21, 1854, this county, and is a son of Jeremiah and Cynthia A. (Morton) Williams. Subject improved the advantages of the district school and acquired a fair education. At twenty-two he left the farm, and engaged in business, opening a general store at McHenry's Station, continued four years, when he was burned out with a loss of $3,000, having no insurance. He immediately rebuilt on a more extensive scale, and ten months later sold out and after a short time with his brothers (in the hardware and grocery business), opened his present furniture establishment, occupying a store room (which he owns), of 40x80 feet, and is heavily stocked with all grades of furniture. Just north of his store is situated his large cottage residence. His wife was Miss Carrie Gibson, of Hartford. They were married May 28, 1879, and have two children: Owen and Bessie. The parents are Baptists.

THOMAS WILLIAMS was born October 29, 1832, in Ohio County, and is the second child in a family of nine children born to David and Rebecca (Downs) Williams. The father was born in the same county; was a successful farmer and a member of the Baptist Church; his father was Evans Williams, from Virginia. Thomas Williams' grandfather, Rev. Thomas Downs, was forty years pastor of the Owensboro and Greenbrier Churches. After becoming of age, Mr. Williams flat-boated to New Orleans for five years, and has since farmed with good success. He located in the woods; has cleared ninety acres, built a large, neat residence, set out an orchard and made many other lasting improvements. He owns over 200 acres of land. He was united in marriage, April 5, 1858, with Bettie Downs, daughter of William C. and Penelope (King) Downs. They have seven children. (Collins) James, of Princeton. One child has been born to this union, William James. Mr. and Mrs Orr are active members of the Presbyterian Church.

THOMAS G. PETTIT was born January 24, 1854, in Caldwell County, Ky., and is a son of Thomas G. and Mary (Gray) Pettit, both natives of the same county and State. Thomas Pettit, Sr., was one of the leading farmers of Caldwell County, and during his life, accumulated a large property. He served as sheriff a number of years and died in 1856 at the age of sixty years. Subject's mother died in 1858. Mr. and Mrs. Pettit reared a family of seven children, named as follows: John (deceased), Lydia (deceased), Eliza (deceased), Addie, Susie, George W. and Thomas G. Subject was bereft of his parents at an early age, and lived with the family of his brother, George Pettit. He received the elements of a fair education in the schools of Princeton, attending the college at that place several sessions, and on attaining his majority commenced farming on the place where he now lives, three miles from Princeton. This is one of the largest and best farms in the County, and Mr. Pettit enjoys the reputation of being one of the most successful stockmen in west Kentucky.

THOMAS PHELPS is the sixth in a family of eight children born to Neres and Martha Phelps, the former a native of Virginia and the latter of Tennessee. The family came to this county from Tennessee in 1858, and subject has lived here ever since. He has been twice married, first in 1873, to Elizabeth Lane, now deceased; she was the mother of two children: James E. and William Scott. In 1879 he married Mattie L. Lane, who was born in 1857, she has borne him two children: Lalar Bell and Other. Mr. Phelps is endeavoring to educate his children, and is surrounding them with all the agencies within his power. He is a farmer and owns 107 acres of fairly improved land. Politically he follows the teachings of his mother and votes the Republican ticket.

R. R. PICKERING, sheriff, was born April 17, 1850, in Caldwell County, Ky., and is a son of Thomas W. and Minerva (Cook) Pickering, both natives of the same county and State. M. A. Pickering, subject's grandfather, was born in Tennessee, and in an early day came to Kentucky, settling in Caldwell County, where he died in 1870, aged eighty-two years. Mrs. Pickering's father, James Cook, was a North Carolinaian by birth, and came to Kentucky when Mrs. Pickering was a child, locating in Caldwell County, where he died in 1855. Thomas W. Pickering was for many years one of the leading farmers and active business men of Caldwell County, having filled several official positions at different times. He died January 25, 1882, at the age of sixty-six years. Subject's mother died in 1878, at the age of sixty-six years. Mr. and Mrs. Pickering were the parents of eleven children, six of whom are living: John M., Martha (wife of Samuel Lapradd), M. A., Thomas W., R. R. (subject), and Minnie (wife of P. R. Hunter). R. R. Pickering was reared a farmer, which business he followed until 1875, when he was appointed deputy sheriff under his father, and later with F. J. Harris, serving as deputy about four years and eight months; he was elected to the office in 1882, and re-elected August 4, 1884. He is one of the most careful and painstaking sheriffs the county has ever had, and his popularity is attested by the fact that he received the unanimous vote of the county at his second election. On the 26th of November, 1879, he was united in marriage with Miss Lizzie M., daughter of J. N. and Elizabeth (Harker) Wiley, of Caldwell County. Mr. and Mrs. Pickering have had two children, both deceased; their names were Carrie and Gracie. Mr. Pickering is an active member of the Masonic fraternity, and has been a life-long Democrat.

DR. R. M. POOL was the seventh child born to Timothy B. and Mary (Brown) Pool; the former was born in Rowan County, N. C., in 1803, and died December 17, 1883. The latter was born in the same county in 1806, and died in 1862. The paternal grandparents came to Christian County in 1809, where they remained until 1853, and thence came to Caldwell County, Ky. The father of subject practiced medicine for forty-two years, and was one of the leading physicians of this region. R. M. Pool was born April 23, 1835, on a farm, where he lived until he was eighteen years of age, when he left the tobacco-field of his father, determined to get an education. Up to this time he had received but three weeks of schooling. He attended school and studied medicine seven years, when he located at Parkersville, Lyon Co., Ky., and began practice. In 1861 he came to Caldwell County, and has since remained, enjoying a lucrative practice. He was married February 10, 1858, to Rebecca A. Stephens, who was born in 1843. She has borne him ten children, of whom eight are now living: James M., Mary F., Rosella, Frederick M., Zelenor, Willie, Annie D. and Prestern. Dr. Pool is a Democrat.

JAMES M. POOL was born in Christian County, Ky., June 10, 1825, and is the second of a family of ten children born to Dr. T. B. and Mary L. (Brown) Pool, both natives of Rowan County, N. C. Mr. Pool's ancestors were of German descent and among the early pioneers of Christian County, his grandfather, Henry Pool, having settled there about the year 1804 or 1805. His grandfather on the mother's side, Timothy A. Brown, was a native of England, and when a small boy came to America and settled in North Carolina. He came to Kentucky in company with a colony of families, the Pools among the number, and settled in Christian County, about fourteen miles from Hopkinsville. Subject's father was born in North Carolina in 1801, and was but four years old when the family sought a home in Kentucky. He lived in Christian County until 1853, at which time he moved to Princeton where he died in 1883. Mrs. Pool died in December, 1862, at the age of fifty-nine years. James M. remained with his parents until after his marriage, and commenced life as a farmer in Christian County, where he lived until 1853, at which time he moved to Caldwell County and purchased a farm two and a half miles east of Princeton, on which he resided until 1877. His first marriage took place December 12, 1844, to Eliza Jane Nix, daughter of Lebanon Nix, by whom he had six children, viz.: William T., Mary Frances (wife of M. Clark), Sarah Jane (wife of L. B. Allison), T. B., James T. and Caldora (deceased). Mrs. Pool was born in 1827 and died October 19, 1855. July 1, 1858, Mr. Pool married Mary F. Stephens, of Caldwell County. Eight children have been born to this marriage: Mildred A., wife of William Allison; Monroe, deceased; Jonathan S.; infant, deceased; Louella; Reuben M. and an infant deceased. In 1877 Mr. Pool was elected jailer, which position he still retains, having been twice re-elected. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and belongs to the Universalist Church.

T. M. POWELL, Caldwell County, senior member of the large dry goods house of Powell & Henry, was born March 17, 1848, in Henderson County, Ky., and is a son of Thomas W. and Elizabeth (Dorsey) Powell, of Virginia and Kentucky, respectively. Thomas W. Powell came with his father from Virginia when quite a small boy, settling in Henderson County, where he still lives at an advanced age. Mrs. Powell is living also. They had born to them twelve children: John A.; Mollie, wife of R. A. Raymond; Samuel H., deceased; W. S.; J. F.; Elizabeth Maggie; T. M., subject; E. R. deceased; Richard, deceased; Allie, deceased; Olivia and Ida. T. M. Powell remained in his native county until attaining his majority, receiving the rudiments of a good education in the select schools of the country, and in 1867 entered the college at Lexington, Ky., which he attended one year, completing the regular English course. After leaving school he engaged as clerk in his brother's (W. S.) store in Petersburgh, where he remained four years and then formed a copartnership with his brother, Edwin R. Powell, in the mercantile business at Corydon, Henderson Co., Ky., which continued for a period of one year. In 1872 he came to Princeton, and in partnership with W. S. Powell opened a large dry goods house, with which he is still connected, his present partner being W. P. Henry, who bought a half interest in 1875. The firm of Powell & Henry is, perhaps, the largest dry goods house in the county, representing a capital of about $35,000, and doing an annual business of from $40,000 to $50,000. Mr. Powell was married December 19, 1877, to Miss Mollie B. Farrow, of Princeton. Three children have been born to them: Otho P., Bessie and S. Banks, all of whom are living. Mr. Powell and his wife are prominent members of the Christian Church, at Princeton.

W. S. RANDOLPH, county judge, was born September 25, 1836, in Trigg County, Ky.; his father, Alexander Randolph, was a native of North Carolina, born in 1800. He was a descendent of the celebrated Randolph family of Virginia, and died in Trigg County, Ky., January, 1865, at the age of sixty-five years. Subject's mother, Malinda (Watkins) Randolph, was a daughter of Samuel Watkins, who died in Trigg County at a very early day. Mrs. Randolph departed this life on January 2, 1878, at the age of sixty-five years. Mr. and Mrs. Randolph were the parents of eight children: G. B. (deceased), W. S. (subject), M. J. (deceased), M. A. (deceased), E. S. (deceased), D. W. (deceased), J. A. and T. L. W. S. Randolph remained under the parental roof until the age of twenty years, when he entered the Cadiz High School, which he attended for three years: at end of that time he engaged as assistant in said school under Prof. Q. M. Tyler, whom he afterward succeeded as principal, serving in the latter position until the year 1862. He followed teaching until 1869, at which time he was appointed assistant assessor of internal revenue, and surveyor of distilleries for the First Congressional District, filling both positions for a period of four years. He and from their union sprang William, Mary A. (Johnson), Nancy E. (Mitchel) and John U. (deceased). William Johns obtained a fair English education at the schools of the community in which he was reared. He married, August 25, 1863, Mary J., daughter of John F. and Nancy W. (Luster) Dunn, of Simpson County (born February 1, 1836), and to them have been born Alexander, Lula B., John U., Martha E., Robert W., William H. and Thomas L. Mr. Johns is a farmer, owning 220 acres of productive land, well improved and in a high state of cultivation. In politics he is identified with the Democratic party.

BENJAMIN L. JOHNSON was born near Lebanon, Wilson Co., Tenn., January 27, 1833, and grew to manhood in that county, from whence he removed, in 1874, to Simpson County, Ky., where he has since resided. His father, Little B. Johnson, was born in North Carolina, January 9, 1805. He was a son of Matthew Johnson, of English descent. Little B. and Miranda, daughter of Benjamin Clifton, joined in the bonds of matrimony, and to them were born Benjamin L., Little B., Jr., Wyley H., William B., Lucy J. (Smith), Cynthia E. (Ramsey), Maranda M. (Pool), Mariah A. (Roberts), Lucinda (Pool) and Polly A. (Johnson). Benjamin L. Johnson has been twice married; first, in 1857, to Sarah M., daughter of Joseph P. and Enon (Anthony) Ashford. To their union the following children were born: John W., Joseph B., James D., Benjamin T., Alfred G. and Sarah A. Mrs. Sarah M. Johnson died May 5, 1868, and Mr. Johnson next married, February 25, 1873, Mrs. Lucy J. Parrow, daughter of Nathan and Catherine (McDaniel) Glen, of Tennessee, who has borne him the following-named children: Charles R. and Elizabeth (twins), Oscar S., Arthur L., Henry G., Carrie M. and Elisah D. Johnson. Mr. Johnson has always been a farmer, and has accumulated, by his own industry, all his possessions. He has a well improved and productive farm of 220 acres, in a high state of cultivation, on which there is an orchard of forty acres, one of the best, if not the best, in Simpson County. In politics he is a Democrat.

THOMAS H. JONES was born December 25, 1833, in Jackson County, Tenn., where he grew to manhood, and in 1872 removed to Simpson County, Ky., where he has since resided. In 1864 he enlisted in the Twenty-eighth Tennessee Confederate Infantry; he was in the Murfreesboro battle, and remained nine months in the service. His father, John Jones, also a native of Jackson County, was born May 10, 1805, was a planter, and died in 1882. His father was a Revolutionary soldier. John Jones was twice married; first to Lucinda Robinson, of North Carolina (born December 25, 1804, died 1875), and from their union sprang Leroy, William A., John S., Thomas H., George W., Julia E. (Hyder), Jefferson and James M. He afterward married Jane Johnson, and they had three children. Thomas H. Jones married, September 3, 1854, Sarah, daughter of Peter and Margaret (Huffines) Forkum, of Jackson County (born January 6, 1835, died May 16, 1869), and to them were born Lethe J. (Lee), Juliette E. (Alexander), William M., Luvenia J. (Huffines), Melvina (Lambeth) and James M. By his own industry, economy and strict attention to business Mr. Jones has secured a competency. On December 20, 1870, he married Sarah J., daughter of Rev. Charles W. and Phebe E. (Yeages) Witt, of Allen County (born April 7, 1845), and from this union there is no issue. Mr. Jones is a farmer, having 225 acres of well improved land in a high state of cultivation. He has been an elder in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for nearly thirty years, and in politics is a Democrat.

JAMES A. JONES was born in Robertson County, Tenn., November 22, 1841, and is the youngest of three children born to Campbell and Lucy (Moss) Jones, the former of whom was a native of North Carolina, born March 4, 1810, and the latter a native of Robertson County, Tenn., born October 7, 1807. At the age of ten or twelve years Campbell Jones removed with his parents to Robertson County, Tenn., having driven a team all the way from North Carolina. Here his early education was received, and here he was married April 24, 1835. He remained with his parents until he was twenty-five years old. He was then employed as a laborer, and farmed on rented lands for several years, after which he bought a small farm in Robertson County, Tenn., to which he afterward added other lands, and was engaged in agricultural pursuits until in 1869, when he sold out, and has since made his home with his children. He and wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. Our subject's grandfathers, Stephen Jones and William W. Moss, were among the early pioneers of Robertson County, Tenn.; the former emigrated from North Carolina, and the latter from "the Old Dominion;" the latter was a magistrate for many years. James A. Jones was employed on his father's farm until he attained his majority. He then located on a small farm, near the old home-

- Webster Co.

Webster County, Ky., and daughter of Jackson Herrin, one of the earliest pioneers of what is now Webster County. Seven children have been born to them, four of whom—two sons and two daughters—are living. Mr. Payne is a Democrat.

PROF. HENRY PETRY was born in Brown County, Ohio, June 28, 1859, and is a son of John and Elizabeth (Roser) Petry, the former born in Buffalo, N. Y., of German parentage, and the latter born in Bavaria. When a small boy John Petry removed with his parents to Newark, Ohio, where his father, Henry Petry, Sr., engaged in mercantile pursuits. In early life John Petry learned the shoe-maker's trade, which he has since followed with the exception of the last ten years, when he has been engaged in farming. In 1856 he removed to Ripley, Brown Co, Ohio, where he remained until 1882, when he removed to Mason County, Ky., where he now resides. Both he and wife are members of the Lutheran Church. He is a member of the I. O. O. F. Our subject received a good common school education in youth, and graduated with high honors from the scientific and training departments of the National Normal University of Lebanon, Ohio, in August, 1883. He also graduated at the head of his class from the business and commercial department of the same institution in June, 1882. While employed on the old homestead farm, he was the inventor of an improved farm gate, and secured a patent for the same June 10, 1879. It is said to be one of the best farm gates ever invented. In the fall of 1883, he was employed in the Madisonville Normal School and Business College, remaining one year. In August, 1884, he came to Providence, Webster Co., Ky., where he is at present employed in the Home School and Normal Institute. In politics he is a Democrat, and is an earnest advocate of the temperance question.

WILLIAM W. POOLE was born November 9. 1822, in Nelson County, Ky., to John and Jane (Hueston) Poole, natives of Ireland and Pennsylvania. In 1826, they came to Henderson (now Webster) County, Ky., and purchased several hundred acres of land in the locality of what is now known as Poole's Mills. The father, who was a millwright, was born in 1776 and died in 1862, aged eighty-six; the mother was born in 1784 and died in 1878, aged ninety-four. Our subject was reared on his father's farm, and, in 1855, engaged in merchandising at Poole's Mill; this he continued until 1873, since which time he has been engaged in farming. He was appointed postmaster in 1855, and this office he has since held. He owns 200 acres, which include part of the present site of Poole's Mill, and which was part of the farm formerly owned by his father. Mr. Poole was married, in 1860, to Miss Ann E. Stephens of Henderson County. This union is blessed with seven children—three sons and four daughters. Their eldest son, John V., is now attending college at Valparaiso, Ind., with a view of perfecting himself in the study of languages, although he makes mathematics his favorite study.

J. A. POWELL, Webster County, was born in Henderson County, Ky., May 8, 1835, son of Thomas W. and Elizabeth (Dorsey) Powell. He is the eldest in a family of twelve children, and is of English descent. His paternal grandfather, Harrison Powell, emigrated from the Carolinas to Kentucky in a very early day. The Powells have been long and extensively known in Kentucky, and have held the first official positions in the State. When J. A. attained his majority he engaged in the mercantile business in Corydon, Henderson Co., Ky., remained there four years, and then for eleven years followed farming. In 1879 he came to Sebree, and engaged in merchandising and dealing in tobacco. In the store he does a business of $30,000, annually, and in 1884 he did a tobacco business of $41,000, handling 565,000 pounds of tobacco. In this article he has traded extensively for fourteen years. In 1879 Mr. Powell erected his present residence, one of the finest in Sebree. He was married, in 1858, to Miss Paulina D. Williams, of Jefferson County, Ky. They have three children, viz.: Florence, Samuel F. and Henry. Mr. Powell has been successful and is worth about $50,000. He is a Democrat; he and wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

J. D. PRICE was born March 29, 1836, in Hopkins, now Webster County, Ky., and is a son of Thomas and Delaney (Nichols) Price. The father was born in 1790, in North Carolina, and about 1812 came to Kentucky, and located in Hopkins County. He died October 24, 1872. The mother was born in North Carolina in 1800, and died July 27, 1872. J. D. was reared on his father's farm and at the age of twenty-two assumed control of the farm, and afterward removed to his present farm, then consisting of 200 acres. He now owns about 440 acres, largely in cultivation, which he acquired solely by his own exertions. He was married, January 7, 1858, to Mary A. Wallace, of Union County. They are life long and devoted

DR. JAMES T. SOYARS, of Webster County, was born January 11, 1838, in Christian County, Ky., removed in 1847 with his father to Hopkins County, where he was reared, and in 1861 enlisted in Company A, First Kentucky Cavalry, and after serving on Gen. Helm's staff, and in the secret service, was captured, and released in 1864. His father, Col. John Soyars, a native of Pittsylvania County, Va., was born in 1805; removed to Kentucky in 1832, and died in 1871. He was the son of James Soyars, of Pittsylvania County, Va., who entered the Revolutionary army at the age of sixteen, and served four years; was at Valley Forge with Washington; marched three days barefoot on ice, with frozen feet; was wounded, captured and paroled near the close of the war, and returned to his home, where he died in 1845, aged eighty years. He was twice married, and the father of nine sons and seven daughters, all of whom reared families. He was magistrate, high sheriff and representative sixteen years in his county. Having served under Gen. Lafayette, he was one of the committee of reception during that gentleman's last visit to America. James' father, an Englishman, a civil engineer, was lost with a surveying party in the West. John married Elizabeth, daughter of Enoch and Elizabeth Cannon, of Halifax County, Va. (born in 1805 and died in 1844), and from their union sprang Edward C. (deceased), subject, Mary F. (Orton) and two infants. Dr. James T. Soyars was married, December 12, 1871, to Miss Medora, daughter of William A. and Catherine (Harding) Oglesby (born July 20, 1850), of Daviess County, and to them have been born six children, four of whom died in infancy, while Mary I. and Ione M. are now living. In 1858 he commenced the study of medicine with Dr. D. A. DeForest, of Ashbysburgh, Ky., and in 1869 attended lectures at Starling Medical College, Columbus, Ohio, where he graduated in 1861. In 1864 he located at Slaughterville, where he has since enjoyed a lucrative practice. He has been advanced ten degrees in the order of A. F. & A. M., and is now High Priest of the chapter. In politics he is a Democrat.

CHARLES W. SPENCER was born April 13, 1850, in Tioga County, N. Y. In 1869 he came to Kentucky, and settled in Webster County. He followed the carpenter's trade, also farming, until 1881, when he opened a small store, with a capital of less than $100. His trade has since rapidly increased, and he now carries a stock of about $2,000. He is postmaster, having been appointed in 1879. He was married, in 1874, to Miss Mary A. Curlee, of Webster County, Ky. This union has been blessed with five children, of whom one son and one daughter are living.

FREDERICH W. STIMAN, son of Frederich W. and Hannah L. Stiman, is a native of Minden, Prussia, and was born November 2, 1836. He learned the cabinet-maker's trade in the Fatherland, and there, also, was trained in those strict habits of industry, economy and sobriety, which crown life's labors with success in every clime. He was early attached to, and educated under, the fostering care of the Lutheran Church, and in 1854 came to the United States, landing at New Orleans, and in 1855 commenced business at Slaughterville. He was present at the laying-off of the village, in 1867, and is now its oldest resident. He was its first police judge; twelve years its postmaster, and has ever taken an active and enterprising interest in its progress. On January 1, 1862, he was married to Miss Martha J., daughter of Sebron Reynolds, of Hopkins County, Ky., (born in 1841 and died in 1867), and to them were born William V., John G. (deceased), Elizabeth (deceased), and Annie, (deceased). Subject was next married, June 15, 1868, to Mrs. Sidnie A. Crawley, daughter of James and Mary Prather, and from this union sprang five children: Mary O., Ludie H. and James T., living; Annie and Elizabeth, deceased. Judge Stiman has occupied various positions of honor and trust among his fellow citizens. He is now engaged in the manufacture and sale of wagons, plows and farming implements He has been successful in business, and has bright hopes of the future. In addition to this business he owns a farm of 250 acres of fine land, in a good state of cultivation. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and affiliates with the Democratic party.

HENRY STROTHER was born May 17, 1860, in Butler County, Ky., a son of Dr. John F. and Mary E. (Simmons) Strother. The father has been a resident of Rochester, Ky., the past thirty-five years, engaged in the practice of medicine. He is a graduate of Nashville and Louisville Medical Colleges and stands at the head of his profession, his practice extending over the counties of Butler, Logan, Muhlenburgh and Ohio. The mother died in 1863. Our subject was reared in Rochester, and in 1880 attended the Cumberland University, taking a select course of studies. The following year he, with D. Poole, opened a drug and grocery store, which they carried on a short time. He then moved to Morgantown, where he

FLETCHER IRVING POOLE

By Jeannie Vaughan Hartwick

Fletcher Irving Pool was born 26 April 1880 at Liberty Hill, died 15 August 1959 at Austin, and was buried in Bagdad Cemetery. His parents were Luther (1851–1893) and Mary Frances Humble (1856–1935) Poole. Their children were: Lillye, married Herman Atwood; Fletcher Irving; Wade Hampton, married Juanita Russell; Arthur, married ———; Jesse, married Delphine Pela; Edgar, married Mozelle Maxwell, then Gene ———; and Frances, who never married.

Irving's grandparents were Thornton (1814–1905) and Asenath Bruton (1819–1860) P. Poole, who came to Liberty Hill, Texas, from Greenville, South Carolina in 1851, and Fletcher (1828–1884) and Elizabeth Stone (1831–1903) Humble, Tennesseans, who moved from Ray County, Missouri, prior to 1870.

Irving married Lenora Eugenia Pickle (5 March 1885–8 January 1959) daughter of Andrew Porter (1833–1908) and Isabella Faubion (1845–1891) Pickle on 25 January 1905. Originally from Wythe County, Virginia, A. P. Pickle was a Confederate Soldier, and he moved to Texas from Tennessee around 1854. He assisted in building the old State Capitol that later burned. Andy and Isabella had fourteen children.

Prior to marriage, Irving served in the Spanish-American War, and for a short time, was a miner in Cripple Creek, Colorado. In Leander he owned the Poole-Sherman Company, a general merchandise store and unincorporated bank from about 1910–1935. The building of Highway 29 in 1926 forced the family home to be disassembled and three of the original rooms were moved to its present location alongside Highway 183, just east of Leander.

Irving and Nora were members of the M.E. Church South. He belonged to the Masonic Lodge and the WOW, and she was in Eastern Star. Their three children were Frankie Eugenia (born 1 November 1905), Mary Isabelle (born 6 March 1914), and Anita Madge (18 November 1916–9 July 1982).

Frankie married John Landon, a druggist, and they had one son, John Irving Landon. She lives in Menard. Isabelle married Frank Herschel Vaughan of Liberty Hill. Their children are Kenneth Franklin and Martha Jean. The Vaughans have lived in Austin since 1943. Madge had one daughter, Marcia Elaine, from her marriage to Ray Highsmith.

As of 1984, Irving and Nora have four grandchildren, ten great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren.

JOHN JAMES POOLE

By Marjorie Poole Thomas

John J. Poole was born 27 September 1841 in Greenville, South Carolina. He was the oldest child of Thornton P. and Asenath (Bruton) Poole and traveled to Texas with his family in 1854. They settled in the Liberty Hill area of Williamson County.

In October of 1861, John Poole entered the Confederate Service. He joined Company "G" of Wilkie's Battalion Light Artillery. He served the duration of the Civil War, until May of 1865, and afterwards took up his residence again in Williamson County.

While living and working in the Florence area, he met Frances Ann Telitha (Fanny) Story, daughter of Milton and Mary A. Story. They were married 14 September 1871.

John and Fanny Poole had four children while they were living in Williamson County. William Pinckney Poole married Lou Etta Riggins; George Washington Poole married Julia Lockhart; Asenath Poole who married Thomas W. Henning, and who

The Poole family with their young children moved to Bell County where they lived until the death of their wife and mother, Fanny Poole, which was around 1880. At this time they moved back to Liberty Hill in Williamson County, where John Poole's family helped to care for his small children.

John J. Poole lived out most of his life in Williamson County. At the time of his death on 20 February 1905, he was in the home of his daughter, Asenath (Poole) Henning, and was buried in San Angelo.

J. LANDRUM (LANDY) POOLE

By Marjorie Poole Thomas

Born in Greenville, South Carolina 28 June 1853, "Landy" Poole came to Texas with his parents, Thornton P. Poole and Asenath (Bruton) Poole, who located west of Liberty Hill on the old Austin-west stageline before the Civil War.

Despite the fact that his parents were wealthy in their time, the son chose to cleave to his own way in the world and before reaching his majority was the owner of valuable property, being engaged in business at Liberty Hill several years where, among other enterprises, he operated a livery stable and feed barn.

He was married to Miss Mary Matsler, daughter of a pioneer family of the county. He had one daughter, Mrs. Chattie Poole Chapman, a granddaughter, Mrs. Mildren Tonn and a grandson, Lawrence Chapman. The family home was a ranch which was located near Florence.

Mr. Poole was engaged in business in Williamson County for more than seventy years. Not only did he have large holdings in the county consisting of farms, ranches, business and residential properties, but his operations extended far beyond the confines of the county and Texas. At one time he controlled much property extending from Georgetown to the Pacific Coast, during which time he built a home on the beach where he lived for a time. He was one of the first men to discover the potential of the apple producing area of New Mexico, where he purchased a large tract of land, developing a splendid orchard.

At his death at age eighty-nine in August of 1942, Landy Poole had remained active in his business dealings. He was recognized as a fine businessman and a churchman of the old school, who did much for the religious communities in which he lived.

John Robert Poole and wife, Thelma Catherine Headrick — 1928

J. ROBERT POOLE

By Marjorie Poole Thomas

John Robert (Bob) Poole was born in Georgetown 25 June 1902. His parents were William P. Poole, who was born near Florence and Lou Etta (Riggins) Poole, who was born in Georgetown.

Robert Poole was married to Thelma Catherine Headrick 3 October 1928 in Georgetown. Thelma was the daughter of Young E. Headrick and Flora (Farris) Headrick, Williamson County residents.

Robert was an employee of the State Highway Department, then later worked for the U.S. Post Office in Georgetown. He began his work for the Post Office on July 1926 and worked there for forty-three years. He transferred to rural carrier in December of 1961. Mr. Poole was a member of the Rural Carriers Association, a life-time member of the Georgetown Fire Department and a member of the San Gabriel Masonic Lodge No. 89 AF&AM. He was an active member of the Church of Christ. Robert "Bob" Poole died 22 May 1969 in Georgetown and is buried in the Poole Family plot at IOOF cemetery.

Thelma Poole attended schools in Georgetown and Berry's Creek and finished at the Gattis School near Round Rock. She started work in Georgetown at the Edward's Cafe and was later employed by the Southwestern States Telephone Company. She worked at the telephone company for a period of about twelve years. Mrs. Poole has worked with the Boy Scouts of America and the Girl Scouts of America, is Past Worthy Matron of the local Eastern Star. She is a member of the Georgetown Garden Club in which she served as president. In 1975 she was selected by the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce as Woman of the Year. She is also an active member of the Church of Christ.

Two children were born to Robert and Thelma Poole: 1). Marvin Dudley Poole who married Ruth (Johnson) Ramey. She is the daughter of Morris and Marie Johnson and has two daughters, Teresa (Ramey) Burdick, Deanna (Ramey) Saplin and a granddaughter, Britney Marie Burdick. 2) Marjorie Frances Poole who married John Robert (Bob) Thomas. He is the son of J. D. and Laura Thomas. They have a daughter, Laura Catherine, and a son, John Robert, Jr.

Thornton P. Poole, 1819–1905

THORNTON P. POOLE

By Marjorie Poole Thomas

Edgar Thornton P. Poole was born 19 April 1819 in Greenville County, South Carolina. He was the son of John P. Poole and Martha Boswell of Greenville County, South Carolina. His grandfather was William P. Poole, who served in the Revolutionary War as a soldier from North Carolina.

Thornton P. Poole married Asenath Rose Bruton while living in South Carolina. Asenath was the daughter of Joab Bruton and Jane Wood Pace of Greenville County, South Carolina, and was born 16 May 1819.

The Poole Family, Thornton P., Asenath and the first eight of their eleven children came to Texas from Greenville in 1854. Their daughter, Martha (Poole) Chapman, told of their journey in an early Williamson County newspaper, relating that they left on October 9 in a party of about one hundred people. She states that the wagons were nearly all new, covered with carriage cloth and finished with roll-up curtains and buttons. They traveled the lower route, crossing the Mississippi River at Natchez, crossing the Red River in a steam boat at Alexandria and then the Sabine River over into Texas. When they reached Williamson County they met the Brysons, who were old friends and Carolinians and camped near their home until finding a place of their own. They first bought a tract of land in Burnet County, later selling it and moving to where they eventually settled, which was on the old Austin-west stage line, about two miles northwest of Liberty Hill. The first post office in Williamson County was established there; it was housed in a little log smokehouse on the Poole place. Soon after their arrival, the Poole family, along with about eight other families, started the Zion Baptist Church, which was housed in a little log house on the south side of Oatmeal Creek. This church was later moved about two miles above Liberty Hill.

The children of Thornton P. and Asenath Poole were: John James, born 1841, married Frances (Fannie) Story; Martha, born 1842, married Thomas A. Chapman; Benjamin Alberry; George Washington, born 1847, married Helen I. Arbuckle; Elizabeth; Robert J.; Luther M., born 1851, married Mary Humble; J. "Landy," born 1853, married Mary Matsler; William, the first child born in Texas, in Liberty Hill; Wade Hampton, born 1858, died 1880; and Rosa, born 1860, married J. Y. Grier.

Asenath (Bruton) Poole died 29 July 1860, and is buried in the Liberty Hill Cemetery. The Liberty Hill Cemetery is only a short distance from the Poole home place.

Thornton P. Poole later married Eliza Bramlet, who was a widow. They became the parents of a son, Edgar Bramlet. They also raised two of Eliza's grandchildren, Ora and Walter Miles.

Thornton P. Poole remained active for most of his eighty-six years. He maintained a large farm and managed to occupy himself in various businesses. He died 29 July 1905, and is buried in the Liberty Hill Cemetery.

WILLIAM P. (WILL) POOLE

By Marjorie Poole Thomas

William Pinckney Poole was born 20 January 1873 near Florence in Williamson County. While he was still quite young he moved to Bell County with his family. After the death of his mother in the early 1880s he and his family moved to Liberty Hill.

It was in Liberty Hill that he received a part of his education, working his way through the Liberty Hill Normal and Business College. Beginning in 1896, he made his home in Georgetown.

Soon after moving to Georgetown Will Poole became engaged in the dairy business and was later an employee of the Georgetown Oil Mill and the city of Georgetown. About 1920 he bid on the contract for transporting mail from the trains to the local post office and he was in that line of work until the time of this death.

On 31 March 1901, W. P. Poole was married to Lou Etta (Babe) Riggins. She was the daughter of William Jasper Riggins and Martha Elizabeth Brooks. They made their home in the west part of Georgetown near the location of the old Georgetown Oil Mill.

Three children were born to this couple. J. Robert Poole was born 25 June 1902. He married Thelma C. Headrick. Agnes G. Poole was born 26 October 1904 and died 4 February 1907. William Averill Poole was born 6 August 1907. He was employed for many years by G. Doering Gin and for the Farmers Gin Company. At the time of his death in September of 1940 he was justice of the peace for precinct No. 1.

Lou Etta Poole was born in Georgetown 1 April 1882; her family came to Williamson County from Arkansas. After the death of her husband, Will, on 27 July 1937 and the death of her son Averill in 1940, Mrs. Poole made her home with her son, Robert, and his family. She worked as a practical nurse in the Georgetown Hospital and in private homes. She was an later moved about two miles above Liberty Hill.

The children of Thornton P. and Asenath Poole were: John James, born 1841, married Frances (Fannie) Sherry; Martha, born 1842, married Thomas A. Chapman; Benjamin Albert; George Washington, born 1847, married Helen I. Arbuckle; Elizabeth; Roswell; Luther M., born 1851, married Mary Dunbar; "Landy," born 1853, married Mary Matthews; William, the first child born in Texas, in Liberty Hill; Wade Hampton, born 1855, died 1880; and Rosa, born 1860, married J. Y. [illegible].

Asenath (Bruton) Poole died 22 July 1860, and is buried in the Liberty Hill Cemetery. The Liberty Hill Cemetery is only a short distance from the Poole home place.

Thornton P. Poole later married Eliza Brantley who was a widow. They became the parents of a son, Edgar Brantley. They also raised two of Eliza's grandchildren, Ora and Walter Mills.

Thornton P. Poole remained active for most of his eighty-six years. He maintained a large farm and managed to occupy himself in various businesses. He died [illegible] 1899 and is buried in the Liberty Hill Cemetery.

WILLIAM P. (WILL) POOLE
By Margorie Poole Thomas

William Pinckney Poole was born 20 January 1873 near Florence in Williamson County. While he was still quite young he moved to Bell County with his family. After the death of his mother in the early 1890s he and his family moved to Liberty Hill.

It was in Liberty Hill that he received a part of his education, working his way through the Liberty Hill Normal and Business College. Beginning in 1895, he made his home in Georgetown.

Soon after moving to Georgetown Will Poole became engaged in the dairy business and was later an employee of the Georgetown Oil Mill and the city of Georgetown. About 1920 he bid on the contract for transporting mail from the trains to the local post office, and he was in that line of work until the time of his death.

On 21 March 1901, W. P. Poole was married to Lou Etta (Ettie) Higgins. She was the daughter of William Jasper Higgins and Martha Elizabeth Brooks. They made their home in the west part of Georgetown near the [illegible]

Three children were born to this couple. J. Robert Poole was born 23 June 1902. He married Thelma C. Hendrick. Agnes C. Poole was born 26 October 1904 and died 4 February 1907. William Averill Poole was born 8 August 1907. He was employed for many years by G. Deering Gin and by the Farmers Gin Company. At the time of his death in September of 1940 he was justice of the peace for precinct No. 1.

Lou Etta Poole was born in Georgetown 1 April 1882; her family came to Williamson County from Arkansas. After the death of her husband, Will, on 31 July 1937 and the death of her son Averill in 1940, Mrs. Poole made her home with her son, Robert, and his family. She worked as a practical Elder Thornton P. Poole was born 19 November 1812 in Greenville County, South Carolina. He was the son of John Poole and Martha Bennett of Greenville County, South Carolina. His grandfather was William Poole, who served in the Revolutionary War as a soldier from North Carolina.

Thornton P. Poole married Asenath Rose Bruton while living in South Carolina. Asenath was the daughter of Jack Bruton and Jane West Pace of Greenville County, South Carolina, and was born 16 May 1819.

The Poole Family, Thornton P., Asenath and the first eight of their eleven children came to Texas from Greenville in 1854. Their daughter, Martha (Poole) Chapman, told of their journey in an early Williamson County newspaper, relating that they left on October 9 in a party of about one hundred people. She stated that the wagons were nearly all new, covered with carriage cloth and finished with roll-up curtains and buttons. [illegible] the Mississippi River at Natchez, meeting the Red River in a steamboat at Alexandria and then the Sabine River over into Texas. When they reached Williamson County they met the Brysons, who were old friends and Carolinians and camped near their home until finding a place of their own. They first bought a tract of land in Burnet County, later selling it and moving to where they eventually settled, which was on the old Austin-west stage line, about two miles northwest of Liberty Hill. The first post office in Williamson County was established there; it was housed in a little log smokehouse on the Poole place. Soon after their arrival, the Poole family, along with about eight other families, started the Primitive Baptist Church, which was housed in a little log buildbama by wagon train early one morning arly 1847 or the last month or so of 1846. Rolls show he was first taxed at Nacogdoches for year 1847. Still in Randolph were his brothers Robert C. and William P. Pool, Jr., sister Charlotte Scales, also Mrs. Brewer, his widowed mother-in-law; and in Tallapoosa County, Alabama was sister Martha Goggans. Brother Seth may have died in Georgia, while brother Epriam P. was in Dallas County, Alabama by 1840. Arriving in Nacogdoches, and perhaps in the same group, was the Eli M. Rodgers family. Wife Mary was a sister to Martha (Brewer) Pool. In 1850 they are next door neighbors, the Rodgers residing in Cherokee County, Alabama prior to 1847.

We have letters written to Sarah, eldest child of Thomas, from her uncle Robert and aunt Martha in 1850 and 1852 respectively. They reveal news of the Alabama relatives and neighbors, and hurt feelings that so little word comes from the folks in Texas! Evidently Tom had a spell of illness that he never got over completely, during his first few years in Nacogdoches County. However, he is listed as serving in the War Between The States some 13 or 14 years later, in Company H, Texas Cavalry, Col. John L. Camp's Regiment. Census records of the following years show him as a farmer in Beat 1-A. He died in 1888, while wife Martha passed away before 1868. They are buried at Stone Cemetery, no markers at their graves.

The six children of Thomas and Martha Pool were: Sarah Ann, born 24 April 1834 in Georgia, married 15 July 1852 in Nacogdoches to Daniel C. Neel. They were parents of eight children reared in Douglass. He was a farmer and Methodist preacher in Nacogdoches, and later Anderson County. She died on 4 July 1893, with stone marker, while he lived until August 23, 1909, with stone marker, both buried at Fort Houston Cemetery.

Martha Susan, born ca. 1836 Georgia, married James Stone in 1853, rearing five boys and four girls in Nacogdoches where he was a farmer and a miller.

Sultania E., born ca. 1839 Georgia, died 1911 Texas; first married Thomas J. Flemming; her second husband was Samuel H. Stone, a miller and farmer in Nacogdoches, and also brother to Jim who married Susie Pool. Their marriage of 1871 brought a son and a daughter, per 1880 census.

Mary Margaret, born ca. 1840 Alabama, was wed 1867 to Raymond Rightmen. They had two boys and two girls; lived in the Nacogdoches area.

Ephriam Nathaniel, born 1842 Alabama, died 1897 Texas, with stone marker, was known as Dick Pool. He took Rebecca Clevenger as his bride in 1870. They were parents of one son and seven daughters, and resided in Nacogdoches County.

Sophronia, born about 1849 Texas, married a Mr. Scales and removed to Louisiana, with one son and one daughter in their home.

D.C. and Sarah Neel were my husband's great-grandparents. Their children were Mary, Tom, Eph, Ira, Mattie, John, Jim, and Jesse. Little Ephie died a babe, John at 20, Mary and Jim were 21, while Jesse was 36. Only Tommie, Ira, and Mattie Martin lived a full lifetime.

Son Ira married Hattie (Heath) Cartmell; he was a farmer and carpenter in Anderson County. Their children were John, Georgia, Jesse, and Bill.

John Neel, eldest son of Ira, married Rutha Sauls and fathered two. He was a railroad machinist and peace officer in Palestine.

Will Posey was born in 1884 in Chireno where he lived his entire life. In 1952 he was struck and killed by a car as he walked home from Chireno. He was married to Lura Lavender and had two children: Hollis, b. 1906, d. 1979 and Alma Mae b. 1918. Lura died in 1969 at her daughter's home in Nacogdoches.

Alma married Jesse Wilton McIlwain in 1942. She taught first grade at Raguet Elementary for over 25 years. Wilton worked for the post office until his retirement. Alma and Wilton had one daughter born in 1954 named Wilda Ann. Wilda and John Harrelson live on Post Oak Road with their two boys, Jordan age 5 and Jacob 1-1/2. all of those Nacogdoches men who enlisted in other Texas counties or in other southern states or those who participated in some sort of home defense. An article published in the Nacogdoches Daily Sentinel December 11, 1923, however, supplied the Muster Roll of the Linn Flat company of twelve-month men for Coast Defense as that company was manned in November of 1861. A second article published December 30, 1930 supplied the roster of the Volunteer Militia which was organized for home protection. Many men who were too old or infirm for active duty served in the Volunteer Militia.

E. N. Pool compiled a list of ex-Confederate soldiers at a Palestine, Texas reunion August 19, 1891. This list, which is available in the Special Collections Room of the Stephen F. Austin State University Library, gives the names of fifty-five ex-infantrymen and fifty ex-cavalrymen residing in Nacogdoches County. Three of these veterans were from Georgia, one from Tennessee, three from Arkansas, three from Alabama, four from Louisiana, five from Mississippi, one from Kentucky, and one from South Carolina. The Pool list thus supplied names of more than 100 ex-Confederates who were living in Nacogdoches County in 1891.

The Index to Applications for Texas Confederate Pensions published by the Archives Division of the Texas State Library was another source from which names and biographical data was obtained. Although the Reconstruction Constitution of 1867 provided for pensions to be paid to those who served in the military forces of the United States during the Civil War, the post-Reconstruction Constitution of 1876 prohibited the Texas Legislature from granting public money to individuals regardless of their circumstances. Nevertheless, an Act of April 9, 1881 provided that permanently disabled Confederate veterans who had been disabled in service could receive 1280 acres of public land. Persons receiving land under this act, however, could not have an estate whose total value exceeded $1,000. Widows of men who had been permanently disabled in the service of the state or of the Confederate states were also eligible for the 1881 land grant. A list of recipients of Confederate Land Grants may be found in Thomas L. Miller's Confederate Scrip Grantees on file in the Texas State Archives.

A joint resolution of the Texas Legislature in 1897, followed by an amendment to the Constitution approved in 1898, prepared the way for the Confederate Pension Statute of 1899. On May 12, 1899 the Texas Legislature enacted a law providing pensions for disabled and indigent men and their widows, provided the men had served in the military forces of the Confederate States of America. Those eligible were natives of Texas or others who had come to Texas prior to January 1, 1880, who were either over sixty years of age or whose disability was the result of actual service in the Confederate army or

Dear Carolyn:

I am not usually so prompt as to answer a genealogy letter the day I get it, but you caught me in my genealogy room and I couldn't resist. Yes, my John P. Pool is a Pettypool. My Pettypools were from Dinwiddie County, VA. I am sure we have common ancestry, but where is the big question. I do not know how much you have on the Pettypools, but I'll gladly share what I have. As you well know, it was a big family and I do not pretend to have them all sorted out. Maybe I should take the time to give this the best shot possible.

My John P. Pool has three children. Family group enclosed. Many of the records of Dinwiddie County have been burned and thus there is a real gap prior to 1790. I do have a few clues. They are the following. See what you think.

My best clue as to who my John P. Pool's father is, is a document I found in the Chancery Order Book dates 4 Apr 1837 This evidently is an old suit they are trying to settle. My John was around 80 years old. I know Stephen and David were my John's brothers and will assume the others mentioned were brothers and sisters also. I do know that William Pettypool had a land grant in the Dinwiddie Co. boundaries as early as 1715. I really feel my line goes.

I do not vouch for the validity of the information in David P'Pool's book. It is just like anything else. It is as accurate as the information from which it was taken.

There is more information in the book. I have enclosed pages 1-8 and 13. If you do not have this information, please inform and I will send more. Best wishes. If you have anymore insight as to my John P. Pool, please let me know.

My John P. Pool was a man of means and had land. He left a lovely will naming grandaughters and etc, much to my delight.

Sincerely,

Anderson Co, SC

CHAPTER III.

Some of the Pioneer People and Their Social Life.

ONE of the handsomest homes of Anderson's early days was that of Mr. Stephen McCully. Mr. McCully was an Irishman, and either he was brought up in a city, and his youthful eyes saw all elegant houses built directly on the street, and so he formed his idea of what was desirable, or he was brought up in the country, and to his country notions lawns, trees and yards were just ordinary things to be eschewed in building a real fine place. Whatever the reason, his house, an elegant one for the time, was built directly on the street. It stood just off the square. His former home was on what was long known as "McCully's corner," the place where Fant's drug store was located for years. And just back of it, fronting on Main street, was the new dwelling. A large two-story brick structure, it had a beautiful fan light over the front door, and the rooms were large and well adapted for entertaining.

Mr. McCully accumulated a good property for his time and locality. He owned a large section of the town on South Main street, and he donated to the city all of West Franklin street, opening up the street which, in the opinion of some people who know the history of the town, should have borne his name. A parallel street to Franklin is called McCully, but it is of less importance than Franklin. The site for the Johnson university was purchased from him, and he was a strong friend and advocate of the school.

Another of Anderson's noted citizens in the early days was Major Joseph Tyler Whitfield, lawyer and magistrate. A man of strong personality, Tyler Whitfield was quoted, and had amusing stories told about him long after death had removed him from among the living. His son, "Squire" John C. Whitfield, was also a person of distinctive qualities; his home stood where Mr. J. L. McGee's house is now. The old Whitfield home was rolled further down the street, and is now used as a boarding house. Squire Whitfield was a man who had many warm friends, some bitter enemies, but was never ignored. He had been born and brought up in this community. He knew all of the people who had made Anderson; knew all of their weaknesses and foibles, and had a keen intelligence which fully recognized all that he saw.

He wrote his recollections of persons and events, a history of early Anderson which doubtless contained much that can never be recovered now. But he said he did not dare to print it while he was alive, he would be mobbed. His partner in business at one time, Mr. E. A. Bell, said that he had seen the manuscript, and that it was racy. He laughed very much when he told about it. The squire left it to be published after his death, but his gentle daughter, Mrs. Ella Jones, had the manuscript destroyed. She felt that it would be unkind to publish it. However, it is a great pity that she did not have it edited, and in that way cut out the unnecessary and hurtful part, and preserve the history which he knew so fully, and which is entirely lost now.

Among the first dwellings in the place was that of Dan Cochran, a lame peddler of cheap jewelry. It stood where the jail is located. On his peddling trips old Dan Cochran used to ride a white mule. LeRoy Barr lived on the southwest corner of Church and Main streets.

Manning Poole owned a large tract of land which included the sites of Miss Varina Brown's residence, that of Mrs. B. F. Mauldin, the old Edwards Murray place, included all the land around Judge Cox's and Mr. E. P. Vandiver's residences; almost the whole of Anderson from the railroad cut to Greenville street, and from Fant street to the interurban railroad as it skirts the western portion of the city. The spring now known as Murray's spring was first called Poole's, then Harrison's before it became Murray's. It was always a popular rendezvous with the young people. Mr. Poole's home stood very near where that of Mrs. Mauldin is now.

The first sidewalk in Anderson was merely a smoothed down path at the side of the dirt road which has developed into Main street. It ran between the square and Greenville street on the east side of the road. It was the grand promenade of the young people, and on May Day, a popular holiday in the early times, there was a throng of pretty girls in pretty dresses marching on the sidewalk to the Benson house where there was always a May party. The only boy allowed in the parade was the one who marched at its head carrying the May pole. Arrived at the hotel there were recitations, speeches and the May pole dance, and the crowning of the May queen. The affair ended in a feast.

A two-plank bridge across a small gully was the first bridge in the town. It was just in front of the spot where Mrs. J. L. Tribble's residence now stands. There was no break where the railroad cut runs which was North Boundary street, and the cut was made twenty years later when the railroad was laid.

A great source of entertainment for the Anderson people in the 40s was horse racing. The track was somewhere near the Orr Mill at Calhoun. Wesley Leverette called a public meeting one Saturday in 1841 in the Academy building, and a library association was formed for the benefit of the school, and also for the use of the public. There was also a debating society at Calhoun called the Philological Society, K. Breazeale its secretary.

In the same neighborhood there was a Farmers' Society formed about 1845.

In July, 1845, "The New York Zoological Exhibition" showed in Anderson for one day only.

One of the landmark homes torn away just a few years ago stood where Mr. Clyde Stone's automobile show rooms are located. Originally a part of the Manning Poole property, it was bought by Mr. Wilson Van Lawhorn. A gin house stood on the lot. Mr. Van Lawhorn married Miss Archer, and as a wedding present her father built for the young couple a commodious house on Mr. Van Lawhorn's lot. The young people loved company and sport of every kind, and kept open house in the old time style. A lady who died in Anderson a few years ago, over ninety years old, said that the first dancing she ever saw was in the Van Lawhorn home. It consisted of the Virginia reel, cotillions and contra dances.

After the Van Lawhorns moved away, Mrs. Mahala Hubbard lived for a time in the house. While it was her residence her daughter married an Earle, and celebrated in the house a big and fashionable wedding.

In 1836 Samuel Cherry bought the place. Later it became the property of Dr. Cater, "the beloved physician" to many of the early Andersonians. After he moved, the Bensons owned it. Mrs. Benson, who before her marriage was Kitty Sloan, was a great lover of flowers, and had glorious gardens at both ends of the house. Mrs. Benson, as most people of the time did, accommodated boarders for the Johnson University. From that beginning she opened her house to others. She had already had the experience of helping her husband keep the Benson Hotel. During the war Mrs. Benson had boarding with her Miss Lillie Roper, of Charleston, and again was the old house the setting for a spectacular wedding when Miss Roper became the bride of Judge James Munro, a widower, and for a time one of Anderson's most prominent men. He came from the lower part of the state and bought land from Judge Whitner on which he built a house which is still standing, facing Monroe street on the western edge of the city. The street took its name from the judge, not from the president of the United States as people not knowing the history of the town suppose. And the name is spelled wrong.

Judge Munro had two children when he came to Anderson, a son and a daughter. The daughter, "Miss Maggie," was a very aristocratic and exclusive young lady.

The son met with a tragic death soon after the Blue Ridge road was built from Pendleton to Anderson. An excursion was run, on which most of the young people went. The train had just crossed the creek near the Blue Ridge yards when the young man, who stood on the rear platform, was thrown from the train, and his head striking a rock, he was instantly killed.

The Munros left Anderson soon after the war between the states and went to live in Union.

Anderson's first doctors were Alexander Evans and A. P. Cater. For a time the two were in partnership, but later each practiced alone. Both were greatly beloved by their patients. Dr. Evans was a bachelor. They were what was called at that time "calomel doctors," that is, they gave medicine, usually at least tinctured with calomel. The other kind were "steam doctors," who "sweated" out an illness. Dr. Cater was a married man, and his family once lived in the old Van Lawhorn house.

Another interesting person who once boarded in the house was a Polish countess, banished from her native land in some political upheaval. She was first Madam Girard, later Mrs. Pinkind. In her youth she sang beautifully and was studying for the operatic stage, but from an illness she lost her voice, and spent the greater part of her life teaching music in Anderson and Pendleton. It is said that she was the first woman to play the violin on the stage in America, having taken part in a concert in New York, where she played on that instrument. Mrs. Pinkind went to Charleston, and from there, with the influx of low country people coming up for the summer, she landed in Pendleton, and from there came to Anderson.

Her children were Antoinette, known as "Nettie," and Anthony, known as "Tony." Miss Nettie Pinkind married Mr. Norton Hunter, of Pendleton.

A daughter of the Bensons, Mary, married first a Sloan, and afterwards a Sadler, and she became the owner of the house. There she lived for many years with her sons, Mr. Ed Sloan and Mr. John Sadler. Mr. D. P. Sloan is also her son.

Another popular home of early days was that of Colonel James Harrison. He lived first in the house purchased from Mr. Poole about where the Mauldin home stands; later his residence was where Judge Cox's house is now. In the Harrison family were several daughters, and his home was one of the gayest in the community.

Anderson seems to have existed very comfortably without policemen until 1840. By that time the town had grown to quite a little place, and there was mischief enough brewing for the citizens to need protection, so they elected Hugh McKinney the first policeman. The courthouse was the seat of the town government as well as that of the county. Where the city hall stands was a blacksmith shop, kept by Alfred Moore. Another blacksmith shop was located on the site of the Bleckley building.

The first child born in the town of Anderson was the late Dr. Ben Brown, of Williamston. He was the son of Daniel Brown and his first wife, Rhoda Acker. At the time of this son's birth Mr. Brown lived in the house built by Mr. McCully on the corner where Fant's drug store long stood. It was a two-story wooden structure with a long piazza across the front. In later years it was the tailor shop of Messrs. Clark and Smith, and still later the merchant tailor firm of J. R. and L. P. Smith.

Anderson's first furniture dealer was Ezekiel George, styled in that day cabinet maker. He married Miss Betty Poole. A few years after establishing his business in Anderson, Mr. George found that he needed an assistant, and he employed a young foreigner who was living in Greenville, George Frederick Tolly, who was born in Prussia November 7th, 1835, and emigrated to America with his parents in 1850. He learned his trade of cabinet maker in Baltimore and came to South Carolina about 1856, living for one year in Greenville. On May 24, 1859, Mr. Tolly married his employer's daughter, Miss Mary Jane George. For sixty years that couple were honored citizens of the growing city. The first seventeen years of their married life was spent in a little home on the site of Tolly's great store, and their furniture shop adjoined it. Then Mr. Tolly bought the Webb house, where the remainder of his life was passed. Mr. Tolly succeeded to the business of his father-in-law, and lived to see it develop into one of the largest furniture establishments in the state. Tolly's Furniture Store and Fant's Book Store are the oldest business houses in the town. They were started about the same time, and both grew out of previous businesses.

In writing the most modest history of any place it is always the men who are mentioned. But those quiet, useful women who remained in the homes and did well their part, are also largely responsible for the growth, prosperity and tone of a community; and while it is right to tell what "Mayor Tolly" was to Anderson, it is just as well to tell also something about "Mrs. Mayor Tolly." A strong, true woman; devoted member of the First Presbyterian Church. The kindest possible neighbor and a firm friend; she was a most useful woman in her day, and as she grew old, her kindly face and cordial smile were good to see. At the time of her death she left four children, thirteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren; truly she may be regarded as one of the founders of the city.

Mr. Tolly might be called Chronic Mayor of Anderson. He served two years as Intendant before the city was incorporated, and afterwards was mayor from 1884-87, 1890-97, 1900-02, when he retired, not running for the office any more. Mr. Tolly served in the Confederate army throughout the war in Company B, Fourth South Carolina Volunteer Regiment. He became greatly endeared to numbers of the soldiers whom he nursed back to health. His wonderful ability as a nurse for the sick and wounded became so well known that it was officially recognized, and he was often detailed to that duty; always to the delight of the sick soldiers.

Anderson's first jeweler, or watchmaker, was Mr. Samuel Owens. His shop was located in a building on South Main street, the east side between the square and Church street. It was known as "The Broyles Building." Mr. Owens married Miss Jane Robinson, of Pendleton. Mrs. Owens' mother, Mrs. Eliza Robinson, after her husband's death, came to Anderson, and on the corner of Church and McDuffie street, now occupied by the house of Mr. J. J. Fretwell, opened a boarding house for students of the Johnson Seminary and its later development, the Johnson University. Long after the school had passed away, Mrs. Robinson still kept a boarding house in the long, old fashioned house with a piazza across the front. She had a lovely flower garden at the end of the house away from McDuffie street.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens lived in a house which stood somewhat further back on the lot now occupied by the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Harrison on Evins Street. There for several years the young couple lived, and there were born to them three children, a son and two daughters. One unhappy afternoon the wife and mother, worn out with suffering from an aching tooth, took some sedative, and while she slept the house caught fire and she was burned to death. After the tragedy Mr. Owens took the children and went to Florida where he died. One of the daughters is still living in that state.

In the jewelry business succeeding Mr. Owens came Mr. W. K. Harris. Then the firm of Daniels and Reece. With them Mr.

ters married into the Sadler family, which along with the Simpsons had moved from York to Pendleton.

Jane's first husband was James Neely. They had one son, John, who died a young man, though he had married, and left several children. Jane's husband, James Neely, died after a few years, and she married John Boyd.

Other children of Reverend John Simpson remained near the old Pendleton section of the country. The late Mrs. R. F. Divver was a descendant of that pioneer preacher, and the Simpsons have added much to Anderson county. Mrs. Emmie Cathcart and Mrs. Lila Sullivan are also descendants of the family.

The original McFall in this community was John, born at Craig's Head, Antrim, Ireland. Having quarreled with his stepmother, he ran away to sea, landing at Charleston, S. C., in 1784, when he was about sixteen years old. He went to work and became a good business man, owning quite a comfortable property.

Early in the history of Anderson county Mr. McFall became one of its citizens. He possessed a number of slaves and a good plantation near Neal's Creek Church. He married the daughter of another early settler in the community, Miss Mary Norris. Mr. McFall was a proud, rather haughty man, generous and hospitable, and always immaculately dressed, wearing a snowy shirt adorned with ruffles, sometimes lace-trimmed. He was proud of his ancestry, and claimed descent from Mary Queen of Scots.

Mr. McFall left three sons, John, Andrew and Samuel. He and his wife are buried in the Neal's Creek cemetery. Their descendants are among our best people. Those of the name are well known; there are some, however, who bear other names, among them Mr. John McFall Hubbard and Miss Nora Hubbard, to both of whom one collecting Anderson county data has to make frequent appeals, as they know much and remember well.

The name Clinkscales is found everywhere in the Piedmont section, and especially does the family seem to belong to Anderson county. Professor John G. Clinkscales, of Wofford, a scholar and writer of ability, is an Anderson county man. Mr. Fleetwood Clinkscales was for more than fifty years a newspaper man in the town. A youth in 1854, he began as a compositor apprentice in the office of The Southern Rights Advocate. When The Anderson Intelligencer was founded in 1860, Mr. Clinkscales became associated with it. He remained with the same paper until advancing age forced him to retire from active work. Dr. Clinkscales and Mrs. E. W. Masters are members of the family well known to Anderson people.

One of the very first families in the town was that of Robert Wilson. He was a son of William Wilson and his wife, who had been Jane Cunningham. She died in Anderson at the home of one of her children in 1834. Robert had a brother named William. Robert's wife was named Sarah Norton.

The family consisted of three sons and two daughters, all members of Anderson's first "younger set." One son, Joseph, went to Alabama soon after he grew up, and from a few letters written to him by members of the family in Anderson, which have miraculously escaped destruction, brief glimpses may be caught of that far away Anderson; also by reading those simple family letters written when railroad trains and mail service were few and poor, one can understand how near kindred came to lose each other so completely as many of them did long ago.

When Joseph went away, it was merely an experiment, He was trying the western country. His brother, Jeptha, made him a visit, and in a letter written to Joseph soon after his return to Anderson, Jeptha tells him that he told their parents that he thought the reason Joseph did not return with him was that he was going to be married out there. Then there are letters from the mother telling the absent boy that she misses him, and hopes he will soon make them a visit. If he gets married he must be sure to bring his wife to see the home people. In one of her letters to her son, Sarah Wilson tells him of the marriages of a number of his young friends, and as those couples became ancestors of many Anderson people of the present time, the old news is still interesting. Berry Lewis has married Matilda Poole, Gillison Harris weds Matilda Smith, Thomas George marries Matilda Wilson—Matilda seems to have been a popular name—Haynes Whitaker to Maria Drennan, Robert Whitaker to a Georgia lady whose name Mrs. Wilson does not seem to know, Peter Byrum and Mary Ann Drennan, William Archer to Harriet Norris, James McDonald to Elvira Pickens, Baker Gentry to Betsy Moorhead, James Gordon to Miss — (that name is undecipherable), Jesse Smith to Betsey Clark. Since those young couples were married three generations of their descendants have grown up, their grandchildren are the grandparents of the present young people.

In 1837 Jeptha Wilson writes his brother, "I now take the opportunity to inform you that I got home safely, and came in six days and a half." He does not mention the means of transportation. Further he says, "I do want you to come home, for we are in high prosperity. There is more money in the county than I ever saw, every one is able to pay his debts, except those who do not want to do so."

Sanford Vandiver, the first pastor of the Anderson Baptist Church. Young Newton Brown attended school under Wesley Leverette. In 1855 the young man decided to go to Laurens to live. He engaged in merchandising in that place for two years, then entered the law office of Colonel J. H. Irby and began the study of law. He was admitted to the bar in 1858, and became a partner of Colonel Irby. That partnership was dissolved by the death of Colonel Irby in 1860. Then the four years of war intervened, and after the war he married Miss Lizzie Bruce, of Townville, and they made Anderson their home. Colonel Brown has stood very high in the legal profession and in the financial affairs of Anderson for many years. He accumulated the largest property that any one has ever made in the town.

He has been prominent in the Baptist Church all of his life, and has left the greater part of his property to be used for missionary work after the death of his only child, Miss Varina D. Brown.

The Anderson Library received a generous donation at his hands; he gave the lot upon which it was built, and the sum of ten thousand dollars to be invested, and the income used in the upkeep of the library and the purchase of books.

Another of the early settlers in the county was Captain James Thomson. He was one of the commissioners who laid off the town. Captain Thomson's home was on Beaver Creek, near Rocky River. He was the grandfather of Dr. M. A. Thomson.

Among the pioneers was Edward Vandiver, who came from Maryland just after the Revolutionary War. He was born in that State in 1748, and served in the Revolutionary War. He was once a soldier under Captain Andrew Thomas; also he served under Captain Amandus Leslie, and his colonels were Winnie and Easterland. He fought in the battle of Eutaw Spring, and drew a pension from South Carolina. In 1782 he was serving under Colonel Brestling at Four Hole Bridge. He died at his home near Neal's Creek Church in 1837, and is buried in that church yard. Edward Vandiver was the father of twenty children, all boys but two. He was twice married, first to Helena Turley, and second to Catherine Poole. He had seven sons who were Baptist preachers, the most distinguished of whom was Sanford Vandiver.

Another pioneer of the county was David Sadler, also a Revolutionary soldier. He died in 1848 and is buried in Roberts church yard, having been a faithful member of that church. His wife was Miss Eliza Bratton, of York County.

Other families which made their appearance in Anderson with the first tide of emigration are those of Breazeale, Gambrill, Kay, Major, Erskine, Shirley, Long, Roseman, Wellborn, John Goodwyn, to whom public lands had been granted, and who signs his name in a coppper plate hand; Field Farrar, also one to whom public land had been granted (he was sheriff of Ninety-Six district in 1780); Henry Stevens, professor of music; Louis D. Martin, another land grantee in 1789; Thomas Jones, and Betty, his wife, sell land on First creek, a branch of Rocky river. The grant had been made in 1785 to Betty Wilkison, probably some enterprising woman, who had taken up land and was doing something for herself until she fell under the spell of Thomas Jones, and marrying him, lost land as well as liberty and name. Anderson Lee has a grant of land on Hen Coop creek; James Shirley on Rocky River; William Wheeler on the south side of Saluda River, dated October 3rd, 1785. In December, 1798, John Mauldin has a grant of land on "Government Creek," a branch of "Great Rocky Creek." Among early settlers on Six and Twenty Creek appear the names of Jonathan Clark, David Clark, Bolin Clark, George Forbes, John McMakin, Hugh McVay, and James Long. In various other parts of the district appear the names of James Highshaw, William Duncan, Emerial Felton, John Fields, Colonel Richard Lewis, William Walker, Benjamin Dickson, John McAlister, Edward Morgan, Solomon Geer and Thomas Harrison. Most of these men take out brands for their cattle. Duncan Cameron and Mary, his wife, sell land granted them on One Mile creek. John Caruthers, Martha Lemon and Robert Lemon, her son, William Holleman, Justice of the Peace John Miles, James Moreland, on Rocky River; Harry Pearson on Six and Twenty; Joseph Woodall, Joshua Hill, William Hammond, James Martin, Samuel Taylor, "Jon" Winn, Robert Tate has a grant on Seneca river in 1784 (he spells it "Senekaw"); John Hugner, John Postelle, William Lowery, Isaac Titworth, James Crowder, David Brag, Samuel Caldwell, James Hamilton, and Benjamin Farmer.

In 1791 the records begin to be made in Pendleton county, Washington district, not Ninety-Six, as formerly. These good people in place of making oath on the Holy Bible, made their oaths on "The Holy Evangelist," no Hebrew scripture for them to swear by.

Some of the business men of the days preceding the War Between the States were John P. Benson and Joel J. Cunningham, Baylis F. and Thomas S. Crayton, Elias Earle, Alexander Evans and John C. Griffin, Fleetwood Rice and John R. Towers, Alexander B. and Joel J. Towers, Daniel Brown, Stephen McCully, Jesse R. Smith, Asbury M. Holland, J. N. Pendleton, Enoch B. Benson and Son, farthest limit of Anderson. The city, however, has grown beyond it. Peoples street is named for Mr. J. E. Peoples, who once owned that whole section of the town. Webb street faces the last home of the venerable T. J. Webb, now the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. F. Geiger. Tolly street for Mr. G. F. Tolly, beside whose home it ran. Fair street runs back of the old Fair Grounds. Munro street for Judge Munro, whose home faced the end of the street. Brown street for its first resident. Prevost street runs by the side of the lot where, in 1876, America's centennial year, Mr. S. H. Prevost built a beautiful home said to have been modeled on a small scale on one of the centennial buildings. It was always far back from the street in an immense lawn, which has been sold off into building lots and a whole street of houses has been built in front of it, forcing it to face Prevost street. It is the home of Mrs. Oscar Dean and the curving approach has been made very attractive. Murray street from the beautiful home of Major E. B. Murray, which was for years hidden from the world in its almost country solitude, yet within a hundred yards of Main street. Major Murray had a fish pond made on the place which was a source of delight not only to his family but to all of the young people of the town. Boating and bathing were two popular pastimes. One afternoon his daughter, having a party of young visitors, went out in a boat on the pond and in some way the little skiff overturned. Major Murray sprang in to help the girls who could not swim and in some way never understood sank almost immediately and was drowned. The girls got safely to the shore. He was in the prime of life and was considered a brilliant lawyer and newspaper man and his tragic death was a grief to the whole town.

Townsend street, so named from the home of Mr. J. H. Townsend and the lumber business of his son, Mr. Claude Townsend, which were located on that street. Tribble street, from another brilliant Anderson lawyer, Mr. J. L. Tribble, whose house stood where the P. and N. station is located, on the corner of Tribble street and Main. Spring street, because it passes near the old spring known successively as Poole's, Harrison's and Murray's.

Glenn street, from the home of the late Mr. Lawrence Glenn which was located on it. Maxwell avenue, from the home of Mr. J. D. Maxwell, beside which it ran. It is now the home of Mr. A. S. Farmer. Broadwell street, from the name of Mr. W. C. Broadwell near it.

In North Anderson, "Mr. John Lindley's town," the streets are mostly named from their first residents. However, it has one, Holly street, named for a wonderful holly tree that stands on it where it runs into Main street, unless the speed fiends have "got it" in the past two years. Arlington avenue, from the name Mr. M. C. Dicken gave to the beautiful home built by Judge Orr and which has been successively the home of Judge Orr, Mr. O. H. P. Fant, Mr. Will Brown, his son-in-law, and Mr. M. C. Dicken, who came to Anderson to take charge of Chiquola Hotel, fell in love with the beautiful old place, and bought it. After painting and freshening it up, and installing modern conveniences, he furnished it throughout—and lived at the hotel, keeping Arlington, as he called the old place, shut up except when he chose to take parties of his friends out there. It was always immaculately kept and he could serve refreshments whenever he felt disposed. After a few years in Anderson Mr. Dicken returned to Richmond, whence he had come, and sold the place to the late W. R. Osborne, whose sisters still live there.

Evins—not Evans—street was named for Captain William Evins, who gave the ground for the street. He was a merchant in Anderson in the seventies and his home is still standing on Evins street, an old fashioned, two-story house which was the only building anywhere about that locality fifty years ago. He married a daughter of the brilliant lawyer, J. H. Creswell, for whom Creswell avenue is named. Green street and Forest avenue on account of the beautiful trees which adorned them when they were first made.

Boulevard was christened by Mrs. Elizabeth Hammond Bleckley. When that broad, beautiful street was laid off and trees planted on each side she named it Boulevard, hoping that it would some day be equal in beauty to some of the lovely Paris boulevards.

Pecan street and Pecan Grove named from their trees. Welch avenue for Mr. Alonzo Welch who, of his own accord, opened a street through his property and presented it to the city.

Woodrow circle was laid off the first year of Woodrow Wilson's administration and named for him. Osborne street and Dicken avenue both run by the Arlington place and take their names from those two former owners.

Mr. Creswell lived in the country and on his place was a negro graveyard. Some of the dwellers around Woodrow circle, Summit avenue and College Heights lead their daily lives over the bones of many an old time slave. Fortunately for them if now and then a stray dusky ghost shall arise about their dwellings they need have no fear; the gentle spirit of the old time "mamma" or "uncle" will never hurt or disturb the "white folks." It is just looking about the world to see why so many spirits of the later generations of its race are such "ornery" ghosts.

It is not possible to record the history of all of them, but one of the earliest churches in the county, the Concord Baptist, of which Thornton Burke was the first regular pastor, was organized June 8, 1833, as an arm of the Nancy Creek Church in DeKalb County. The charter members were Martin + Mary Ingram, Nathan and Margerett POOLE, Stephen Dale, Rebecca Reed, Franky Reed, Mrs. Sarah Hinkle, Jane Harris, Mary Cox, Benjamin F. and Rachael Collins, Robert and Sarah Carter, James and Nancy Davis, and Lucinda Malone.

surrounding neighborhoods that business has not been so good. At this store there have been taken in, in one year, one hundred and fifty bales of cotton.

DR. DUMAS, a retired physician, whose grandfather came from France, whose father resided in North Carolina, who began to practice in Alabama in 1837, and in this county in 1858, now lives near the Bashi store.

These two families are among the few representatives now in the county of that great nation that once held the control of so large a part of this South East.

CHARLES POOLE, born in Tennessee, came into Alabama in childhood, his father settling near Huntsville when he was about three years of age, and removing to Tuskaloosa when he was about seven years of age. When about twenty-four years of age he came into the county of Clarke. Commenced business at Choctaw Corner in 1846. Cotton was then low, ranging from three and three fourths, to five and three-fourths cents a pound. In a year or two it went up to thirteen cents, and then money was abundant in every one's pocket. The people in the cotton belt had now about recovered from the depressions caused by the financial crash of 1837.

With the exception of an absence for some five years in Mississippi C. Poole has continued in business at the Corner amid all the changes of times for the last thirty years.

(Present merchandizing business of Choctaw Corner, for the year, $30,000. All kinds of business, $40,000.).

The first wife of C. Poole was Miss Fontaine, sister of T. Fontaine of Bashi. She had one daughter, just entering womanhood, who graduated at Summerfield, returned home, and in a few short weeks was numbered with the dead. So brief is sometimes human life. Thus uncertain are all its prospects.

LYCURGUS POOLE, in former years a merchant at the Corner, also married a Miss Fontaine, and after her death he married Miss McCall, who had been a teacher at Suggsville, and whose mother married Elder Goodwin of Choctaw Corner.

T. W. PRICE.

A native of Virginia, born of parents who had been accustomed to wealth and its influences in that old state, T. W. Price has passed an eventful and an instructive life. Born about 1808, accompanying his father, who had then lost his property and also his wife, on a horseback tour to Alabama, he came to Magoffin's Store in Clarke county in 1817, then some nine years of age. He remained with James Magoffin until 1829, during those twelve important years of youth. His father went on to Mobile and died there. An older brother who had accompanied them from Virginia, HENRY PRICE, went to the neighborhood of Clarkesville, worked there for the larger planters, married there, and there died. During the twelve years of residence at Magoffin's Store as clerk in various capacities, T. W. Price acquired habits of economy and industry, of obedience to authority, and of diligence in personal improvement. He saw many distinguished men, formed some valuable acquaintances, and although attending school very little obtained the rudiments of an education.

When twenty-one years of age, leaving his clerkship, he taught a school in the neighborhood for six months, boarding in the family of David Pogue. Of the home training of the children of that family and of their characteristics he formed a high opinion. Children of the Dickinson family and of others near Grove Hill were in this school among his pupils. Although not the earliest this must have been one of the early schools around what became Grove Hill. If not having at this chosen the profession of a teacher, in order to be better fitted for his life work, he went to White Hall, in Marengo county, and attended the school taught by William C. Dickinson.

Remaining there about seven months he obtained a school some six miles from Linden, where he taught two years pleasantly and prosperously, laying the foundations of education for many who became prominent citizens of Marengo. It was now 1832, and having aided by some funds, entering a quarter section of land, purchasing a native African man to commence on this tract plantation life, and, forgetting for the the Magoffin lessons of industry and economy, he bought a fine horse, went to Virginia, and spent the entire year of 1832 in travelling and visiting. Returning to Marengo he taught at the same place for one more year and then in connection with Richard Dickinson took charge of the new brick academy at Linden. His health requiring a change of occupation, in 1834 he became a clerk, continued to improve his plantation, returned to Virginia in 1835 and was married, brought his wife and her servants to his Marengo farm, and commenced raising cotton. In 1836 he obtained for his first crop eighteen and three-fourths cents a pound and expected soon to be rich. The "Flush Times" of Alabama had arrived. "The cotton crops were so

There is also a half brother, Benjamin F., who lives at Grand Rapids, Mich. In the State of his birth the subject of this sketch received a common-school education. In Indiana, and while growing up he learned the carpenter's trade, which he followed for many years. In October, 1861, he joined Company E, Forty-seventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and after taking part in the engagements at New Madrid and Island No. 10, he was discharged for disability in the spring of 1862. However, in August, 1862, he joined Company F, One Hundredth Indiana Infantry, was in the siege of Vicksburg, Chattanooga, Knoxville, and was all through the Georgia campaign with Sherman, and fought at Macon and Bentonville, and was finally at the Grand Review in Washington, D. C. He was slightly wounded in the engagement at Mission Ridge, December 25, 1863. January 20, 1866, he was married in Whitley County, Ind., to Miss Malindah, daughter of Jeremiah and Susan Crider, who removed from Pennsylvania to Ohio, thence to Whitley County, Ind., where Mrs. Crider died and where Mr. Crider still lives engaged in farming. Mrs. Kenaga was born in that county, and her union with Mr. Kenaga has resulted in the birth of five children: Rhoda Alice, wife of William Thornton; Willard Stanley, John M., Maud E. and Peter Paul. In 1870 Mr. Kenaga came to West Plains, where he followed carpentering until 1875, since which time he has been engaged in the lumber business principally, and is doing a thriving business. He is extensively engaged in manufacturing dressed and rough lumber and shingles, in fact deals in all kinds of building lumber. He is one of the pioneer lumber men of the county, and as Mountain View is a railroad point he has prospered and owns 1,840 acres of land and a pretty and comfortable home. That he is a self-made man cannot be denied, for he started in life for himself with no means, and the property of which he has become possessed has been acquired through his own efforts. While in Whitley County, Ind., he held the office of township assessor, and in 1886 was elected associate judge of the Howell County Court from the North District, in which capacity he served two years, and is now a justice of the peace. He is a member of Stonewall Lodge of the I. O. O. F. of West Plains, and belongs to James A. Dallas Post No. 383 of the G. A. R. at Mt. View, of which he was commander two terms. He is now quartermaster. He has always been a Republican politically, and his first presidential vote was cast for Lincoln in 1864. He and his wife have long been members of the Methodist Church, and in the section in which they reside are very highly regarded by its citizens. Mr. Kenaga is a successful and far-seeing man of business, and in the accumulation of worldly goods has been successful.

David M. James. There are few features of business enterprise which contribute a larger quota to the convenience of the residential and transient public than the well-appointed livery stable, and a valuable acquisition to the town of West Plains, Mo., is the establishment of this kind owned and conducted by David M. James. This gentleman owes his nativity to Henry County, Ky., where he was born in 1833, a son of Dr. Beverly W. and Matilda (Day) James, natives of the old State of Virginia and Kentucky, respectively. When a young man Dr. James removed to Kentucky and was there married to Mary Eubank, who died soon after, and after this event he moved to Kentucky, where he eventually married Miss Matilda Day. He was a man of more than ordinary intellectual ability and learning, and as a physician was very successful and well liked. Prior to the birth of the subject of this sketch he lived for a time in Bloomington, Ind., where he taught school, but afterward returned to Kentucky and lived in several different counties. He at one time edited a paper in Newcastle, Ky., and then one in Charlestown, Ind., and was for some years associate judge of the Charlestown, (Ind.) Circuit Court. He was a strong Union man during the war, but took no part in the struggle; was a Democrat in politics and socially was a member of the A. F. & A. M. He died at Jeffersonville, Ind., in 1879, at the ripe old age of eighty-eight years, having long been a worthy member of the Christian Church. His father, Thomas James, is supposed to have been of Welsh extraction. He died in Virginia many years ago, a farmer. Nothing is known of the maternal grandfather, Morgan Day, further than that he was a wealthy slave owner of Kentucky. The wife of Dr. James died in Jeffersonville, Ind., in 1878, also a worthy member of the Christian Church. She bore her husband twelve children: Mary, widow of Isaac Goodwin, of Jeffersonville, Ind.; Martha, widow of Dr. Willis Wallis Goodwin, of Jeffersonville; William deceased; Mariah, the deceased wife of Robert McGill; Hannah, wife of Daniel M. Austin, of Jeffersonville; Matilda, who died young; David M.; Pleasant, a prominent banker of Los Angeles, Cal.; Lucetta and Melissa were twins and died young; Eliza J. is the wife of Dr. Chamberlain, of Jeffersonville. Another child, Presley, died before the subject of this sketch was born. The subject of this sketch was principally reared near the town of Jeffersonville, where he received a limited country-school education. He left home when quite young, joining a United States geological corps, and spent some time in Kentucky, where he was taken sick and sent home. After his recovery he clerked in a country store in Clark County, Ind., for about six months, for which he received $50, after which he followed the same occupation in New Albany and Jeffersonville in various establishments for some time. He then embarked in the confectionery business in Jeffersonville, but in 1857 went to Johnson County, Kan., and took up a claim, conducted a store and was deputy postmaster three years. He then removed to Nebraska and in 1860 crossed the plains with an ox team and took the first cattle train from Denver to Central City. After some months spent in the West, he returned to his parents, who lived in Kentucky, and a year or two later went to Nevada and California, where he spent several years engaged in mining. At one time he and several others crossed a seventy-five-mile desert in southern Nevada and California without water, and for thirty-six hours were without food. Mr. James returned by stage to Kansas, where he continued his journey by rail to his home in Indiana. Later he went to Iowa, thence to Missouri and was married in Clay County of this State in 1868 to Mariah J., daughter of David and Marian Morris, who removed to that section from Mason County, Ky., in 1854, and spent the rest of their lives there, where they became well known and prominent. Mrs. James was born in Mason County, Ky., and has borne her husband five children: The eldest died in infancy, Charles (deceased), Edward, Pleasant, and David (deceased). Mr. James resided in and farmed in Clay County, Mo., until 1881, when he came to West Plains, where he has since successfully conducted a livery business, being now the oldest man engaged in that line of business in the place. He is well known and extremely popular, and his well kept establishment is liberally patronized. He is a member of the K. of P., Crotonia Lodge No. 137, at West Plains, and is a public-spirited, law-abiding and useful citizen.

John Thomas Pool. This successful farmer and stock dealer of Howell County, Mo., owes his nativity to Humphreys County, Tenn., where he first saw the light in 1833. His parents, Joel and Sarah Ann (Thomas) Pool, were worthy people, and the father died in Humphreys County, Tenn., before the subject of this sketch was born. When he was about one year old, he was

rder of a man by the name of

Smith. Clinard became possessed of the idea that Smith had bewitched him, and according to his statement of the case he, with the assistance of Burgess, attempted to arrest Smith. The latter drew a revolver and fired, when Clinard emptied both barrels of his shot-gun into him. During the trial the subject of witchcraft was thoroughly discussed, and the jury were probably somewhat influenced by their own superstitions. A verdict of not guilty was returned.

In February, 1872, the body of an old Welshman, Thomas Nicholas, was found secreted in a ravine in the edge of town. It was evident that he had been murdered. Certain statements made by Hiram Poole and C. J. Mahaffy fixed the crime upon them, and they were arrested. Circumstances also pointed to them as the perpetrators of the deed. The first trial resulted in a verdict of murder in the first degree. The case was appealed to the supreme court and was remanded for another hearing. On the second trial the case was severed, but the jury failed to agree upon a verdict in either case. A third trial was had, which resulted in each being sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of ten years. The defense was conducted by John E. and A. E. Gamer, of Springfield, and John F. House, of Clarksville.

A murder, the details of which are too revolting to be described, was committed August 30, 1880. L. S. La Prade, a bachelor, living entirely alone, near the village of Saddlersville, was supposed to have received a large sum of money from an estate in France, and it was thought that he had secreted it in his house. A conspiracy was formed by a number of negroes to rob him. They went to his house, and calling him to the door they threw a rope around his neck and dragged him out into the yard. To make him tell where his money was secreted they tortured him in every way which fiendish avarice and malignity could invent. He repeatedly told them that he had no money, but this only served to enrage them. After completing their barbarous work they threw the body into a sink-hole, where it was found about ten days afterward. Steps were at once taken to discover the perpetrators of the crime, and Jack Bell and Arch Jamison were arrested. They were lodged in the jail at Springfield, from which, on September 11, they were taken by a mob and hanged in a grove, about five miles west of town. Soon after seven other negroes were arrested for the same crime, and their case came up for a hearing at the February term of the circuit court. Two of them, William Murphy and Andrew Duffy, turned State's evidence and were released. On February 14, 1881, while the trial was in progress, a mob of twenty-five or thirty men surrounded the jail and demanded the prisoners. Judge Stark and Atty.-Gen. Bell appealed to

The regiment containing the greatest number of representatives from Robertson County was the Thirtieth Tennessee Infantry, four companies of which were raised within its limits. After their organization in the latter part of the summer of 1861, the companies went into camp at Red Springs, where the regiment was formed in October. The following were the officers of Company A during its existence: B. G. Bidwell and E. R. Crockett, captains; W. J. Benson and R. B. Crockett, first lieutenants; James M. Barbee and Robert Pool, second lieutenants; A. Thomas and J. W. Crunk, third lieutenants; G. T. Williams, Eugene Burr, J. S. Clinard, J. M. Binkley, R. H. Kizer, W. H. Nave, I. G. Martin, sergeants; J. L. McIntosh, J. C. Bean, F. M. Watts, H. H. Hockersmith, Harris Dowlin, J. W. Murphy and W. G. Martin, corporals. The commissioned officers of Company B, when organized, were William A. Buntin, captain; Robert O. Bigbee, first lieutenant; George Stark, second lieutenant; Samuel Pearson, third lieutenant; Bennet Woodard, orderly sergeant. Of Company H, the officers were R. E. Mays, captain; John De Mombreun, first lieutenant; Thomas Bell, second lieutenant; George Hockersmith, third lieutenant; William Holmes, orderly sergeant. Company K, was commanded by J. L. Jones. The first lieutenant was H. L. Covington; second lieutenant, W. M. Burney; third lieutenant, S. B. Jarnigan; sergeants, C. J. Frey, Jesse Evans, J. H. Burney and K. P. Luton; corporals, R. C. Tate, L. K. Barry, J. Luton and J. T. Jarnigan.

In November the regiment was ordered to Fort Donelson, where it remained until the surrender of that fort in the following February. After that event the privates were sent to Camp Butler, Illinois, the company officers to Johnson's Island, near Sandusky, Ohio, and the field and staff officers to Fort Warren. They remained at their respective prisons until September, 1862, when they were exchanged, the field officers at Harrison's Landing, and the company officers and privates at Vicksburg. The exchanged prisoners were ordered into camp at Jackson, and were directed to reorganize the companies and regiments. Capt. Bidwell was elected major, and E. R. Crockett was chosen to command Company A. Capt. Mays, who had died in prison, was succeeded by C. S. Douglas. The other captains remained the same as before.

After the reorganization of the regiment it was ordered to Holly Springs to aid in checking Grant, and from that time until the surrender of Johnston in May, 1865, it was almost continuously in active service, Pardue and M. M. Stewart became the lieutenants; B. P. Bradley, S. H. Bradley, C. J. C. Shivers, Jonathan Hollis and T. B. Pardue became sergeants. Lieut. G. W. Hale escaped capture at Fort Donelson and joined Forrest's cavalry. Lieut. John C. Hale returned home after the reorganization. Lieut. A. W. Stewart returned home in 1864, and D. C. Pardue then became first lieutenant and acting captain, Capt. Lowe having been appointed inspector-general on the staff of Gen. J. B. Palmer.

The following were killed in battle: William Morgan, at Fort Donelson; Joe Bryan, Thomas Felts, Joe Bidwell and Thomas Miles, at Murfreesboro; Spencer and Samuel De Munbreun, Henry Felts and Thomas Williams, at Chickamauga; James Thaxton and Benjamin Parker, at Resaca; William Smith, at New Hope Church, Ga., and Capt. Lowe at Bentonville, N. C. The following died of disease: Lieut. R. M. Ray, Frank Thaxton, George Shores, W. W. Carney, Brit Nicholson, Jacob Binkley, James Douglas and Thomas Perry. The first three died in prison. Discharged on account of disabilities: R. C. Pardue, Henry Pool, Sr., L. L. Williams, B. F. Batts and Green Hunt. The following took the oath of allegiance to the United States while in prison and were released: Isaac Russell, A. H. Pool, N. P. Pool and A. C. Galloway. The following, together with officers already named, served to the close of the war: E. W. Carney, William Carney, S. A. Thomas, A. T. Shores, J. T. Eatherly, William Eatherly and John Boyd. This company was composed of 100 men, and was in all the important battles fought by the Confederate Army of Tennessee, excepting Shiloh.

Company G Forty-second Tennessee Infantry. This company was raised in the northern part of the county in June, 1861, and joined its regiment in September of that year. At the election for officers Dr. I. B. Walton became captain and Dr. James E. Cage, George M. Pardue and A. H. Morris, lieutenants. The sergeants elected were G. W. Weakley, I. W. Watson, J. D. Council, J. D. Nicholson and G. W. Pickering. This company was also captured at the fall of Fort Donelson, and carried to prison at Camp Douglas, Chicago. Capt. Walton and Lieut. Company G, Fiftieth Tennessee Infantry. In the fall of 1861, a number of men, named below, went from this county to Fort Donelson and joined this company. At the fall of that place they were also captured and taken to prison to Camp Douglas, Chicago. They were exchanged in September, 1862, and at their reorganization Samued Mayes, one of their number, was elected captain of the company. H. A. Shelton, who was orderly-sergeant of the company, was killed in battle. The following died of disease: Gabriel De Munbreun, Abner Patton and A. J. Shearon; and the following, together with Capt. Mayes, served to the close of the war: T. M. Hale, Abner Page, William Shearon, John Gallaher, Hunter Gower, Owen and Claiborne Hooper, D. T. Dozier, Mashac, Stephen and John S. Hale, G. W. Miles and W. W. Thompson. Jeff South was lost at Fort Donelson. The foregoing does not give the names of all the soldiers furnished by this county for the Confederacy in the late war. The failure to do so is because the rolls have been lost and the names could not all be obtained. The county furnished a large number of soldiers, and though they fought in a lost cause, their valor on the field of battle, their patriotism, and their love of home and country, have never been excelled.

The history of Ashland City begins and is connected with the organization of the county. It was surveyed and platted in 1856 under the direction of the commissioners appointed by the first county court for that purpose. The public square on which the court house stands is 300x600 feet, and the town lots are of various sizes—some 50x135 feet,

He does a general business and propagates all the leading varieties of each class. He is doing an extensive and paying business and his goods may be relied upon as first-class. He is very reasonable in his prices and is doing well financially.

Simeon W. Barbee, editor, was born January 9, 1839, in Lawrence County, Ala. His father, James Barbee, was a Virginian of French descent and served in the war of 1812, was a breveted captain, a farmer and spent all his married life in northern Alabama. He had several brothers, one of whom immigrated to Indiana and settled at Indianapolis about forty years ago. Another brother, Capt. Tranis Barbee, died recently at his home near Courtland, Ala., at the advanced age of ninety-two years. Our subject's mother's maiden name was Sallie Ready, an Alabamian, to whom his father was married about the year 1824. She was a woman of vigorous intellect and of strong physical powers, as also was his father. At the early age of twelve years his mother embraced religion and joined the Methodist Church, in whose communion she lived and died. She was a Christian in every sense of the term. To his parents were born eight children—three daughters and five sons—all of whom in early life connected themselves with the Methodist Church. Two of his sisters have died, also two brothers. Four of our subject's brothers became ministers of the gospel. One of these is now pastor of McKendree Church, Nashville, Tenn., and is receiving a salary of $4,000 per annum. He has been a preacher thirty-four years. One brother, John A. Barbee, is a regular physician of Texas, a graduate from Vanderbilt University, of Tennessee. His parents were not wealthy and they taught their children self-reliance and independence of character. They worked nine months and went to school three months during the year. At the age of seventeen our subject was admitted to the academy at Somerville, Ala., conducted by Z. F. Freeman and D. L. Lakin, and there received the training that affected the current of his whole after life. He began teaching in 1857 when not quite nineteen years of age. In October, 1859, he joined Tennessee Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, since which time he has been pastor and school-teacher. In August, 1884, he became the publisher and editor of The Reporter, a weekly Democratic paper, published at Ashland City, Tenn., in which business he is now engaged. He was married June 6, 1865, to Lizzie A. Gold, of Montgomery County, Tenn. The fruits of this union are eight children, four of whom are with the angels and four remain.

son of Mary Batts, who was a native of Tennessee. John T. was educated in the district schools of his native county and has followed the occupation of farming from boyhood. He settled on the farm where he now lives in 1866. He owns 190 acres of well improved land, a part of which is in a high state of cultivation. He has earned all he has by the sweat of his own brow and is now in very comfortable circumstances. He also keeps a general merchandise store which is bringing him in good returns. He was united in marriage to Martha W. Pool, January 7, 1854. She was born August 9, 1834, and was the daughter of James and Mason Pool, born in Tennessee. She has borne her husband these children: William T., Thomas J., James H., Mary A., Nancy, Benjamin W., Albert C. J., Alfonso and Van Buren. The Batts family are of Irish descent and favor Democratic principles. Mr. and Mrs. Batts are members of the Christian Church and are highly respected people.

Thomas Bell was born in what is now Cheatham County, August 6, 1830. His parents, Thomas and Judy S. Bell, were natives of North Carolina, and were married in the early part of this century, and became the parents of seven children—three sons and four daughters, namely: John, Martha, Rebecca, Mary, Cynthia, Jessie and Thomas. The subject of this sketch was the last child born to this union. He attended the district schools in boyhood and acquired a common school education. He has always followed the occupation of farming and owns 800 acres of good and well improved land, upon which he raises principally corn, wheat and tobacco. He was married fo Rosona Harris in 1852. To them were born these children: William T., Sarah E., Henry and Rosona. Mrs. Bell died in 1871, and in 1872 Mr. Bell married Nancy Williams, who bore him five children, viz.: Mary R., John W., Maggie O., Nancy and Judas E. The Bell family have been known in this State for nearly a century. They are good citizens and are well known and respected. Mr. Bell is of Scotch-Irish descent, a Democrat and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Abner F. Bidwell was born in Tennessee October 10, 1839, son of Charles Bidwell, who was born in Connecticut in 1787, and is of English descent, a descendant of John Bidwell, who emigrated from England in the seventeenth century and died in 1683. When a young man the father of our subject came to Tennessee and finally located in Robertson County, where he made the acquaintance of Mrs. Martha (Binkley) Shaw, his future wife. She was a German by descent, and to them were born eight children. Those now living are Charles M., Belle G., Sarah B., Frey, Julia A. and Abner F., our subject. The father died in 1848 and the mother in 1855. Abner attended the com-state of cultivation, and now has it stocked with thoroughbred Jersey cattle. He has one of the finest herds of Jerseys in this part of the State, and has taken much pleasure in them. He was united in marriage, January 31, 1867, to Miss Minor De Graffenreid, of Williamson County, Tenn. By this union he has the following children: Fontaine D., Margaret M., Susie Bell, William M., Jr., Thomas M. and Robert H.

Jesse A. Davidson was born and reared in the county where he now lives January 31, 1851. His father, Absalom Davidson, was of English descent, and died in the county of his birth (Montgomery) in 1854. He was first married to Martha Whitworth, by whom he had three children: John W., Elijah F. and William H. After his first wife's death, which occurred about 1846, he married Margaret Stephens, a native of Sumner County, Tenn., and of English descent. To his last marriage were born these children: James T., Elizabeth, Jesse A. (our subject), Rufus M. and Alice E. Jesse A. was educated in the common schools of his native county, and has always followed the life of an agriculturist. On October 16, 1881, he wedded Margaret Walls, who was born in Montgomery County, June 21, 1862, daughter of Esquire Walls, a resident of the same county. To Mr. and Mrs. Davidson have been born two sons: Jesse H., born June 5, 1883, and George W., born March 21, 1885. Mr. Davidson is a Democrat, and he and wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Thomas G. Davie, was born in Montgomery County, Tenn., September 24, 1847, and is the fourth of five children born to William and Mary (Poole) Davie, natives of North Carolina. His father was born in the year 1796, and died in the year 1866. His mother was born in 1812, and died in 1852. His father immigrated to this State in the early part of the present century, and located on a portion of the farm on which our subject now lives. Mr. Thomas Davie is a life-long farmer and a stanch Democrat. In 1878 he moved to the farm on which he now lives on Little West Fork of Red River, the principal products of which are corn, wheat and tobacco. He was educated in the common schools of the county, and is an intelligent and enterprising farmer.

Clay E. Dean was born in Clarksville, Montgomery Co., Tenn., January 7, 1848, and is the youngest of seven children born to Elijah H. and Jane B. (McCarroll) Dean. His father is a native of South Carolina, and came to Tennessee with our subject's grandfather when quite young.. Our Subject's mother is a native of Tennessee, and passed from his world to the better one January 23, 1853. His father then married Miss Jane Baily, a native of Pennsylvania. There were three children born to this union. On January 13, 1878, Mr. Elijah Dean quietly departed this life. Our

Rev. F. M. Seamster was born in Schuyler County, Mo., in 1848, and is a son of Rev. Williamson Seamster, who was born in Virginia in 1817. He was reared in his native State, and afterward went to Kentucky, where he was united in marriage to Miss Susan Rigsbee, a native also of Virginia. They lived in Kentucky until 1837, and then moved to Missouri, where they spent the remainder of their days. The mother's death occurred in 1874, and the father afterward married Mary A. Pendergraff, by whom three children were born to him. He died in 1884. Sixteen children blessed his first marriage. Rev. F. M. Seamster was educated in Missouri, and after coming to Arkansas in 1879 became a minister of the Missionary Baptist Church, and has been actively engaged in that calling up to the present time. He is at the present time pastor of two churches on Pea Ridge, and has done much to further the cause of Christianity. He was married in 1873 to Miss Amanda Dunagan, a daughter of Elder Dunagan, of Rogers, Ark., and by her is the father of five children Carrie L., John William, Cora E., George M. and Robert M. Mr. Seamster is now living at Avoca, where he has a good farm and one of the largest orchards of small fruits in Benton County. He is a Democrat, also a Master Mason.

Mrs. Martha Sellers, the daughter of Clark and Mary Smith, was born October 13, 1840, in Bates County, Mo. The father was born and reared in Pennsylvania, and immigrated from that State to Missouri when quite a young man. He settled in Bates County, purchased land, and devoted his time exclusively to farming and stock raising. The mother was born in Bartholomew County, Ind., and when a young woman emigrated westward with her father. They first settled in Cole County, Mo., but later removed to Bates County, of the same State, and finally settled in Benton County, Ark., where she passed her last days. The father died in Louisiana. Grandfather and Grandmother Smith were from Pennsylvania, and moved to Bates County, Mo., where they were living when they received their final summons. The majority of their children went to California during the gold excitement of 1849. Mrs. Sellers continued to live with her mother and relatives until about seventeen years of age, when she was married to Joel F. Sellers, a native of Warren County, Tenn., who immigrated to Arkansas in 1841. To this union were born seven children, all now living: William C., Hugh A., Robert L., James H., Emma D., Fannie B. and John F. After marriage Mr. and Mrs. Sellers settled on the farm where she is now living, and here Mr. Sellers occupied his time in tilling the soil until his death. Mrs. Sellers is now conducting the farm with the assistance of her sons who are living at home. The farm consists of 240 acres, 140 acres under cultivation. Hugh Sellers, Mrs. Sellers' second son, continued to live with his mother until his marriage. He received a fair education in the common schools, and at the age of twenty-three married Miss Amanda Williams, daughter of John Williams, who is one of the oldest settlers of Benton County, having removed from Missouri to Arkansas when a boy. The daughter was born and reared in Franklin County, Ark., and by her marriage to Mr. Sellers became the mother of one child, David C. Since marriage Mr. Sellers has been engaged in business for himself, and is now occupied in farming in this county. He is a strong Democrat in his political views, not for policy, but from principle and his own honest convictions.

Dr. Newton Sewell, physician and druggist, of Springtown, Ark., is a native of Forsyth County, Ga., born May 24, 1853, and is a son of Aaron J. and Kittie Evaline (Moore) Sewell, who were born in South Carolina and North Carolina, respectively. The father is now residing in Dawson County, Ga., and is a farmer and member of the Baptist Church. He served three years in the Confederate army during the late war, and is a son of Joshua Sewell, a native of Maryland, and of Irish and German descent. The mother died in Georgia. Dr. Newton Sewell received his primary education in the schools of his native county, and afterward entered the Atlanta (Ga.) Medical College, and was graduated as an M. D. from that institution in 1880. He immediately began practicing his profession in Cherokee County, Ga., but in 1886 came to Springtown, Ark., where he has since made his home, and where he has a large and lucrative practice. He ranks among the first physicians of the county, and deserves much credit for his success in life, and his education was obtained through his own unaided efforts. He is a member of the drug firm of Sewell & Enterkin, and belongs to the Masonic fraternity. January 11, 1872, he was married to Miss Matilda C. Pool, and six of their seven children are living: Elsie Alice, Lenora Theodocia, Laura A. E., Oscar V., Agnes E., Pearl and Maggie Estelle. Mrs. Sewell was born in Forsyth County, Ga., and is a daughter of Dr. M. L. Pool. Dr. Sewell and family attend the Baptist Church.

Thomas Christopher Sheffield, farmer and stock raiser, was born in Henry County, Va., May 24, 1819, and is a son of Leonard and Lucy (Wooten) Sheffield, both of whom were born in the "Old Dominion," where the mother is still living. Leonard Sheffield was a cabinet workman and carriage maker by trade, and was a soldier in the War of 1812. He belonged to the Free Masons, and died in Henry County, Va., in 1839, aged about sixty years. His father, Joseph Sheffield, was born in England, and at an early day came to America, serving in the Revolutionary War. Thomas C. Sheffield was reared and educated in his native county, and at the age of twenty-one years was married to Martha N. Martin, also born in Henry County, September 14, 1821, and a daughter of Stephen and Sally (Fisher) Martin. The father was a farmer and shoemaker, and a son of Joseph Martin, who was a soldier throughout the Revolutionary War, and served as first lieutenant. His wife was born in Virginia and was a daughter of John Fisher, a farmer. After his marriage Thomas Sheffield spent three years as overseer on the plantation of Col. A. B. Staples, in Patrick County, Va. The following year he was overseer in Stokes County, N. C., for David Dalton. He then entered the employ of Sam Hairstin, who owned 1,500 slaves, and was overseer on his plantation for five years. He then served in the same capacity for two years for Robert Matthews, three years with William Poindexter, one year with William Lash, three years with his brother, William A. Sheffield, who owned fifty slaves, then one year with his uncle, Jesse Wooten. At this time he quit overseeing and engaged in farming and tobacco growing, which he made a success. He erected the first tobacco barn in Benton County, Ark. In 1860 he removed to Dallas County, Tex., where he was successfully engaged in farming and stock raising. Since 1866 he has resided in Benton County, Ark. He commenced life without means, but by industry and good management has accumulated considerable property, reared a large family, and has assisted all his children in making a start in life. He has a farm or 200 acres, with 160 under cultivation. His marriage was blessed in the birth of thirteen children, six of whom are living: Lucy, wife of Fred O'Dell; George, Thomas, Mary, wife of William Walker, and Jesse. His sons, Leonard, George and Thomas, were Confederate soldiers in the late war, and during that time Leonard died in Mississippi. Thomas was Kirby Smith's orderly-sergeant.

Thomas E. Sheffield, a prosperous young farmer, stock raiser and merchant at Robinson, Ark., was born at Horse Pasture, Henry Co., Va., February 19, 1846, and is a son of Thomas C. Sheffield, whose sketch is given in this work. He grew to manhood in Dallas County, Tex., and was educated there and in his native State. In the fall of 1863, at the age of seventeen years, he entered the service of Gen. Kirby Smith, at Shreveport, La., and served as his courier until the close of the war. He then returned to Texas, and engaged in farming on his father's homestead. In the spring of 1866 he came to Benton County, Ark., and was here married two years later to Mary E. Walker, who was born in Benton County in December, 1849, and by her became the father of three children: Jesse Thomas, William Leonard and Ellen Joan. Mr. Sheffield's means, when married, did not exceed $500, but by energy and perseverance he has accumulated a fine property. He has a good farm of 307½ acres, and a house and lot in Robinson, besides his stock of general merchandise, which amounts to about $1,800. He is a Master Mason, and he and family are attendants at the Christian Church.

John J. Shores is a Wilkes County North Carolinian, and was born on the 7th of December, 1832. He is a son of William and Polly (Lyon) Shores, and grandson of Simeon Shores. William Shores was married about 1829, and removed to Jackson County, Mo., about 1840. Here he remained one year, and then located in Harrison County, of the same State. At the breaking out of the war he removed to Des Moines, Iowa, where he remained until its close. After residing alternately in Arkansas and Missouri, he died in the latter State October 11, 1875, at the age of sixty-seven years. His wife was born in North Carolina, and died in Benton County, Ark., February 4, 1888. She was a daughter of John and Annie Lyon, and became the mother of seven children: Amanda (deceased), John, Lewis, Mary Ann (wife of John Long), William H. (deceased), Nashville. He was a farmer all his life, and lived in Tennessee until a young man, when he went to Conway County, Ark., and here married Miss Jones. He remained in this county until 1844, when he moved to within a mile of Goshen, Ark., and there received his final summons. His death occurred about 1870. The mother was born in Kentucky, and died on the old homestead near Goshen about 1874. They were the parents of nine children, six now living: B. F., Susan (wife of Levi Phillips), John J., Elizabeth (widow of Charles Phillips), Richard M. and Ellery W. B. F. Clark was the oldest of this family. He remained at home until twenty-one years of age, and then engaged in farming near Goshen. He has always lived in this vicinity, and on the present farm for twenty-one years. This farm consists of 140 acres, eighty under cultivation. He was married March 22, 1855, to Miss Martha A. Counts, who was born in Madison County, Ark., October 13, 1838. They had twelve children, ten of whom lived to be nearly grown and nine now living: John H., George H. (deceased), William H., Benjamin F., Jr., Henry M., Ashley, Lawson, Eliza J., Mary, Sarah and two infants who died unnamed. Mr. and Mrs. Clark are members of the Primitive Baptist Church, and Mr. Clark has always been a firm Democrat in politics. During the late war he was in the Confederate service for four years; was wounded in the right leg, and carried the ball six months. This wound was received at Fayetteville and will cripple him all his life.

Ellery W. Clark. This prominent and widely known farmer was born in Washington County, Ark., on the farm where he now lives, August 22, 1852, the son of Norris and Lucinda (Jones) Clark. The father was born in Tennessee in 1809, was reared in that State, and when a young man came to Conway County, Ark., where he followed agricultural pursuits until coming to the farm one mile south of Goshen. Here he continued farming, and here he died December 29, 1869. The mother was born in Kentucky in 1811, and died in Washington County, Ark., December 9, 1873. They were members of the Regular Baptist Church, and were the parents of nine children, six now living, viz.: Benjamin F.; Susan H., wife of Levi Phillips; Polly, deceased; Nimrod, deceased; John J.; Elizabeth M., widow of Charles Phillips; Richard M., Norris, deceased, and Ellery W. The last named was reared on the farm, and assisted his father in tilling the soil, until after the death of both parents, when he continued to improve and farm the old home place. He has 180 acres, 120 under cultivation, and a fine two-story residence, one of the best in the neighborhood. April 3, 1873, he married Miss Ann Garrett, daughter of James B. and Charity Garrett. She became the mother of ten children: Walter K., James, Joseph H., Edgar, Pearl, Jewell, Garrett, Norris, Ruby and Grace. Mr. Clark is a Democrat in politics; has never aspired to official positions, but is one of the prominent and successful farmers of the county.

Damon Clarke, proprietor and editor of the Fayetteville Republican, was born at Macomb, McDonough Co., Ill., May 20, 1861. He received a fair common-school education during his youth, and in 1879 went to Topeka, Kas., where he remained one year, being employed as a clerk. He then became connected with C. C. Chapman & Co., publishers, of Chicago, and remained with them until the fall of 1881, when he joined the historical corps of J. H. Beers & Co. (subsequently Warner, Beers & Co.), for whom he worked until the fall of 1883. The following winter he was employed as secretary of the Union Publishing Company, of Springfield, Ill., after which he traveled a year as general agent for a Grand Army of the Republic history. In November, 1884, he came to Bentonville, Ark., where his parents, C. C. and Martha (Lea) Clarke, still reside. In February, 1886, he purchased the Springdale News, selling it in December of the same year to enter into a copartnership with Thomas Brooks in the purchase of the Fayetteville Republican, of which Mr. Clarke became manager and editor. In January, 1888, he assumed the sole proprietorship of that organ. Mr. Clarke is a member of the Arkansas Press Association, and belongs to the Young Men's Republican Club, of Fayetteville. He was also a charter member and the first prelate of Criterion Lodge of the K. of P., of Fayetteville. He is now secretary of the Washington County Republican Central Committee, and has been secretary of the Congressional Committee of his party. In 1888 he was an alternate delegate from the Fifth Arkansas Congressional District to the National Republican Convention.

Charles T. Clayton, farmer and brick-maker of Center Township, Washington Co., Ark., was born in Cooper County, Mo., October 21, 1831, and is a son of John and Sarah (Leath) Clayton. John Clayton was born and reared in Eastern Maryland, and in his youth learned the harness maker's trade. He obtained a good education and began the study of medicine, but before completing his course enlisted in the War of 1812, nearly losing his eyesight during one of the battles of that war by the explosion of a piece of artillery, and was never afterward able to resume his studies. After the war he immigrated to Cooper County, Mo., in 1828, and the remainder of his days were spent in agricultural pursuits and working at his trade. He and his wife were married in 1817 and became the parents of seven children, three of whom are living: Charles T., Martha (wife of John Killbrith) and William. The father died in 1859, and the mother in 1832. Charles T. Clayton was educated in the common schools of Cooper County, Mo., and in 1856 was married to Talitha Hammond, who was born and reared in Cooper County. They soon after located on a farm in Denton County, Tex., but in 1861 Mr. Clayton enlisted in the Confederate army, and was wounded and taken prisoner at the battle of Chickamauga and taken to Camp Douglas, Chicago, Ill., where he was retained until peace was declared. He then returned to his home in Texas, where he remained engaged in farming and stock dealing until 1867, when he located in Washington County, Ark., on the farm of 220 acres where he now lives. In 1856 he engaged in the manufacture of brick, and now manufactures about 50,000 brick annually. In 1871 his wife died, and the following year he was married to Mary Hawkins, of Cooper County, Mo., by whom he is the father of one child, Thomas. His first union was blessed in the birth of six children: Lucy, wife of William Tucker; Sarah, wife of John Gibson; Mary, wife of Charles Norwood; Lizzie, wife of Joseph Lasater; Talitha and John. He takes an active interest in the cause of Christianity, and organized the first Sunday-school in Center Township, beginning with his own family. Owing to the rapid growth of the school he was compelled to move to the school-house, and has always been an active worker for the Baptist Church. He is a Democrat in politics, and is a member of the Agricultural Wheel.

Samuel T. Cole. The mercantile and farming interests of Washington County, Ark., are well represented by the gentleman whose name heads this sketch. His birth occurred in Jones County, Ga., October 19, 1831, but he was reared to manhood in Kemper County, Miss. He remained with his father until he attained his majority, and then came to Arkansas in 1858, locating in Yell County, where he was married September 25, 1860, to Mary E. Woods. She was born September 20, 1839, in Tennessee and reared in Mississippi, and was the daughter of John Woods (deceased). Up to 1874 they resided in Yell County, but since that time have been residents of Cane Hill Township. He purchased a farm of thirty-six acres, on which is a neat one-story residence and a fine orchard of fifteen acres of well-selected fruits. Since 1887 he has been engaged in merchandising in the town of Boonsboro, carrying a good and fairly large stock. He is one of the directors and treasurer and the largest stockholder in the Cane Hill Canning and Evaporating Factory, and is one of the enterprising citizens of the county. He is the father of the following family: Amanda B., wife of S. J. Harris, of Dardanelle; Dr. John W., of Boonsboro; O. H., who is in the store with his father; Lula L., Mattie I., Mary L. and Carl G. Samuel Walter died in 1884, at the age of fifteen years. Mr. Cole's parents, Reuben and Celia (Wadsworth) Cole, were born in Richmond County, N. C., and Jones County, Ga., respectively. They were married in the latter State, and there made their home until 1841, when they moved to Kemper County, Miss., the father dying in Kemper County April 25, 1857, the mother in Washington County January 26, 1877. He was a soldier in the Creek War, and was major in the State militia of Georgia.

Prof. J. W. Coltrane, of the Northwestern Normal, situated at Springdale, Ark., was born in Randolph County, N. C., June 27, 1852. The Coltrane family are of Scotch-Irish descent, and first came to America in 1665, locating in North Carolina. Here Branson Coltrane, the father of Prof. J. W., was born June 7, 1823, and is still living. His wife, whose maiden name was Martha L. Pool, was born in 1827, and died in 1879, after becoming the mother of nine children. Prof. Coltrane was reared on the old homestead in North Carolina, and after attaining a suitable age entered Trinity College, from which institution he was graduated in June, 1876, with the degree of A. B. Previous to his entering college he had been engaged in teaching, and after graduating he Miles, Sarah, Lucinda, James, Joseph and John. Thomas A. left a widow and one child; Sarah is the wife of William Stilley, and Miles is married, but living at home with his parents. The remainder are unmarried and at home. Mr. Spurlock is a successful farmer and cattle and stock raiser. He belongs to the Knights of the Horse, and his wife is a member of the Christian Church.

W. B. Sumner was born in Washington County, Ark., May 4, 1834, and is a son of John C. and Mary A. (Robinson) Sumner, natives of New York and Kentucky, respectively. The father immigrated to Washington County, Ark., in an early day and engaged in farming until coming farther east, to Madison County, about 1826, where he died after the war. The mother came to Arkansas when a girl, and died in this State about 1860. She had seven children, six of whom grew to maturity: John A., W. B., James L., Elizabeth A., Hiram B., Albert A., and one who died in childhood. Our subject was but a child when he came with his parents to St. Paul, where he grew to maturity, and afterward engaged in farming. He moved upon his present place about 1868, and now owns 120 acres of valley land, and has been known as a successful farmer. He is now engaged in the mercantile business at Grant in partnership with Marrs & Co. In 1859 he married Lucinda Bolinger, daughter of Fred Bolinger. Mr. and Mrs. Sumner have lost two children: Mary I. and Nancy B. Both husband and wife belong to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Mr. Sumner is a Republican in politics, and has held the office of constable. He is a Master Mason and one of the leading men of the township.

Robert J. Taylor is a son of Tarpley and Lydia (Secrest) Taylor, and was born in Warren County, Ind., June 26, 1835. His parents were both reared in Fleming County, Ky., and when young immigrated to Indiana. In 1845 they moved to Iowa, where the father died in 1855 and the mother in 1872. Their family consisted of seven sons and three daughters, one of each now deceased. Our subject passed his life from the age of ten until maturity in Iowa upon the farm, remaining with his mother two years after the death of his father. After 1857 he farmed ten years in Franklin County, Kas., and then located upon his present farm nine miles east of Huntsville, where he has a farm of 135 acres, forty-two being in orchard. He is an extensive fruit grower, and possesses over 4,100 fruit trees, raising some of the finest fruit in this region. In 1858 he married Isabella Kay, a native of Preston, Lancashire, England, who was born in 1839, and was brought to America at the age of five years by her parents. Her youth was principally spent in Providence, R. I., and Wisconsin. Mrs. Taylor is the mother of the following children: Eliza J. (deceased), Tarpley (now in Mexico), Lydia E. (deceased), John, Charles H., Joseph W. and Amanda (twins), Dick, Francis and an infant deceased. Mrs. Taylor is a member of the Baptist Church. Mr. Taylor is a member of the Masonic fraternity and a highly respected citizen, in politics working with the Democrats. Besides his other property he owns twenty acres on Crystal Mountain near the crystal upheaval.

Joseph Thomas, Sr., was born in Harlan County, Ky., June 26, 1817, and is a son of James and Polly (Johnson) Thomas, who were North Carolinians, and after their marriage moved to Kentucky, and were among the early white settlers of Harlan County. They were about seventy-two years of age at the time of their respective deaths. The father was a soldier in the War of 1812, and during the late war was a stanch Union man. They were church members, and their union was blessed in the birth of fifteen children. Their son Joseph began earning his own living at the age of sixteen years, and was a farm laborer until he was twenty-one years old. He then came to Madison County, Ark., and here he has since resided, engaged in farming. He is a great lover of hunting, a noted shot, and has had many interesting adventures while on his hunting expeditions, all kinds of game having fallen a victim to his skill. In 1842 he was married to Polly, a daughter of John Bailey, an old settler of Madison County, Ark. She was born in Knox County, Tenn., in December, 1826, and became the mother of twelve children, six of whom are living: T. W., D. C., William M., Albert B., Andrew J. and D. B. Mr. Thomas is a Republican, and in 1862 enlisted in Company G, First Arkansas Infantry, but at the end of twenty-one months was discharged on account of disability. He was in the battle of Fayetteville and several skirmishes, and was a member of the Brothers of Freedom.

A. L. Thompson, merchant, railroad and express agent, of Combs Station, was born in Wayne County, Ind., in 1836, and is a son of Joseph and Mary Ann (Mills) Thompson. The father was a native of North Carolina, and from there moved to Tennessee, and thence to Indiana. In the spring of 1838 he immigrated with his family to White River, residing one and a half miles from Durham Station until 1848, when he returned to Indiana. The mother was born in Tennessee in 1818, and was a daughter of Seth T. Mills, and of Irish descent. Mr. Mills was a Quaker and one of the early settlers of Wayne County, Ind. He moved from there to Washington County, Ark., and became the possessor of more than 1,000 acres of land on the middle fork of White River. He was the father of ten children: Aaron, Henry, Enos, Mary Ann, Lettie (now Mrs. Lewis), Rachel (now Mrs. Van Hoose), Seth, Lindsey, Jacob and an infant who died. All those living to maturity were given 160 acres of land, Jacob receiving the home place. He was killed by bushwhackers during the war. Mrs. Lewis is the only child now living. Mr. Mills died in 1876, at an advanced age, and his wife, Charity (Thornsbury) Mills, died in 1875. The mother of our subject, Mary Ann, was first married to Matthew Massey, by whom she had four children: Sylvester, William, Elizabeth and Jane, all deceased. After the death of Mr. Massey, his widow wedded Mr. Thompson, and to them the following children were born: Aaron L., Henry, Seth, Polly and John. Henry was shot during the war, while standing by the side of his mother and sister, and Seth died of measles while in the Confederate service, in 1863. John lives in Crawford County, Ark.; and Polly, now Mrs. Wilson, lives in Joplin, Mo. The mother's death occurred in 1885. Our subject grew to manhood in Washington County, and at the age of twenty-two engaged in farming on his own account. He served two years as constable, and was then elected justice of the peace, serving as such two years. In 1863 he enlisted in Company I, First Regiment Arkansas Infantry, and was discharged at Fort Smith August 10, 1865, having reached the rank of first lieutenant. In September, 1865, he was re-elected justice of the peace. In 1868 he came to St. Paul and served in the same capacity four years, after which he was appointed registrar of Madison County by the governor. In 1882 he was elected county judge, and served as such one term. He first embarked in the mercantile line at St. Paul in 1868, and his business at Combs Station was established in the spring of 1887. In October, 1860, he married Sarah J. Pool, by whom he had six children: Claiborne (deceased), Henry, Sherman and Grant (twins), Edwin M. Stanton and Mary Bell (deceased). The mother died December 5, 1869, and July 8, 1870, Mr. Thompson wedded Mrs. Eliza A. (Summer) Prater, daughter of John C. Summer. This lady's first husband was I. H. Bollinger, by whom she had the following children: De Witt C., John A., Harrison A. and Walter A. Her marriage with Mr. Prater was blessed with but one child, Alfred W. To Mr. and Mrs. Thompson have been born Milton, Cora, Floyd and Clara. The first and last named are now deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are members of the Missionary Baptist Church. Mr. Thompson is a Republican, a Royal Arch Mason, a member of the I. O. O. F. and I. O. O. K.

William Tucker was born in January, 1831, and is a son of William and Anna (James) Tucker, natives of Tennessee. His parents engaged in farming, and when he was but three years old came by water to Little Rock, and then by wagon to Franklin County, finally locating in Madison County, Ark., where the father took up land, which he improved. The father and mother died in 1878 and 1876, respectively. To them the following twelve children were born, all of whom lived to maturity: Nancy (deceased), Lucinda, Jane (deceased), Elizabeth (deceased), Asbury (deceased), William, Wiley, Thomas, Anna, Jack, Catherine. Those living are residents of Arkansas. William Tucker grew to maturity in Hillburn Township, and until twenty-one years of age lived with his parents. In 1852 he crossed the plains to California in an ox wagon, and there spent four successful years. Since his return he has engaged in farming, in which he has also met with success. His farm contains 500 acres, 150 being well improved and cultivated. In 1859 he married Margaret McKinney, who was born in this State in 1844, and has borne seven children: James, William, Emily, John, Belle, Martha and Charles (deceased). Mrs. Tucker is a member of the Christian Church, and Mr. Tucker is a Master Mason. Politically he is a Democrat, and during the war served in the Confederate army, in Hill's regiment.

Christopher C. Vaughan, farmer and stock raiser, was born in this county December 7, 1847, and is a son of Judge G. W. Vaughan. In early life he received a common-school education, passing most of the time during the Rebellion in

ENTRY RECORD BOOK

1737 - 1770

(Land entries in the present Virginia Counties of Halifax, Pittsylvania, Henry, Franklin, and Patrick)

INTRODUCTION

This book contains land entries in the western portion of the original Brunswick County, namely, Halifax, Pittsylvania, Henry, Franklin, and Patrick. The area concerned was south of the Roanoke-Staunton River, west of Tewahomony Creek (now Aaron's Creek which divides Mecklenburg and Halifax counties), and extending to the Blue Ridge Mountains. These counties were formed from Lunenburg, which was separated from Brunswick in 1746.

In 1723, the Lords of Trade of London, upon the petition of the Virginia Council, exempted the inhabitants of Brunswick from the payment of quit rents and the purchase of land rights for seven years. In the same Order, the Crown limited these land grants to 1000 acres per person. This was to encourage actual settlers along the frontier. This policy was later changed and larger grants were permitted, but the principle was maintained in requiring three out of every fifty acres to be cultivated, or three head of cattle to be maintained, or a house of certain dimensions to be built.

Brunswick County's western lands developed slowly. In order to encourage settlement along the Roanoke River, in November 1738, taxfree status for a period of ten years was offered to settlers who would brave the dangers of the wilderness and make their homes there. These inducements attracted Swiss immigrants and the Germans, Quakers, and Scotch-Irish who were then moving in great numbers from Pennsylvania. The men who sat in executive council in Williamsburg issued Orders of Council for thousands of acres for themselves. Also, the men of eastern Brunswick and adjacent counties secured many Orders of Council for various size holdings.

It must be pointed out that an entry for land was but a statement of intention. Ownership of land resulted from satisfying the requirements for settlement on the land and improving it. For this reason many entries were voided. Nevertheless, it is surprising how many of the families found in the area today are those who first settled here. Interwoven in this book is a story of courage and high adventure. It is of both genealogical and historical importance. Many evidences of the Indians who once lived here can still be found along the streams and river banks after heavy rains and flooding.

This Entry Book has been transcribed verbatim from a photographic copy of the original book which is in the Clerk's Office at the Pittsylvania County Courthouse, Chatham, Virginia. Marginal notes are shown in parentheses before the entry. Words added in a different handwriting are enclosed in /slashes/. One name in particular, added over an illegible blot on page 10, could have been more accurately interpreted as Drury Stith, Buckner Stith and Thos. Duggins, not Drury, John, Buckner Stith & Thos. Duggins. I have underlined a letter or word when in doubt. In general, the entries are legible. However, the usual problem of S & L and I & J existed, t was not crossed, a left open, and u interchangeable with double e, initial letters of proper names were not always capitalized. Spellings of names were compared with other contemporary records. Yet, some errors in judgment may have been made.

It is obvious that several people wrote in the entry book because of differences in style of handwriting, punctuation, spelling, etc. I have been able to identify only John Donelson and William Hale. Some took the liberty of abbreviating even surnames.

The map included with this book is reprinted from a facsimile of the 1859 nine-sheet map in E. M.
